MABUHAY ANG PILIPINO!!! BAGUIO CITY AND BENGUET LONG LIVE THE FILIPINO!!!

City does not condone drug surrenderees

BAGUIO CITY - Mayor Mauricio Domogan in his weekly forum disclosed that the city government is willing to help the drug surrenderees, however, the later must first help themselves to reform.

Domogan stressed, "hindi natin sila binibigyan ng priority over and above law abiding citizen in the city na nangangailangan din ng tulong na walang nilalabag na batas".

As of the moment, the city government here spearheaded by the City Social Welfare and Development Office together with the Serenity in the Steps and other stakeholders are conducting seminars to drug surrenderees for them (surrenderees) to realize the effects of illegal drugs as well as their willingness to undertake the process of reforming.

THE DRUG WAR CONTINUES - Mayor Mauricio Domogan gives fatherly advice to the third batch of 823 drug users and 108 drug pushers (12 died during an alleged encounter with police personnel) who surrendered to police authorities to reform and shy away from the drug menace. Mayor Domogan promised a helping hand to give information on the services provided by the city government. The orientation seminar for the surrenderees is a project of the City Social Welfare and Development Office headed by Betty Fangasan in coordination with the Baguio City Police Office headed by city police director PSSupt. BAPMWR marks 10 years of safe drinking water

BAGUIO CITY - The Baguio Association of Purified and Mineral Water Refillers, Inc. (BAPMWR) marked its 10th year recognizing the founding initiators last Aug. 23 at the Supreme Hotel.

With the theme, "Celebrating 10 Years of Providing Safe and Clean, Affordable Potable Water in Every Home," the BAPMWR continues to ensure the safety and purity of drinking water being processed by refilling stations of the association in the city of Baguio.

The association recognized former city health officer Dr. Florence Reyes, Nick Guanzon, Engr. Arthur Killip and Engr. Guadencio Tiwing, Jr. of the Department of Health.

Also feted are Atty. Nellie Olairez, Edison Ang, Lydia Lo, Eliza Banangan, Teresita Estacio, Engr. Florence Cardenas, Mila Obillo, Arch. Narciso Obillo, David Abad, Alejandro Agpes, Roberto Belda, Eduardo Cervantes, Nelson de Ayre, Joel Escobar, Luzviminda Onia, Jesus Tamale, Zenaida Real and Adelfa Mendoza.

Special award was also given to Arch. Narciso Obillo for designing the BAPMWR logo and to Zenaida Real and Adelfa Mendoza.

BAPMWR president Atty. Olairez stressed that to sustain the quality of drinking water, they conduct annual inspection of all water refilling stations in coordination with the City Health Services Office to make certain that refilling station owners are complying with the provisions of the Sanitation Code of the Philippines.

It has been reported that there are more than 300 refilling stations in Baguio, however, around 120 are licensed and compliant with the Sanitation Code of the Philippines.

So as to protect the association as well as consumers, the BAPMWR together with the HSO are religiously monitoring and inspecting water refilling stations if the owners have complied with the permit and seal requirements.

With the proliferation of colorum water refilling stations in the city, executive assistant Rafael Tallocoy urged the BAPMWR to monitor and police their own ranks and reports any violations with the health and sanitation standards imposed under the existing rules and regulations to prevent the health of the consumers from being compromised.

Water refilling stations operating without the necessary requirements will be fined P2,000 for the first offense and temporary closure of the establishment; P3,500 fine for the second offense and 20 days imprisonment; and P5,000 fine for the third offense and 30 days imprisonment and permanent closure of the establishment.

Meanwhile, the HSO has imposed a set of procedures to be followed by water refilling stations as regards their source of supply and the phases in the purification process as well as the possible replacement of old containers./Jho Arranz

TESDA conducts massive skills mapping survey

BAGUIO CITY - As part of the poverty alleviation program of the government, the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA) will be undertaking the project "Barangay Kasanayan para sa Kabuhayan at Kapayapaan".

This aims to bring the services closer to the grassroots of the city catering to out-of-school youth, unemployed, among others who want to acquire skills for self-employment, employment abroad or entrepreneurship.

Hence, all barangay officials are urged to provide list of the names as well as skills needed by their constituents who would lie to avail of the free skills training programs of TESDA.

The survey will used as basis in planning as to what specific skills training that are needed.

The barangay officials are given until August 30 to submit the list to the TESDA-Baguio City Unit at BCSAT Compound, Upper Session Road or send it thru e-mail at car.benguet@tesda.gov.ph.

For further clarification, contact telephone number 661-1887 or 0977 856 0333 (globe) or 0947 998 8460 (smart).

The program is one of the advocacies of president Rodrigo Duterte for barangay empowerment./Jho Arranz

City prepares for Character Week

BAGUIO CITY - The city government here will celebrate the Annual Character Week this coming October.

The celebration is part of the city's commitment to make and sustain "Baguio a Character City by installing positive character values in all aspect of human endeavor in schools, businesses, churches, barangays, media, community groups, families, city and regional offices and non-government organizations" pursuant to Resolution No. 107, series of 2003.

To realize the city's goal and vision for a peaceful, clean, green and progressive Baguio, a center for education, trade and family-oriented tourism, managed by God-loving and strong-willed leaders in partnership with self-reliant and disciplined citizenry, the members of the Baguio Character Council recently convened to come up with the activities in the celebration of the Character Week slated first week of October.

Among the proposed activities include a song writing competition for schools, distribution of posters with good values for the barangays and civic society, faith community seminars for religious sector, character orientation seminars for government employees, free massage and haircut to employees and public, among others.

The Baguio Character Council is headed by mayor Mauricio Domogan with assistant city human resource management officer Edith Dawaten as the coordinator together with members from government; barangay; education; religious; business, trade, industry and tourism; civic society and professionals; and peace, justice and community relations.

"To have a meaningful Character Week celebration and as part of the city's advocacy to sustain the program by showcasing positive moral traits, other activities are lined up for its finalization focusing on good moral values," said Dawaten./Jho Arranz

Barangays urged to reserve open spaces for parking

BAGUIO CITY – Mayor Mauricio G. Domogan reiterated his previous appeal to barangay officials to already reserve available open spaces in their respective areas of jurisdiction purposely for the common parking area of their constituents to prevent the use of local roads for paring that contribute to the occurrence of traffic congestions.

The local chief executive pointed out that barangays must already reserve the available open spaces in their respective areas of jurisdiction to prevent them from being illegally occupied or titled by enterprising individuals depriving the barangays of sufficient spaces for public needs, especially for common parking areas for barangay constituents.

"We have to be aggressive in finding solutions to our worsening traffic and parking problems so that our motoring and commuting public will be able to experience relief from the tremendous traffic congestions because of illegally parked vehicles on our narrow roads," Domogan stressed.

He called on barangay officials to replicate the efforts of Barangay Pinsao Pilot Project set aside a common parking area for the vehicles of their constituents deterring the use of roads as parking areas.

According to him, in cases where there are private claimants to the proposed open spaces for barangay common parking areas, the city leadership shall assist in negotiating with the said claimants so that the need for common parking areas will be given the utmost priority over the personal interests of individuals.

The city official appealed to barangay officials to prioritise the identification of open spaces for common parking areas to reduce illegal parking on roads.

He observed that numerous individuals

Limited livelihood aid for drug surrenderees in city

BAGUIO CITY – Mayor Mauricio G. Domogan admitted the City Government has limited funds for livelihood assistance for the rapidly increasing number of drug surenderrees wanting to reform their way of life that is why efforts are being done in order to help them shy away from going back to the illegal drug trade.

The local chief executive claimed drug surrenderees wanting to avail of livelihood assistance from the city can submit their project proposals to the City Social Welfare and Development Office (CSWDO) which will in turn evaluate the feasibility of their proposals before the approval of the no-interest and non-collateral loan.

"We had proven that the rate of return of our no-interest and non-collateral livelihood loan has been successful and this are available funds which could be used by drug surrenderees interested to avail of livelihood assistance. We want to help our drug surrenderees but what is important is they should be willing to help themselves in order to free them from the drug menance," Domogan stressed.

He said personnel of the Baguio City Police Office (BCPO), the CSWDO, and volunteers from various non-government organizations which had been advocating against the use of illegal drugs are now closely working to provide lectures to the drug surrenderees to help them go back to normal life and become productive citizens of the city.

According to him, the government's all-out campaign against illegal drugs also contributed to the significant reduction of crimes in the city over the past several weeks that is why the city is also doing its part in trying to help the drug surrenderees go back to normal life and maximize their potentials in contributing to the development of their communities.

In terms of hosting a government drug rehabilitation facility, he revealed that the local government

NeverAgain: Martial Law stories young people need to hear

It's convenient to look at the past with rose-colored glasses instead of with memories of needles in your nail beds, electric wires attached to your genitals, and the barrel of a gun thrust inside your mouth

Majority of comments on articles about Martial Law seem to be from staunch defenders of that era. There are and will always be citizens who see those years as an era of peace and prosperity in our country.

We don't need to debate that. Instead we simply need to tell, retell and listen to the stories of those who survived those years. As the younger generation we need to do our own research, take the blinders off our eyes and learn what exactly life was like during Martial Law before coming up with flowery images of those years as a beautiful moment in history.

Silence by force

You would never have seen an article such as this as I would have already been taken, tortured, and killed for my opinions. If Martial Law were still in effect, bloggers who wrote anything even remotely critical of the government or its cronies would be jailed like they do in other countries.

There would be none of your Facebook rants about the administration, Metro Manila traffic, or even the outfit a politician is wearing. In fact, there wouldn't be Facebook, Instagram, and Gmail in the Philippines the way these websites are banned in China.

EDITORIAL

If I wrote during Martial Law, I could be taken from my home the way 23-year-old Lily Hilao was for being a prolific writer for her school paper at the Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila. In April 1973, Lily was taken by the military, and was raped and tortured in front of her 16-year-old sister. By the time Lily's family retrieved her dead body, it bore cigarette burns on her lips, injection marks on her arms, bruises and gun barrel marks. Her internal organs were removed and her vagina was sawed off to cover signs of torture and sexual abuse. Liliosa Hilao is considered to be the first female casualty and martyr of Martial Law.

Zero criticism

Martial Law engineer Juan Ponce Enrile defined subversion during a 1977 BBC interview: "anybody who goes against the government or who tries to convince people to go against the government – that is subversion." Proclamation 1081 gave the military the authority to arrest, detain, and execute anyone who even dared to breathe sadly about the Marcos administration.

Archimedes Trajano was only 21 when he questioned Imee Marcos on why she was the National Chairman of the Kabataang Barangay during an open forum. He was forcibly taken from the venue by Imee's bodyguards, and was tortured and thrown out of a building window, all because the presidential daughter was irked by his question.

Maria Elena Ang was a 23-year-old UP Journalism student when she was arrested and detained. She was beaten, electrocuted, water cured, and sexually violated during her detention.

Dr Juan Escandor was a young doctor with UP-PGH who was tortured and killed by the Philippine Constabulary. When his body was recovered, a pathologist found that his skull had been broken open, emptied and stuffed with trash, plastic bags, rags and underwear. His brain was stuffed inside his abdominal cavity.

Boyet Mijares was only 16 years old in 1977 when he received a call that his disappeared father (whistleblower and writer Primitivo Mijares) was still alive. The caller invited the younger Mijares to see him. A few days later, Boyet's body was found dumped outside Manila, his eyeballs protruding, his chest perforated with multiple stab wounds, his head bashed in, and his hands, feet and genitals mangled.

Trinidad Herrera was a community leader in Tondo when she was arrested in 1977. In this video she recounts being electrocuted on her fingers, breasts, and vagina until her interrogators were pleased with her answers to their questions.

Neri Colmenares was an 18-year-old activist when he was arrested and tortured by members of the Philippine Constabulary. Aside from being strangled and made to play Russian Roulette, he witnessed fellow detainees being electrocuted through wires inserted into their penises, as well as being buried alive in a steel drum.

Hilda Narciso was a church worker when she was arrested, confined in a small cell, fed a soup of worms and rotten fish, and repeatedly gang-raped.

Necessary methods

60,000 were arrested during the first year of Martial Law alone, and many of their stories will never be told. Michael Chua wrote a paper detailing the torture methods used during the Marcos regime.

Aside from electrocution of body parts and genitals, it was routine to waterboard political prisoners, burn them using cigarettes and flat irons, strangle them using wires and steel bars, and rub pepper on their genitals. Women were stripped naked, made to sit on ice blocks or stand Cont. on page 5

KAKAMPI MO ANG BATAS

No direct proof vs. De Lima re drug raps?

By: Atty. Batas Mauricio

LIFE'S INSPIRATIONS: "… 'and the truth shall make you free'…" (Jesus Christ, our God and Savior, in John 8:32, the Holy Bible).

-ooo-

DE LIMA CAN NOW HEAVE A SIGH OF RELIEF RE: DRUG RAPS? Senator Leila De Lima can now heave a sigh of relief, in a manner of speaking, because, for the first time since she was accused of coddling big-time drug lords manufacturing shabu inside the national penitentiary in Muntinlupa City by President Duterte, no less than his secretary of justice, Vitaliano Aguirre II, admitted she is being accused "only by implication".

Aguirre made this stunning admission in an interview that was reported in the news (please see http://www.manilatimes.net/sex-escapades-led-de-lima-to-break-law/281965/), at the same time that Duterte was telling reporters in Taytay, Rizal, that De Lima got involved with drug syndicates operating from Muntinlupa City after she entered into a relationship with her former driver-bodyguard.

Here was Aguirre's admission, as reported in the news: "The Department of Justice said four witnesses will testify against de Lima and link her to illegal drugs… Aguirre… said the witnesses included inmates, jail guards, a bagman of a drug lord, and some of de Lima's friends. But it would be 'only by implication'…"

-ooo-

PROOF BEYOND REASONABLE DOUBT: In law, accusations that an individual committed a crime must be proved by what is known as "proof beyond reasonable doubt", or that kind of evidence which produces conviction in an unprejudiced mind (see the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of People vs. Tadepa, G.R. No. 100354, May 26, 1995).

This kind of proof requires that the direct participation or culpability of the person being accused of a crime is fully established either by documentary or object evidence, or by the testimony of witnesses who saw the how, what, where, and when, of the commission of the crime.

If there is no such direct proof to show the guilt of the accused, he cannot be considered guilty, nor can he be convicted of any wrongdoing. In a case where the proof is not present, or is insufficient or unable to establish each and every element of a crime, the accusations must be discredited, and the accused could even retaliate by filing criminal cases for perjury or falsification, or even a civil case for damages.

-ooo-

AGUIRRE SHOULD CONSULT MORE OFTEN WITH DUTERTE? Of course, there is such a thing as "circumstantial evidence", which is the kind of evidence that, although there is no direct proof that a person committed a crime, proves a series of acts or events that, when connected to one another, could produce a moral certainty that the accused committed the crime.

Perhaps, this was what Secretary Aguirre was referring to when he classified the evidence against De Lima in connection with her supposed involvement with drug syndicates operating inside Muntinlupa City as evidence "only by implication". Cont. on page 7

North Korea gets 2 Golds, 3 Silvers, 2 Bronzes; and we get 1 Silver!

BY: FREDDIE J. FARRES

A couple of weeks ago, in an earlier column, I commented on another story that touched on Canada loosening their entry of Chinese and opening more visa centers in China to allow more Chinese to enter Canada. I basically pondered the question as to why the Chinese and not more of us Pinoys? While I would have wanted to throw in my ideas, I just had to restrain myself from doing so as I would not want to be branded as one who is un-patriotic or does not love his country that much.

Once again , I will throw in my one singular comment on this without candidly throwing in my 2 cents worth as to why the North Koreans, a country run by a ruthless dictator (they say), a country with around 1/4 our population ends up with 2 golds, 3 silvers and 2 bronzes; and we can't even get 1 gold?

The purpose of my commenting on this type of news is perhaps we can learn some of the lessons that need to be learned from these countries that seem to be snatching the rug from right under our noses, and this is not only in the field of sports but as I mentioned in an earlier column also in the field of business, industry more particularly the BPO industry, sciences etc. At the same time I am hoping that a lot of us can do away with that false sense of pride and patriotism (as it really does not exist nor does it have any meaning with a lot of us) and perhaps for us to do more introspection and ask ourselves what do the Chinese have, that the Canadians would prefer them to get into Canada. Or for that matter, what do the Koreans have for them to be able to get these medals in the Olympics?

Off the bat, what I can say on the matter is, and this I think would appear to be obvious, is that the North Koreans are getting the due training they deserve. And why is that? Simply because there are no greedy corrupt officials fucking and corrupting all that can be corrupted unlike in this country that has millions of smart and brainy citizens at that (among those most notable are lawyers –ha! ha! ha! ha!). As I have been saying for the past 20 years since we started Linis Gobyerno, way back for the past 20 years, that CORRUPTION is usually at the root of all this BS. So just look where we are now!!!

"North Korean athletes fall short of Kim Jong-un's medal target in Rio Olympics

North Korea's confident assertions that its athletes would leave Rio de Janeiro clutching a fistful of gold medals largely fell flat, leading to concerns that competitors will feel the wrath of Kim Jong-un when they return to Pyongyang.

Arriving in Rio on July 28, Yun Yong-bok, a senior official of the delegation, told reporters: "We didn't come all the way here to win a meagre five gold medals."

According to the Korea Times, the North Korean leader had ordered the head of the nation's sports commission to return with a minimum of five golds and 12 other medals.

In the final reckoning, North Korea's 31 athletes competed in nine sports, winning two gold medals, three silvers and two bronzes, a disappointing result after Pyongyang's athletes won four gold medals and two bronzes in London in 2012.

The pressure even told on Om Yun-chol, the 2012 gold medal winner in the 56kg weightlifting category and the firm favourite in Rio, who eventually had to settle for silver.

"Those who won medals will be rewarded with better housing allocations, better rations, a car and maybe other gifts from the regime, but Kim is going to be angry and disappointed at these results," said Toshimitsu Shigemura, a professor at Tokyo's Waseda University and an authority on the North Korean leadership.

"Those he feels have let him down are likely to be punished by being moved to poorer quality housing, having their rations reduced and, in the worst-case scenario, being sent to the coal mines as punishment."

There were reports that after the North Korean football team was humiliated 7-0 by Portugal live on television in the 2010 World Cup, a number of coaches and players were sent to reeducation facilities or reassigned to work in mines.

"Those that were sent to mines were allowed to come back again after one or two years," Mr Shigemura said. "But the same could very well happen to these athletes."

Yet Kim Myong-chol, executive director of The Centre for North Korea-US Peace and an unofficial spokesman for Pyongyang, insisted that the athletes would return "to a warm welcome and be treated as heroes.

"It was a very strong showing by the North's athletes, even if we did not do quite as well as in London," he told The Telegraph. "But if you rank the results in terms of gold medals per GDP, then North Korea is close to the top of the table."/By Julian Ryall, in cold rooms, and were sexually assaulted using objects such as eggplants smeared with chili peppers.

Forty-three years have passed. Time, as well as the circus that is Philippine governance make it easy to forget Martial Law as the darkest and most terrible moments in Philippine history. Many of its victims have died or have chosen to remain silent – silence being most understandable because these stories are truly difficult to remember, and much harder to tell.

Stories need to be told

Yet these horrific stories need to be told over and over until we realize that the pretty cover of the book of the Marcos years is actually full of monster stories. We need to bring the graphic accounts of torture and murder to light so that those who rest comfortably in their illusions that the Marcos years were pleasant will at least be stirred.

Instead we often hear from those who want to erase the evils of the past, those who tell us that these young people, many of them barely past their childhoods when they were tortured and killed, were violent rebels who sought to overthrow the government. Never mind that it was one of the most corrupt and cruel dictatorships the world has ever known, and that it was by the efforts of these young heroes that the reign of the Marcoses ended.

Majority of Martial Law victims were in their 20s and 30s at that time – the same age our younger citizens are now – those who have the luxury of shrugging off the Marcos years as a wonderful time. Unscathed by a more cruel past, the younger generation is only too eager to criticize the current state of our government and our people as being undisciplined and requiring an iron fist such as the one Marcos used to supposedly create peace in the past.

They forget that if we were still under Martial Law (or should it return), such sentiments of "subversion" could cost them their lives, and that the same freedom and voice they use to reminisce about a time they know nothing about would have been muted and extinguished if we did not have the democracy we enjoy today.

Hindsight is always 20-20, as they say. It's convenient to look at the past with rose-colored glasses instead of memories of needles in your nail beds, electric wires attached to your genitals, and a barrel of a gun thrust inside your mouth, the way thousands of Martial Law victims suffered and still suffer to this day.

Just because it didn't happen to you or your family doesn't mean it didn't happen to more than 70,000 victims during that time. Just because you were spared then doesn't mean you will be spared the next time this iron fist you wish for comes around./ Shakira Sison /Rappler.com

Pangulong Marcos dapat sa Libingan ng mga Bayani- Talaga naman itong mga kumokontra na mailibing ang aking idol na si The One, The Only Greatest President this country has ever had, the Great Apo Ferdinand Marcos. Walang sinumang Pangulo ang aabot sa kalahati ng galing ni Apo. Kung sabagay, ako ay isang tunay na Ilocano from Ilocos Sur at sa amin ay si Apo ang The One and Only at wala ng iba. Ang hindi ko lang talaga maintindihan ay ang katwiran ng mga kumukontra at hindi pabor sa paglibing kay Apo sa Libingan ng mga Bayani. Eh, kung ang isang AVSECOM na secutiry german shepherd na aso ay nakalibing doon, eh bakit naman hindi pu-puwede ang isang former President and former Philippine Military Officer? Kung sabagay ay 20 days lang naman ang binigay na temporary restraining order, at sa aking pagkakaalam ay after 20 days ay maililibing na siya dun. Ako ay naniniwala na kelangan na ng mga miyembro ng kultong dilaw at mga iba pa na mga kontrabida na aminin at tanggapin na si Apo Macoy ay napakaraming nagawanag mabuti para sa bayan natin at kung aking iisa-isahin ay kulang ang lahat ng espasyo ng buong pahayagang ito. Hindi po ba mga dear readers? Kaya tayo nagkakagulo-gulo at watak watak, ay sapagkat hindi makapag-move on ang maraming mga kasapi sa kultong dilaw at mga nag-gagaling galingan na kumokontra ng wala naman sapat na dahilan. O sya , sya, sige na at move on na kayo at nakita naman ninyo na mismong si Pangulong Duterte ang nagsabi that it is President Marcos' right to be buried at the Libingan ng mga Bayani as he was a former president and soldier. PERIOD!!!

CCTV sa BOC for Public Viewing -ISANG MALAKING KALOKOHAN- Ano ba naman itong malaking katarantaduhan na ito??? Ano ngayon kung mapapanood ng publiko ang mga CCTV sa loob ng opisina ng commissioner at ibang opisina sa ng Bureau of Customs (BOC)? Bakit po ba, ang mga lagayan at under-the-table deals ay lantaran ba na isinasagawa, sa harap ng CCTV?? Kaya nga tinawag na under the table o sa ilalim ng lamesa, maglagay ka ng CCTV sa ilalim ng lamesa! Ano ba akala ninyo sa mga Pilipino? Na ganuon tayo ka-TANGA at ka-GUNGGONG? Ikaw talaga Commissioner Faeldon, para kang hindi isang AYER sa mga suhestiyon at panukala mo na NONSENSE! Magkano nga ba ang mga CCTV na yan at baka kasing presyo yan ng mga ikinabit sa NAIA na nagkakahalaga daw ng daan-daang libo isang piraso (hanep sa overprice walang tatalo, yan ang Pinoy!!!).

Sa totoo lang ay walang makikita sa CCTV kung hindi puros good things, ngunit ang talamak na katiwalian ay isinasagawa sa isang lugar na walang CCTV or through electronic ways at ang problema kadalasan ay ang struktura at proseso na pumapalibot sa mga sistema ng inyong operasyon na anjan, kaya kahit na pati kobeta ay lagyan mo ng CCTV ay walang deterrent effect or preventive effect yan sa corruption.

Ikaw talaga Faeldon, ano kala mo sa lahat ng Pilipino TANGA???

CSWDO will screen and validate the extent of addiction of the surrenderees who really need rehabilitation and will provide medical and financial assistance if they are qualified," added Domogan.

He said, " tutulong kami sa kanila pero sila (surrenderees) dapat ang number one na tutulong sa kanilang sarili. Hindi maganda ang impact kung iyong inaasikaso mo ay ayaw naman tulungan and kanyang sarili".

"We will help them in whatever way we can but first they must reform themselves," ended mayor.

Because of the abrupt and unexpected number of drug surrenderees in Baguio, the city as no budget allotted for the construction of a rehabilitation center.

Moreover, the city is planning to communicate with the Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency for a proposed rehabilitation center at Balenben, Irisan for a possible funding of the construction of rehabilitation center by the PDEA.

On the other hand, the Baguio General Hospital will be constructing its rehabilitation center to cater to the needs of drug dependents/ushers.

At present, there are 882 drug surrenderees in the city and they are being monitored by the Baguio City Police Office if they are really complying with their commitment to stop their drug dependency and trade./Jho Arranz

IN RE: PETITION FOR CORRECTION OF ERRONEOUS ENTRY IN THE CERTIFICATE OF LIVE BIRTH OF MINOR JUNE ELAINE SURAT TANYAG,

NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG, REPRESENTED BY HER HEREIN SISTER JHONALYN R. SURAT-LUCAS
Petitioner,

-verus-

THE LOCAL CIVIL REGISTRAR OF THE CITY OF BAGUIO, THE NATIONAL STATISTICS OFFICE and/or THE PHILIPPINE STATISTICS AUTHORITY & ALLVEE V. TANYAG.
Respondents.

SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS CASE NO. 2555-R

NOTICE OF HEARING

Petitioner, through counsel, filed a verified petition praying that this Court, after due notice and hearing, issue an Order directing respondents the Local Civil Registrar of Baguio City, and the Philippine Statistics Authority to make the correction in the Certificate of Live Birth of Minor child JUNE ELAINE SURAT TANYAG to reflect the true date and place of marriage of her parents from 03 March 2002 in Baguio City to 27 February 2004 in Palayan City, Nueva Ecija, Philippines.

In Support of her prayer, petitioner alleged the following:

"1. The Petitioner is NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG, of legal age, married, Filipino, and a resident of 27 Cabanilla St., Sapang Buho, Palayan City, Nueva Ecija, Philippines, who is represented in this case by her sister JHONALYN R. SURAT-LUCAS, of legal age, married, Filipino, and a resident of 541 Lennec, Guimba, Nueva Ecija, Philippines, where she may be served with the Orders, Notices, and other legal processes of the Honorable Court. Attached hereto as Annex "A" is the authorization issued by Petitioner NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG to her sister JHONALYN R. SURAT-LUCAS. On the other hand, the HON. LOCAL CIVIL REGISTRAR OF CITY OF BAGUIO and THE NATIONAL STATISTICS OFFICE (NSO) and/or THE PHILIPPINE STATISTICS AUTHORITY (PSA) are herein impleaded as Public Respondents as they are the repositories and custodians of all documents representing and covering all facts of births, marriages and deaths, and if ever, these are the subject offices who will implement the Court relative to this Petition with respective office addresses at the Office of the Local Civil Registrar, Baguio Health Center Compound, T. Alonzo St., Baguio City, Philippines, and at the National Statistics Office, 3/F NSO-CVEA Building, East Ave., Diliman, Quezon City, Manila 1101, Philippines, where they could be served with the notices, orders and other processes by the Honorable Court. Likewise, Mr. Allvee V. Tanyag who is of legal age, married to the Petitioner NORIZA T. SURAT-TANYAG, Filipino, and a resident of 28-A F. Manalo St., Ligid, Tipas, Taguig, Metro Manila, Philippines, where he could be served with the notices, orders and other processes by the Honorable Court is hereby impleaded as Private Respondent considering that he is the biological father of the minor child whose Certificate of Live Birth is the subject of this Petition. Further, said private respondent stands to be affected or may have interest over the erroneous entry sought to be corrected by this Petition;

2. Petitioner NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG and Private Respondent ALLVEE V. TANYAG were married to each other on 27 February 2004 in Palayan City, Nueva Ecija, Philippines as indicated in their hereto attached Certificate of Marriage and Advisory of Marriages as issued by NSO/PSA which are hereto attached and marked as Annex "B" and Annex "C", respectively, however, in 2005, said individuals parted ways and have been living apart since then. The union of the said individuals was blessed with two children named ALEEZA RAINE ROSERO SURAT who was born on 27 March 2002 in Baguio City and JUNE ELAINE SURAT TANYAG who was born on 27 May 2003 also in Baguio City. Attached hereto as Annex "D" and Annex "E", respectively, are the Certificate of Live Birth of the said children;

3. At the time of birth of their children JUNE ELAINE SURAT-TANYAG on 27 May 2003 in Baguio City, herein Petitioner NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG and Private Respondent ALLVEE V. TANYAG were not yet married to each other, hence, there said child was born out of wedlock, however, there was no legal impediment for the said individuals to get married at the time of birth of their child and eventually on 27 February 2004, Petitioner NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG and Private Respondent ALLVEE V. TANYAG got married to each other in Palayan City, Nueva Ecija, thus, by operation of law, particularly under Art. 270 of the Civil Code of the Philippines which reads: "Legitimation shall take place by subsequent marriage between the parents", hence, their said child was legitimized by their subsequent marriage. In the Certificate of Live Birth of JUNE ELAINE SURAT-TANYAG, however, it appears that her parents herein Petitioner NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG and Private Respondent ALLVEE V. TANYAG, were married on 03 March 2002 in Baguio City when no such marriage ever taking place. Said erroneous entry having been bracketed and marked as Annex "E-1" in the Certificate of Live Birth of said child. Truth is, the said individuals were married on 27 February 2004 in Palayan City, Nueva Ecija as indicated in their Certificate of Marriage and Advisory of Marriage which entries of the true and correct place and date of marriage of her parents are bracketed and marked as Annex "B-1", Annex "B-2", Annex "C1", Annex "C-2", respectively. Also, it can also be readily seen in the said Certificate of Marriage of the said persons that herein Petitioner's representative and sister JHONALYN R. SURAT-LUCAS was present during the said wedding ceremonies as she was the one who gave to her herein sister-Petitioner NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG the consent to get married to the Private Respondent;

4. Accordingly, the reason for such erroneous entry in the Certificate of Live Birth of said child was brought about by the previous experience of Petitioner NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG and Private Respondent ALLVEE V. TANYAG, wherein it has been the discussion of those around them that their older child ALEEZA RAINE ROSERO SURAT was born without her parents having been married, hence, she is illegitimate and that she even did not carry the surname of her father which fact caused humiliation and annoyance on the part of herein Petitioner NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG. Issues on morality on the part of the Petitioner and Private Respondent likewise surfaced for having children and living together as husband and wife without the benefit of marriage, hence, if only to protect their second child, herein JUNE ELAINE SURAT-TANYAG, from running into the same embarrassment as her older sister and in order to protect and make it appear that JUNE ELAINE SURAT-TANYAG was born legitimate and in order for her to carry her father's surname, Petitioner NORIZA R. SURAT-TANYAG conveniently and randomly gave date and place of their marriage to the hospital attendant when she gave birth which date and place of their marriage she gave 02 March 2002 in Baguio City. Further, despite not having been married to each other, the Private Respondent did not oppose to the indication of such erroneous information in the said Certificate of Live Birth of their said children and that he too did not object to the use of his surname by said child;

5. Said error came about due solely to the foregoing reason and is not in any way intended to hide the true civil status of the parents of minor child JUNE ELAINE SURAT TANYAG when she was born nor was it intended to hide the true identity of the said child and that of her parents and that due to the said error in the preparation of the Certificate of Live Birth of JUNE ELAINE SURAT TANYAG, the said error was registered with the Office of the Civil Registrar General of Baguio City and with NSO and/or PSA reflecting therein the error that the parents of said child were married on 03 March 2002, Baguio City instead of the truth that they were not yet married on 27 May 2003, the date of birth of herein JUNE ELAINE SURAT-TANYAG and that they were only married only on 27 February 2004 in Palayan City, Nueva Ecija, Philippines;

6. In view thereof, it is, thus, most respectfully prayed of the Honorable Court that after due notice, publication and hearing, to issue and Order directing the Local Civil Registrar of Baguio City, the National Statistics Office and/or the Philippine Statistics Authority to make the correction that would reflect the true date and place of marriage of the parents of herein minor child JUNE ELAINE SURAT TANYAG by canceling or removing the erroneous entry in the date and place of marriage of her parents as appearing in her Certificate of Live Birth being 3 March 2002 in Baguio City and annotating therein the true and correct date and place of marriage of her parents as 27 February 2004 in Palayan City, Nueva Ecija, Philippines.

7. The petition is hereby filed in order to correct the erroneous entry in the Certificate of Live Birth of herein minor JUNE ELAINE SURAT-TANYAG and in order to set things straight and to avoid further confusion as to the true and correct date of marriage of the parents of the said child's identity and that of her parents, and not for any illegal purpose"

NOW THEREFORE, finding the petition to be sufficient in form and substance, let the same be set for hearing before this Court, at its Session Hall, on October 20, 2016 at 8:30 o'clock in the morning, at which place, date and time, the petitioners shall prove the merits of their petition and any interested person may appear and show cause, if there be any, why the same should not be granted.

Let a copy of this Order be published in the Junction a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Baguio and suburbs, once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks. The last publication shall not be later than October 9, 2016.

Let copies hereof be served upon respondents Office of the Local Civil Registrar of Baguio City, the Philippine Statistics Office, and the petitioner through counsel, as well as the Office of the Hon. Solicitor General. Further, let copies hereof be posted at the Bulletin Board of this Court, the City Hall, the City Market, and the Post Office all of the City of Baguio.

But, come to think of it, whether or not this is really the case---whether or not the evidence against De Lima is circumstantial or by implication only---Aguirre's statement dramatically runs contrary to earlier pronouncements by his President to the effect that De Lima was really involved in drugs. Maybe Aguirre should consult with Duterte more often as to what the President's proof consists of against De Lima.

However, he claimed there are four alleged informal settlers whose houses must be demolished proposed rehabilitation center site.

At the same time, he added the local government is also closely coordinating with the management of the Baguio General Hospital and Medical Center for the put up of a separate drug rehabilitation center inside the hospital compound.

He urged the remaining drug pushers and drug users to voluntarily surrender to authorities to avoid unnecessary violence.

It was learned that there are now close to 1,000 drug surrenderees from the city's 128 barangays with bulk of the surrenderees being drug pushers./By Dexter A. See

ATTY. BRENDA D. POKLAY – SIBAK SA SERBISYO !!!

Strike 1, nakalusot; strike 2, you're out!

PINAL NA ANG HATOL NG CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION (CSC). PINA SISIBAK SA SERBISYO SI ATTY. BRENDA D. POKLAY, Legal Officer ng DOTC-CAR. Hindi na ito isang palaisipan at isa nang magandang halimbawa na isinasagawa ng isang ahensiya ng gobyerno, ang CSC, na kasama sa kanilang mandato ang labananan ng wasto ang korapsyon at katiwalian.

Mabuhay ang Board en Banc ng Civil Service Commission na pinangungunahan ni ALICIA dela ROSA-BALA, Chairperson; ROBERT S. MARTINEZ, Commissioner; DOLORES B. BONIFACIO, Director IV, Commission Secretariat and Liaison Office. Kinagagalak namin na hindi naging kontrabida sa pagkakataong ito ang CSC Head Office sa laban kontra korapsyon at katiwalian. Sa pagkakataong ito ay nabigyan ng tunay na hustisya ang mamamayan ng Baguio at Cordillera. Nabawasan ng isang matinding tinik ng katiwalian!!!

Kung inyong matatandaan, noong nakaraaang isyu lamang ng LG Komentaryo nitong August 13, ay ating inilathala ng bahagya ang hinggil sa reklamo laban kay Atty. Poklay na kung saan noong February 2, 2008 ay inutos na sibakin sa serbisyo ni dating DOTC Secretary Leandro Mendoza, ngunit noong December 2, 2009 nireverse at pinayagang muli na makabalik sa serbisyo itong si Atty. Poklay ng Civil Service Commission board en banc kaya nanatili ang mga &%&$#^() @+& sa DOTC-CAR. Nitong taong 2015, ay mayroon muling mga reklamo na isinampa si Atty. James Valeros na isang concerned citizen and esteemed Senior Linis Gobyerno Adviser laban kay Atty. Poklay. Sa kasalukuyan ay mayroon pang mga naka-pending na reklamo sa CSC-CAR laban kay Atty. Poklay, kung saan nag-desisyon ang CSC-CAR na sibakin siya, bagama't naghain ng apela itong si Atty. Poklay sa CSC Main office. Ngunit kamakailan lang ay nagkaroon na ng pinal na desisyon ang CSC main (Board En Banc) kung saan ayon sa kanilang desisyon na inilabas nitong August 3, 2016 identified as Decision No. 160839, RE: Conduct Prejudicial to the best interest of the Service; Simple Neglect of Duty (Petition For Review) inyong mababasa ang sumusunod na dispositive portion:

"WHEREFORE, the Petition for Review of Atty. Brenda D. Poklay, Legal Officer Department of Transportation and Communications-Cordillera Administrative Region (DOTC-CAR), Baguio City is hereby DISMISSED. Accordingly, Decision No. 1500090 dated December 22, 2015 of the Civil Service Commission-Cordillera Administrative Region (CSC-CAR), Baguio City, finding Poklay guilty of Conduct Prejudicial to the Best Interest of the Service and Simple Neglect of Duty and imposing upon her the penalty of dismissal from the service with the accessory penalties of forfeiture of retirement benefits, except accrued leave credits/terminal leave and personal contributions to the GSIS, if any, cancellation of eligibility, perpetual disqualification from holding public office, and bar from taking Civil Service examinations; and Resolution No. 1600007 dated February 11, 2016, denying her Motion for Reconsideration, are AFFIRMED.

"Copies of this Decision shall be furnished the Commission on Audit-DOTC-CAR and the Government Service Insurance System (GSIS), for their reference and appropriate action."

Hinggil dito ay nais nating manawagan kay DOTC-CAR Regional Director Natividad at Secretary Arthur Tugade na gampanan nang agaran ang kanilang tungkulin at isagawa ang implementasyon ng naturang DECISION. Bagama't alam natin ang due process na nakasaad sa Sec. 70 Rule 13 (Petition for Review) ng CSC rules on administrative cases ay nais rin naming paalalahanin na kung sakali ay mag-hahain ng apela si Atty. Poklay sa Court of Appeals (CA) ay malinaw ang nakasaad na proseso sa Rules of Court, Sec. 12 (Rule 43), at sapagkat bilang isa kang abogado RD Natividad, ay sigurado kami na iyong naiintindihan ang tamang proseso. Hindi po ba DOTC-CAR RD Atty. Natividad?!

ATTY. BRENDA D. POKLAY, DOTC-CAR Legal Officer – PINASISIBAK SA DESISYON NG CSC-CAR. MABUHAY KA CSC-CAR REGIONAL DIRECTOR MARILYN E. TALDO

Itong empleyado ng DOTC-CAR na si Atty. Poklay ay sinibak na noon sa serbisyo ni dating DOTC Secretary Leandro Mendoza ngunit binalik siya sa puwesto ng CSC.

Kamakailan lamang ay nag-desisyon ulit ang CSC-CAR na sibakin ang empleyado na ito ngunit siya ay nag-apela sa CSC Main office para ipawalang-bisa ang desisyon na ito laban sa kanya ng CSC-CAR for dismissal from the service.

Ang tanong ngayon ay kung muling mag-mamagaling at muling ipapawalang-bisa ng CSC Main Office ang desisyon ng CSC–CAR o magiging isang tagapagtanggol ng kaban ng bayan at tagabigay ng karampatang parusa sa mga korap ang CSC Main office.

CSC Manila, strike 2 na ito. Hanggang ilang strike ba ninyo papayagan ang isang empleyado na manatili sa serbisyo???

Basahin ang ating Komentaryo na tunay nga na isang palaisipan.

Mga kaso na nakabinbin sa opisina ng Civil Service Commission (CSC), dapat nang desisyonan ng agaran nang ang mga tiwali sa gobyerno ay mabawasan. Isang halimbawa dito ay ang kasalukuyang kaso ni Atty. Brenda Poklay na dati ng sinibak sa pamumuno ni DOTC na si dating DOTC Secretary Leandro Mendoza ngunit pinabalik sa serbisyo ng CSC Main.

Ngayon ay nag-desisyon na naman ang CSC-CAR hinggil sa mga panibagong reklamo laban sa kanya kung saan siya ay pinasisibak muli sa serbisyo ng CSC-CAR ngunit kasalukuyang naka-apela ito sa CSC Main office. Ano kaya ang magiging desisyon ng CSC Main office? Muli ba siyang ibabalik sa serbisyo sa pangalawang pagkakataon o tuluyan na siyang sisibakin?

Basahin ang mga dispositive portion ng mga susmusunod na desisyon. Dahil sa kakulangan ng espasyo ay ang mga dispositive portions lamang ng mga desisyon ang ating ihahayag. Kung nais ninyong malaman ang puno't dulo ng mga reklamo hinggil sa Respondent- Atty. Brenda Poklay maaring kumontak lang kayo sa aming tanggapan para sa kabuuan mga desisyon.

Desisyon mula sa opisina na DOTC Secretary Mendoza, Feb 2, 2008

WHEREFORE, premises considered, this Office finds respondent Atty. Brenda D. Poklay guilty of Gross Neglect of Duty and Incompetence and Inneficiency in the Performance of Official Duties. She is hereby meted the penalty of DISMISSAL FROM THE SERVICE with all its corresponding accessories.

Let a copy of this Decision be furnished the respondent, the Director DOTC-CAR and the Civil Service Commission.

City marks 107th Baguio Day on Sept. 1

BAGUIO CITY – The city will mark the 107th Baguio Day celebration on Sept. 1 with colorful and meaningful activities top-billed by the traditional program at 8 a.m. at the Baguio Convention Center and the civic parade down Session Road.

Presidential Communications Secretary Jose Ruperto Martin Andanar will keynote the program with this year's theme is "Fostering Meaningful Change through Synergy and Cooperation."

Rep. Marquez Go, Mayor Mauricio Domogan and Vice Mayor Edison Bilog will also deliver their messages during the program.

A program highlight will be the awarding of the five outstanding citizens by the Society of Outstanding Citizens of Baguio (SOCOB) headed by Dr. Priscilla Macansantos.

This year's awardees are Atty. Augustin Laban III and Dr. John Tinoyan for public service, Atty. Richard Stone Pooten for business/service, Arch. Gloria Vergara for community development and Melanie Rulla-Saro for professional service.

Another feature of the program will be the kick-off of the 22nd National Crime Prevention Week celebration with the theme, "Hawak Kamay Tungo sa Kapayapaan at Kaunlaran." To be led by National Police Commission regional director Editha Puddoc, the launch will be marked with an overview and audio-visual presentation, recitation of the Crime Prevention Pledge and the blowing of whistles.

After the program, the traditional parade will follow with a portion to come in a diorama or tableau-style to enliven and give more meaning to the traditional procession.

City administrator and Baguio Day executive committee action officer Carlos Canilao said that as an innovation, the diorama "will depict the city's multi-culturalism" through the participation of the various tribes of the Cordilleras, the different ethnic groups from Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao and the foreign communities.

Foreign nationals from Japan, China, Korea and even the Middle East who have made the city their home will send delegates to the parade to show that they are one with the native residents in celebrating the event, according to Councilor Elmer Datuin.

Mayor Domogan said that through this the city gives recognition to the different tribes now reside in the city led by the Ibalois, the original inhabitants of the city.

"We are recognizing that our city is now a metropolitan area, not anymore a city for a single tribe but a mixture of the different tribes," he said.

"This will show that despite the diversity of the race and culture, we are united in our quest for development for our city," city tourism officer Benedicto Alhambra said.

Canilao said the tableau will also depict the city's history. "We will show the progression of Baguio from its beginnings to the occupation of the Spanish, American and Japanese and to what it is now."

The tableau-style parade was revived recently upon the suggestion of former city public information officer Ramon Dacawi to add color and meaning to the traditional Baguio Day procession.

Dacawi recalled that the diorama-style parade which was mounted in the years past and annotated by the late newsman Freddie Mayo made a big impression to the public prompting the then city council to approve a measure to make it a regular Baguio Day undertaking.

This year's parade will also feature the Miss Baguio finalists and delegates from the barangays, civic groups, schools, business and other sectors.

Half of Session Road (from the lanes fronting PNB Session and Jollibee) will be closed from 12 midnight of Aug. 31 to 12 midnight of Sept. 1 as per Mayor Domogan Administrative Order No. 96 series of 2016 to give way for the various fun-filled activities scheduled for the day.

Road activities include mini-concerts sponsored by Smart Communications and Globe Telecom, zumba party, band exhibitions, pocket events to exhibit arts and culture, chalk art painting, dance battle, cosplay competition and a Pokemon Go lure party and contests for which Pokemon stops were set up along the road.

Sidewalk cafes will also be set up by the business establishments for promenaders.

A fireworks display will be staged at 7 p.m.

The Baguio Day calendar of activities was launched last Monday with a call to action and cooperation by Canilao.

Mayor Domogan expressed hopes that the people will translate into action the Baguio Day theme and contribute to effecting a meaningful change by working together.

Lending an environmental dimension to the celebration is a tree-planting activity will be conducted by city government employees on Sept. 16. A total of 5,000 seedlings donated by the SM will be planted at the city-owned property in Sto. Tomas barangay.

Residents are encouraged to do their own planting at home to support the regreening program.

Other highlights of the Baguio Day calendar are the Baguio Health Fair held last Aug. 27; "Astig Ako Go Lang ng Go Battle of the Champs" on Aug. 29 8 a.m. at the Baguio Convention Center; Beautiful Baguio Photo Contest (details to be announced); acquire motor vehicles but they do not have the matching parking spaces within their residences resorting to the use of the roads as parking areas further constricting the narrow roads.

He added he will bring the matter to the attention of barangay officials during the next meeting of the Association of Barangay Councils to update information on barangays with already identified open spaces which can also serve as pay parking areas for income generation.

The absence of sufficient parking areas around the city contribute to the wayward parking of motor vehicles along all roads and streets resulting worsening traffic congestions in the central business district and in the barangays./By Dexter A. See
