Home Table catered for our wedding July 2023 and honestly we could not have chosen a better caterer to do so, they were fantastic! Nell and Lisa were a delight to deal with from our very first enquiry - helpful, responsive and gave great advice based on extensive experience. They organised everything catering-related themselves, which was so helpful, and set up at the venue the day before, giving us peace of mind that there would be no issues on the day. Everything was just as we'd asked. The food itself was amazing! Delicious canapés, and a fresh, modern take on "traditional" wedding breakfast, our guests (and us of course!) were so impressed and many have said it was the best food they've had at a wedding. Great quality ingredients and really good portion sizes. Could not recommend Home Table more, incredible food but also just a really lovely team of people. Thank you Nell, Lisa, Paul and the rest of the Home Table team!
