

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb

VILLAGE OF CHAGRIN FALLS
ARTS COMMISSION
April 1, 2013

Members present: Scott Lax, Don Edelman, Janis Evans

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m.

CHAGRIN DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

Nancy Rogoff announced that on April 17, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. The Art of Documentary Film will be held at Hamlet Village Atrium. It is a program of short films on art and education. There is no cost to attend and it is open to the public. She also reported that “The Lost Bird Project” was the “Best of the Fest” last year and in June the sculptor from the project will be here who sculpts very large sculptures of birds that have gone extinct. The historian from the project will also be here.

CHAGRIN FALLS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

John Bourisseau reported that they are continuing to move into the Strategic Planning process. They are going to have a followup meeting with Andy Verhoff, from the Ohio Historical Society, on Wednesday. They will begin the process of distilling the information gathered at their February 16th meeting.

Mr. Bourisseau mentioned that they are in the process of reinstating the Plaque Committee. He said they are talking about publishing something on the history of the downtown business district and they are also talking about developing a picture book of then and now kind of things. The Chagrin Falls History Book is almost sold out so they are going to have to print more.

CHAGRIN FALLS STUDIO ORCHESTRA

No report.

CHAGRIN FOUNDATION FOR ARTS AND CULTURE

Betsy Towns mentioned that Liz O’Neil has resigned from her position as executive director. She said it sounds like the new executive director will be named fairly quickly. She announced that The Musical Theater Project “The Making of the Music Man” will be held on April 28th at 3:00 p.m., at the Chagrin Falls High School. The Chautauqua events will be held on Tuesday, July 9th, America 1863; Tuesday, July 16th, Markets and Morals; Tuesday, August 6th, Diplomacy; and Tuesday, August 20th, Health Care Reform and Innovation.

CHAGRIN VALLEY LITTLE THEATER

Tom Neff reported that Putting it Together is running now and auditions will be held for Skin Deep

this month.

VALLEY ART CENTER

Ann Chaney reported that the opening night for “Creatures Featured” is Friday, April 5th. The exhibit dates are April 6th through May 16th. She mentioned that in conjunction with that they have a Pet Pin-Ups Board and all the proceeds will go to PetFix Northeast Ohio. There will be other fund raisers throughout the evening and the proceeds will also go to PetFix. She announced that the new session starts April 15th and she has catalogs for that. The Bell Street Artwalk will be held on May 31st from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Art by the Falls will be held on June 8th and 9th.

PUBLIC ART GUIDELINES

Mrs. Rogoff reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission is still reviewing this.

DALE SLAVIN (SCULPTOR)

Mrs. Evans said Mr. Slavin has brought a bigger rendition of the art that he brought last time. She asked that it stay here for a couple of days in hopes that it can be photographed and get published in the local papers. Mr. Slavin made a presentation to the commission regarding his piece and public art (sculptures) in Chagrin Falls.

Mrs. Evans said she endorses what he is doing and what he would like to do. But, unfortunately, the village doesn't have any discretionary funds right now.

Mr. Lax suggested that Mr. Slavin come back one more time with one idea for one sculpture, something very specific, and the commission gives it an up or down vote in terms of endorsing it and then put it out there for private funding. Mrs. Evans said there may be some grants available.

ARTS DAY

Mrs. Evans reported that the tentative date is August 25, 2013 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., in conjunction with the Farmer's Market, in Triangle Park.

CLEVELAND FILM COMMISSION

Mrs. Evans said she does have the contract that the Cleveland Film Commission proposed to the City of Cleveland.

The meeting adjourned at 6:49 p.m.

Janis Evans, President
lgb