

How many MORE DEAD? (Brussels Attacks,31 dead only for NOW!)

-HP Hooded Cobra 666

My comment:

The Joy of Satan has went forward, each of its members risking everything, into giving the Truth out in the public. The Truth about Spiritualism, Racial theory, and all other plans of the enemy Jew World Order. We have told you, this is what you should expect. We are not prophets, but we can see the evident, which is what most people cannot and just don't want to see. This world is dancing on the pit of damnation. I myself have countless of times repeated and repeated again- This is the only thing that will happen out of all this, unless we put forward to stop this. We have eventually worked out to stop and defend people spiritually from a lot of things. How much more?

And of course, jesus the jew, and the beings of the enemy, keep on the same narrative that of White and Gentile genocide, total world destruction, narrative. We will do the same narrative too then, as we always have done, until the end.

While we can promise to say the Truth, as we always did, however cutting and however it strike into the ears of people, we can never promise you something else. You can go to the enemy and lie to yourself, all day long. You can say Bataclan didn't happen, or that all this is just a coincidence. You can also say that nobody is behind this, and that actually, the powers that be are "Trying to stop this", and while you see they just further this to get you extinct. But don't trust your eyes, guys. Trust the eyes of the jew instead, who see all of this as the plan of the jewish "god" (ie the jews as a collective) to wipe out everything worthwhile in existence. What a good way to see reality, indeed.

We will laugh at your face and trample you though, because we know the Truth behind matters. The day will come that the ones you consider "masters" now, they will just be so powerless and so revealed in your face, that who knows where you ought to go. But, as Satan has stated "Many will want to join us in the last moments, but it will be too late to do so". Also, "We have won". And finally, "Israel will get what she deserves" (on the punishment of the jews, who are behind all of this).

Satan always says the Truth, unfortunately, for his enemies. We know who is, we know what does, and we are taking an active stand, as opposed to the people of decay and hatred who push this to materialize into the world, or their cohorts. We won't lie, we won't sugar coat, and we can't promise you to make you brave and intelligent enough to come in terms with reality. This is something you must have to do.

But I have bad news. Unless you come in terms with it, you might end up like them and worse. Unfortunately, the enemy who has lied to you all along, all day and your whole life, is lying yet again. What a coincidence, since all your life is a made up lie by them.

Alice, wake the fuck up. This is not jew wonderland, and you are not a jewish princess.

Or I suppose an Islamic bomb is needed for people to wake up. I mean, what isn't happening in your neighborhood, means that it's of no issue. But history has the uncanny tendency of bringing all the problems of the world, in your own neighborhood, honeys. Because reality doesn't give a damn.

How many more DEAD people and DEAD Whites have to fall down, from these Jihadists, under the orders of the Jews and the eulogies of "EU" and "jewsus"? How many more have to suffer and die? Do you need to wait until your husband or son goes to work, only to never return again, or when you will see your grandma raped to death, or daughter, or cousin? Because yes, they too rape people up to the age of 75 years old. Because the jews lied to you guys. Most of these people are there for their mission, to Jihad you out of existence.

People of the World, Wake UP. This is your only chance. Unless you do so, there will be no way to save yourselves. Enough of this genocidal agenda, enough dead people, enough dead innocents, enough war. People need to wake up, and we will wake them up, as reality will do, wether they want this or not.

The Joy of Satan, and all we say, is the Truth. If you happen to have any doubts, you will for better or for worse discover it down the road. We have done our end of the deal and we will continue to do this. We have revealed you the Truth, naked and as it is. Internally, and Externally. The rest is up to everyone else to understand.

You can't take it? That's your issue. Sorry, I apologize. Its the issue of your people, your family, your town, your country and maybe of the whole world. Either fight and wake up, or eternal slumber awaits. And no guys, the jews aren't going to give you fun and eternal life, neither in this life, nor in the next. Unfortunately, you have been lied to your bones, for they consider you an animal with baseline intelligence, which they call in their jewish slang as "Goyim".

But oh well, your choice in the end will define if they were right or wrong about you. Reality is coming and it's not going to wait, though. Goyim subhuman slave or Human and free?

Brussels attacks: At least 31 dead at Zaventem and Maelbeek

At least 31 people have been killed and many seriously injured in attacks at Brussels international airport and a city metro station.

Twin blasts hit Zaventem airport at 07:00 GMT, killing 11 and injuring 81, Belgium's health minister said.

Another explosion struck Maelbeek metro station an hour later. Twenty people were killed, Brussels mayor Yvan Mayeur said.

Belgium has now raised its terrorism threat to its highest level.

The attacks come four days after Salah Abdeslam, the main fugitive in the Paris attacks, was seized in Brussels.

Prime Minister Charles Michel called the latest attacks "blind, violent and cowardly", adding: "This is a day of tragedy, a black day... I would like to call on everyone to show calmness and solidarity".

European Council president Donald Tusk said: "These attacks mark another low by the terrorists in the service of hatred and violence."

US President Barack Obama called the blasts "outrageous attacks against innocent people".

The airport and the entire public transport system in Brussels are closed.

'Blood everywhere'

Two blasts tore through the departures area of Zaventem airport shortly after 08:00 local time (07:00 GMT).

The Belgian prosecutor said "probably a suicide bomber" was involved.

The state-owned Belga news agency reports that shots were fired and shouts in Arabic were heard before the two explosions.

Public broadcaster VRT said an assault rifle was found next to a dead attacker. Private broadcaster VTM added that an unexploded bomb belt had been found. Reports say it will be detonated safely soon.

Zach Mouzoun, arriving on a flight from Geneva, told France's BFM television: "It was atrocious. The ceilings collapsed. There was blood everywhere, injured people, bags everywhere. We were walking in the debris. It was a war scene."

All flights have been diverted. Eurostar has cancelled all trains to and from Brussels. The Thalys France-Benelux train operator says the entire network is closed.

"People were running over others that had fallen, I couldn't breathe. I can't believe I'm alive," 15-year-old Antoine tells me, as he walks with his school friends in a line of hundreds being escorted on foot and by bus to a sports hall, now a makeshift reception centre.

Three hearses pass, heading towards the ruins of the airport departure hall. People sob at the sight of them.

Several tourists are asking police what they should do now, where it is safe to go - and when the airport might reopen.

The police are confused too, but offer what little information they have, telling people to head to a reception centre. An officer is repeatedly shouting, "Quickly, keep moving, evacuate, this is serious."

Security has been stepped up at Gatwick and Heathrow airports and the UK Foreign Office has advised British nationals to avoid crowded areas in Belgium. UK PM David Cameron chaired a meeting of the Cobra response committee on Tuesday.

France has stepped up security, and the cabinet has held an emergency meeting.

"The terrorists have struck Belgium but it is Europe that was targeted. And it is the whole world that is concerned with this," said French President Francois Hollande.

There is also extra security at Dutch airports.

The metro blast occurred shortly after 08:00 GMT during the rush hour at Maelbeek station.

It struck the middle carriage of a three-carriage train while it was moving away from the platform.

Alexandre Brans told AP: "The metro was leaving Maelbeek station when there was a really loud explosion. It was panic everywhere. There were a lot of people in the metro."

The station is close to EU institutions. The European Commission, the EU's executive arm, has told employees to stay indoors or at home. All meetings at EU institutions have been cancelled.

Belgium's Interior Minister Jan Jambon had said on Monday that the country was on the highest level of alert for possible revenge attacks after the capture of Salah Abdeslam.

He told Belgian radio: "We know that stopping one cell can... push others into action. We are aware of it in this case."

Zaventem airport is 11km (7 miles) north-east of Brussels and dealt with more than 23 million passengers last year.

Gaps in intelligence - By Chris Morris, Europe correspondent

European security experts had been braced for another attack for months. But it is always a huge shock when it actually happens.

If this was "revenge" for the arrest of Salah Abdeslam on Friday, it will be a source of considerable concern that a functioning terrorist network was able to respond so quickly and with such devastating effect.

It is possible that a cell linked to Abdeslam brought forward the timing of a future attack because they thought he might blow their cover.

Either way, it shows how advanced the planning was in terms of logistics, explosives, weapons and people willing to carry out such attacks on civilian targets.

The priority now will be to ensure that anyone else who poses an imminent threat to the public is apprehended as soon as possible. But it is clear that there are still huge gaps in intelligence, and Brussels is seen as a soft target.

In the words of French President Francois Hollande, the response from Europe will need to be "calm, lucid and determined" - and it will have to last for a long time.
