Overview of Silent Warrior Investigations & Services

Established 2007

Owned and Operated by
Michael P. Gervais

We specialize in surveillance, criminal investigations, civil investigations, executive/corporate/personal threat assessments, and cheating spouse investigations.

Terrorist attacks are preceded by indicators and warnings, stay alert and report all suspicious activity. If you observe something suspicious, do not automatically assume that there is a terrorist nexus. Likewise, never assume that there is a legitimate explanation behind something truly suspicious. Report all suspicious activity!

Silent Warrior Investigations is a licensed and insured private investigation business located in Southern California. Our military and law enforcement trained investigators have the knowledge and training to get the results you are looking for. We specialize in surveillance, criminal investigations, civil investigations, executive/corporate/personal threat assessments, and cheating spouse investigations. Our threat assessments provide relevant and actionable intelligence in a timely manner to prevent, mitigate, and respond to emergent threats.

Our services are based on professional integrity, honor, reliability, and confidentiality for the client. Operations are conducted by trained and licensed professional. Investigator(s) maintain training and subject matter expertise in areas that are predominant in our industry and the nature of our investigative services. Having practical application experience, continuing education, and new resources, in addition to utilizing the best technology available, allows us to acquire accurate results that will ultimately enable our clients to receive credible and undisputable evidence.

Silent Warrior Investigations services the Southern California area, in particular the Orange and Los Angeles County areas.
