Introduction

The full paper submitted for publication shall adhere to the general standards set by the discipline one is engaged into. For example, most paper on Education and Psychology conform the style set forth in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) Sixth Edition. On the other hand, the Council of Science Editors scientific style of documentation, now on its 7th edition, is used in the biological sciences and many other fields of scientific study as well. Moreover, articles from other disciplines like that of History are best written using the Turabian Style. Other styles as recommended and agreed by the Editorial Board shall be accepted. This is in adherence to the multidisciplinary nature of the journal. The length of the full paper should preferably be not more than 6,000 words, Word processed in letter size (8.5” x 11”) paper. There should be no space between two paragraphs. Use single line spacing and 2.5 cm (or 1 inch) margins for all sides of the paper. The font style is Calibri (Body), font size is 12 points. Do not place page numbering. All sentences are aligned to both left and right margins (Justify).

Level 1 Heading

The level 1 heading is Centered, Boldface, Uppercase and Lowercase. Leave a space of 12 points before the beginning of a new head.

Level 2 Heading

Level 3 heading. Level 3 heading is indented, boldface, lowercase paragraph heading ending with a period. Your paragraph begins right here, in line with the heading.

Level 4 heading. Level 4 heading is indented, boldface, italicized, lowercase paragraph heading ending with a period. Your paragraph begins right here, in line with the heading.

Another Level 1 Heading

Include in your full paper sufficient details to allow the work to be replicated. Use the international system of units (SI) and include the SI equivalent of other quantities mentioned.
