Ireland in a nutshell

When the rain is warm, it is summer in Ireland!

The climate of Ireland is mild, moist and changeable with a lot of rainfall and there aren't any temperature extremes. It is described as a temperate oceanic climate. The country has warm summers and mild winters. That is because of the Gulf Stream.

Did you know?

The three most famous symbols of Ireland are the green shamrock, the harp and the Celtic cross.

The original language of the Irish people is Irish Gaelic and nowadays there are still about 380,000 fluent speakers.

It is the first official language in Ireland and taught at schools. English is the second one but more common.

Eire (Air-uh) is the Irish name for the Republic of Ireland.

Some Travel Tips

Most road signs in Ireland are Irish and English. In a few Irish-speaking areas they are in Irish only. You see the green-and-white signs in kilometres and there are older black-and-white ones in miles.

Smoking is now banned in pubs, restaurants and cafés. It is perfectly legal to smoke outdoors and in private hotel rooms.

A traditional dish - Irish stew

You need: 1 pint of water, 500 g of onions, 1 kg of mutton (breast), butter, green beans, sweet corn, potatoes, tomatoes, mushrooms, salt, pepper and a packet of dark soup (for example: oxtail soup)

It is easy to make and really tasty. You serve it with mashed potatoes.

Typical Irish: Riding holidays

If you are interested in horses, go on farm holidays. Ireland has one of the most impressive collections of well-trained, friendly horses.

The following breeds are extremely sure-footed and ideal.

Irish Cob or Tinker Horse: perfect for children, patient and gentle.

Connemara Pony: can be ridden by both - children and adults.

Irish Hunter: a horse with incredible jumping ability and excellent movement - the right horse for you.

Hurling - a popular sport on the Green Island

Hurling is similar to hockey, in that it is played with a small ball and a curved wooden stick. It is Europe's oldest field game. The pitch is about 137 m long and 82 m wide.

The goalposts are the same shape as on a rugby pitch with the crossbar a bit lower. You can hit the ball on the ground or in the air.

a) What statement about the Irish weather is correct? Mark it.
