Curriculum Studiorum

I achieved the Scientific Lyceum graduation in 1985, at the Nazareno Institute of Rome, with a grade of 56/60.

I attended the faculty of Engineering at the University of Tor Vergata of Rome.

Once I followed the address of Electronic Engineering, I wrote a degree thesis, entitled: "Environments for the design and construction of models and evaluation of performance on Personal Computer", for the chair of Electronic Calculators (Prof. Salvatore Tucci), achieving the graduation on October 14th 1993, with a grade of 92/100. State Exam passed.

Professional Skills

I'm able to fulfill many roles in delivering a project: as Project Manager or Architect, Designer, Tester. Furthermore I fluently use many Project Management and System Design methodologies and notations: SCRUM, XP, UML (Unified Modeling Language), ER, BPMN, ...

I have excellent knowledge of development environments and programming languages: Java, Groovy, Grails, Delphi, Lex & Yacc, Pascal, C/C++, Assembler, Strand, Prolog, Simula, Clipper, Basic, ecc.

My in-depth technical knowledge allows me to relate effectively with any figure, both internal and customer-side, which is involved in the development of a software project.

I am fluent in English, both spoken and written, having spent various periods of time in England and the United States, both during the school years and university and both during my job life.
