Verses for the Week

Exo. 20:5 ...for I, Jehovah your God, am a jealous God...

Rom. 8:4 That the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the spirit.

2 Tim. 3:16 All Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for conviction, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

Exo.34:29 And when Moses came down from Mount Sinai—and the two tablets of the Testimony were in Moses' hand...—Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone by reason of His speaking with him.

Psa. 42:1-2 As the hart pants after the streams of water, so my soul pants for You, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When will I come and appear before God?

2Cor. 3:18 But we all with unveiled face, beholding and reflecting like a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord Spirit.

Excerpts from the Ministry

The law as the testimony of God, the expression of God, is the revelation of who God is to His people.

The law is the living word of God to infuse His substance into His loving seekers to make them His testimony for the fulfillment of His eternal economy.

The highest and most intrinsic function of the law as God's word is to impart God's substance into us to make us one with God, the same as God in life, nature, and expression but not in the Godhead.

There are two kinds of people dealing with the law—the loving seekers of God and the letter-keepers of the law.

By being infused with God's substance through His living word, we become the true worshippers of God, those who are according to what God is, who correspond to what God is, and who reflect what God is for His glory.

(Excerpts from msg 1 of the 2015 Summer Training)

Hymns, #541

Stanza 1

Not the law of letters,
But the Christ of life
God desires to give us,
Saving us from strife;
It is not some doctrine,
But 'tis Christ Himself
Who alone releases
From our sinful self.
