Laughter is the best medicine

Days go by and we must have strength and energy to live the day, stay active and positive and not forget to smile. Where can we get the strength for this and what can give us the energy we need?

It is possible not to get tired ever, to stay active and full of energy all day, to always think positively and keep smiling in spite of the hard impact of the outer world. More and more often people are faced with different problems and difficulties, duties at home, trouble at work, relationship problems or problems with children. So people sometimes lose themselves.

They can only think about their troubles. All this sounds fatal, but still there is a way out.

Besides a healthy and balanced nutrition and healthy sleep, laughter can be a strong medicine for your mind and body.

Laughter makes you feel good. Humour helps you to keep a positive, optimistic outlook in difficult situations.

Laughter can give you the courage and strength to find new sources of meaning and hope. Even in the most difficult times, a laugh or even simply a smile can go a long way to make you feel better.

Laughter is a powerful antidote to stress, pain and conflict. Nothing works faster or more dependably to bring your mind and body back into balance than a good laugh.

With so much power to heal and renew, the ability to laugh easily and frequently is an excellent resource for solving problems, enhancing your relationships and for supporting both physical and emotional health.

- ☺ Laughter relaxes the whole body. A good, hearty laugh relieves physical tension and stress, leaving your muscles relaxed for up to 45 minutes afterwards.
- ☺ Laughter triggers the release of endorphins, the body's natural feel-good chemicals. Endorphins promote an overall sense of well-being and can even temporarily relieve pain.
- ☺ Laughter dissolves distressing emotions. You can't feel anxious, angry or sad when you're laughing.
- ☺ Laughter helps you relax and recharge. It reduces stress and increases energy, enabling you to stay focused and accomplish more.

Shared laughter is one of the most effective tools for keeping relationships fresh and exciting. All emotional sharing builds strong and lasting relationship bonds, but sharing laughter and play also adds joy, vitality and resilience. And humour is a powerful and effective way to heal anger, disagreements and hurts. Laughter unites people during difficult times.

Create opportunities to laugh, e.g. share a good joke or a funny story, play with a pet, seek out funny people, make time for fun activities (e.g. bowling, miniature golfing, karaoke).

More humour and play in your daily interactions can improve the quality of your romantic relationships — as well as your connections with co-workers, family members and friends.
