

What is Anti-Christ

Anti means to oppose or be against. If something is antichrist it is anything presented as Jesus while opposing what Christ actually taught. The fake Jesus that is being preached today in most churches by his false prophets is an antichrist who does just that. Here is why...

Fame

The fake Jesus calls blessed, men whom people speak highly of. His children follow these men and revere them as leaders and examples.

The real Jesus says woe to those that are highly spoken of because that's what men have always done to false prophets. He calls blessed, men who are hated, reproached and have their names cast out as evil for his sake (Luke 6:22-23).

Prosperity

The real Jesus calls the poor blessed (Luke 6:20).

The fake Jesus calls the rich blessed. He says they can pursue both God and money because while they have treasure on earth, their heart is set on heaven.

The real Jesus says woe to the rich. He tells them that if they pursue riches they will hate God because their heart will be set on their earthly treasure (Mat 6:21,24).

The fake Jesus teaches that riches are a blessing and his false prophets promise more of them to all who faithfully give offerings and tithes to their ministries.

The real Jesus teaches that riches are deceitful and like thorns that choke the word of God out of us (Mat. 13:22). His prophets call riches corrupted and cankered (James 5:2-3).

The fake Jesus wants to make rich men feel comfortable having treasure on this earth and his false prophets want them to attend their churches, assuring them that their treasure is a blessing from God.

The real Jesus calls rich men, wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked (Rev 3:17). When they come to him he tells them to sell their treasure, not lay it up on this earth (Mat 6:19, 19:16-30, Luke 12:33). His prophets tell rich men to weep and howl because their treasure will eat their flesh like fire (James 5:1-3).

Freedom

The fake Jesus teaches that you can be saved and be a true child of God while serving in the military and fighting your enemies. His servants like that teaching because, as we saw earlier, they have a lot of wealth and prosperity to defend.

The real Jesus teaches that you can't be a child of God unless you love your enemies in a practical way by actually turning the other cheek and losing what you have (Luke 6:29-35).

The fake Jesus teaches that you can serve both God and country in the military.

The real Jesus teaches us that if we serve two masters we will either love one and hate the other or hold to the one and despise the other. He teaches his followers not to fight for a country in this world because his country is not of this world (John 18:36).

The fake Jesus teaches that our life, liberty and pursuit of happiness are important values worth defending. His false apostles teach men to defend those values by fighting anyone who might threaten to take them away.

The real Jesus teaches us that if we try to save our life we will lose it and if we want to pursue freedom and happiness, we can't be his disciples (Mat 16:24,25, & John 12:25). His apostles gave up those freedoms and teach others to do likewise by loving their enemies (Rom 12:20,21 & 1 Peter 2:21-23).

Divorce and Remarriage

The fake Jesus teaches that you can be saved and still be a child of God even though you are divorced and remarried or married to the divorced. His false prophets allow such couples to be part of their churches, even though they refuse to separate, assuring them that they are saved.

The real Jesus teaches that to be married to the divorced is always adultery (Mark 10:11-12, Luke 16:18). His prophets affirm that adulterers won't enter the kingdom of heaven (I Cor 6:9) and that's why, if anyone would have to separate from his or her spouse, the only option is to stay single or be reconciled to the first partner (I Cor 7:11).

Women

The real Jesus teaches that if a man looks upon a woman to lust after her, he commits adultery in his heart (Mat 5:28). His followers know that if a woman dresses in a way to attract a man's attention and he looks and lusts then they're both guilty; the man, because he desires a woman who is not his wife and the woman because she doesn't love God or her neighbor. If she loved God, she would care more about what he thinks than being attractive to a man and if she loved her neighbor, she wouldn't dress to be a stumbling block to him. That's why his true prophets instructed women to dress in such a way not to cause men to stumble (I Tim 2:9,10).

The fake Jesus doesn't care how women dress. He tells them that he only looks at their heart and he's happy with what he sees even though their hearts' desire is to be attractive to lustful men. His false teachers would never tell a woman to wear clothes that cover plainly and modestly. In fact some of his false teachers are the very women who dress inappropriately.

The real Jesus' apostles command women not to teach men or use outward adornments like makeup or jewelry, but rather wear a veil to cover their heads, submit to their husbands and keep silent in the churches (I Tim 2:9-12, I Cor 11:1-16 & I Pet 3:1-4). They never said anything about these things being a cultural issue or only for that time but rather that these things were the very commandments of the Lord (I Cor 14:34-37) for all men in every place (I Cor 1:2).

The fake Jesus teaches women that in him they are free to adorn themselves however they please, to teach, preach and usurp authority over men. His false prophets teach them to disregard teachings like the head covering and modest apparel, claiming that they were cultural issues of the past and no longer apply today.

The Fear of God

The real Jesus teaches that we need to fear him as one who will judge all people at his final coming (Mat 25) and his prophets taught the same (II Cor 5:10-11, I Pet 1:17). He even taught those who were already following him to fear God because he could cast their souls into hell (Luke 12:4-5). His apostles repeatedly warn that those who don't remain faithful to Jesus will be judged and condemned (Heb 6:4-8, 10:26-31, James 5:9,12, II Pet 2:17-22, I Tim 3:6, 5:12).

The fake Jesus teaches those who follow him that they don't need to fear God after they have prayed a certain prayer or accepted certain things as true.

Salvation

The real Jesus preaches about hell, judgment, weeping and gnashing of teeth over 20 times in the book of Matthew alone.

The fake Jesus just tells all people that God loves them and has a wonderful plan for their lives.

The real Jesus teaches that the only way to get into the kingdom of heaven is a narrow way and that we have to strive to enter in. He even goes as far as to say that many who will try to get in won't be able to (Luke 13:24).

The fake Jesus teaches that to be saved, all you have to do is accept him as your personal savior and if you try to do anything to be saved it would actually be counterproductive to your salvation and might even disqualify you.

The real Jesus says that not doing what he commands and then calling him Lord won't get you saved. He asks why anyone would want to do such a thing (Luke 6:46). In fact he said many would do that and only succeed in getting into hell (Mat 7:21-27).

The fake Jesus has a special formula to get you saved. His false prophets sometimes refer to it as "the Romans road" or "the four spiritual laws". It is based on the idea that forgiveness is always granted upon request.

The real Jesus has no special salvation formula. In fact some who came to him requesting salvation never received it (Luke 10:25,18:18, 23:39). However all the people whose sins were forgiven by Christ in the four gospels never actually requested it (Luke 5:20, 7:48, 19:9-10, 23:42-43). One thing he does teach however, is that when you pray for forgiveness you better forgive others or you are wasting your time (Mat 6:12-15)

The fake Jesus has a special sinner's prayer that his false apostles came up with that automatically gets you forgiven as soon as you say it. Most of them will be more than happy to lead you through it. However some might encourage you to say it on your own or come up with your own version. But all of them will assure you that you're born again and on your way to heaven if you did it with all your heart and didn't have any doubts about it.

The real Jesus teaches that you have to obey his commandments to be able to receive God's Spirit (John 14:15,16,21,23) and his apostles teach the same thing (Acts 5:32).

The fake Jesus hardly has any commandments so he gives his spirit to any one who confesses him as lord and savior.

The real Jesus calls men to enter the kingdom of heaven by following him (Luke 5:27) and his apostles do too (I John 1:7).

The fake Jesus preaches salvation backwards; he forgives mens' sins then they begin to follow him and walk in his darkness.

If you have found that after reading this you have been following the fake Jesus and want to be saved, then you better start following the real one because your Jesus is antichrist and the real Jesus said that if any one acts like the people who follow the fake Jesus he'll just vomit them out of his mouth (Rev 3:16).

Are you following the real Jesus?

“For there will arise false christs, and false prophets, and they will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.”—Jesus (Mat 24:24)

Today there is a fake Jesus being preached and people are accepting him. So if you're an evangelical who claims to have accepted Jesus as your personal savior then you may very well have received the fake one without knowing it. The fake Jesus is the one most people are accepting now when they say a sinner's prayer. So if you have done that and are 100% sure you're saved and especially if you believe that you can never lose your salvation then your Jesus is probably a fake who is some type of antichrist.

To get saved from the fake Jesus you'll need to know the difference between him and the real one, so just keep reading to find out...
