Your Magical Year OF effortless LIVING

Setting the Scene

Most female entrepreneurs, especially mums, believe that in order to have the lifestyle they want, they need to push and strive to make things happen.

Right now I'm guessing that you have some kind of belief telling you that by having a business, you will be able to have the time freedom you so yearn for, that will help you create more space and time for you.

However, have you found as you strive for the results you want, you have less time freedom and possibly money freedom? Are you finding your business and life more of a relentless experience?

You are constantly giving your energy out and not doing the one thing that you need to do in order for you to have what you want which is STOP and take the time out for you!

Well, what I have found all too many times with my clients, and what I went through, is that your frustrations and stress usually permeate into your family dynamics and interactions affecting the relationships you have with your significant other or children.

You see, this personal stress tends to affect how you view your performance and results, creating more stress both home and away.

In almost every case, together we discover that you have compromised on what you really want in the first place, thinking that somehow it's not possible or that more means doing more. In so doing you miss out on having the effortless lifestyle that you yearn for – where self-love, abundance wisdom and joy resides.

The Intention

After hiring my own coach for the year and investing £19,000 in myself and experiencing the most amazing transformations for myself, I wanted to do the same for you.

You see, as women - I believe that we are the nurturers for the next generation and it's actually up to us to look after ourselves and make our self-care the number one priority.

After all we can only give away what we have.

I began to see the power of having my hand held for a year to create a life beyond my dreams.

This investment opened up the doors for me to

- Work with my very own VIP clients
- Share my story on This Morning ITV and USA television
- To support me through the birth of my beautiful boy
- To live in places such as Bali
- Have the choice to work when I want to, while nurturing and enjoying being part of a loving relationship
- Create a deeper connection with my husband
- Dissolve the worry and stress.

It's for this reason I wanted to gift you this incredible opportunity just as I was, to begin shedding all "the stuff" that gets in the way of you having the lifestyle that you know you yearn for.

So it's my intention that this year gives you the opportunity to come home to yourself by:

- 1 Getting clarity on what you really, really want vs. what you THINK you want so that you can start making the changes needed for you to get there.
- 2 Truly discovering what it means to bathe yourself in self-love to really OWN your value and self-worth and KNOW that you are ENOUGH. This year is the year to FOCUS on the precious individual that you are so that by the end of the year you no longer make any compromises on who you really are. Imagine really living on your own terms. Whether that means being in the loving relationship you have always desired, becoming a mother, creating space for your children, re-engaging with your loved ones and/or creating the money you want to give you the time freedom you are looking for; the possibilities are endless.
- 3 Manifesting what you want with sublime ease and grace. Learn how to create your own effortless lifestyle in your own effortless way. You can honestly say goodbye to stress, struggle and tiredness and finally say a big hello to peace so you can have more money, more time and a lifestyle that suits you to enjoy it.
- 4 Gifting yourself a WOW experience because you matter. It takes courage to gift yourself an experience like this, but that's the point. It is about showing up for yourself, because if you don't, how do you expect your clients or others in your life to do the same?
- 5 Inviting peace and freedom into your life. This is your opportunity to make this coming year all about dissolving your stress and taking the step to begin living from a place of freedom and peace, where your wisdom is heard and listened to, so you can discover your effortless journey that is waiting to be lived by you.
- 6 Accelerating your results beyond measure. By immersing yourself in the principles behind effortless living for a year, you will inevitably accelerate your results, saving you time, money and unnecessary suffering.
- 7 Dancing in the unknown with joy and fervour. Knowing that you will be okay no matter what and enjoying not knowing what's around the corner is a guarantee. Being able to watch life unfold in front of you, without fear or insecurity, is the real secret to fulfilment to manifest your effortless lifestyle.

Take action today and begin to really understand how to live from your heart and manifest your dream life effortlessly. Make this the year you have been looking for, or your money back.

Marina

Who is this magical year for?

The principles behind creating your effortless lifestyle will work whether you are a 'stressed-out mumpreneur or a single woman in business.

And this magical year of effortless living is specifically for you if you are:

- An entrepreneurial woman with a big vision who is committed to getting the results you want personally and professionally in your life.
- Prepared to live life on your own terms with abundance and love in a way that is simply effortless.
- Ready to say YES and take action by INVESTING in yourself WITHOUT compromise.
- Finding it hard to switch off (cannot sleep, take your mobile to bed and check your emails first thing in the morning and last thing at night).
- Fed up of life demanding your time, resources and energy and want to experience TIME FREEDOM, MONEY FREEDOM and CHOICE!

What's involved?

A 1-year commitment to guarantee the results you are looking for. Life is a contact sport and as a result I will be here to hold your hand as you play and create the life you really want this year. You can count on me to be there to support you when you find yourself getting stressed out again, so that you keep immersing yourself in this understanding.

24 x 1 hour coaching calls during the year to keep you absorbed in the principles behind effortless living to accelerate and monitor your results.

A 3 day intensive in a beautiful and peaceful place in the world to switch off and enjoy dancing in the unknown. I have taken clients to mountains, lakes and beaches. Some of these include St Moritz, Lake Como, and Sanur in Bali. Take your pick – we have a whole world to choose from – let's go there!

What you might expect during your 3 day intensive

You can expect to have a number of profound shifts so as to raise your level of consciousness and therefore experience life from a place of peace and stillness, saying goodbye to your stress and saying hello to what your heart desires.

My clients have reported the following experiences as a result of an intensive:

- A renewed love for themselves.
- Renewed love for their past and a brand new pair of lenses to see it through.
- A deep sense of peace and joy that they haven't experienced before that stays long after an intensive ends.
- A tangible feeling of freedom and a knowing that everything will be okay as they see the parts of their life come together naturally.
- Recognition that they have become a magnet for incredible opportunities and people to launch their business and lives their way.

What others have said about their experience

My time with Marina in the mountains of St Moritz was a life changing experience. Marina has finely tuned instincts and the insights I have had as a result, have changed me from being stuck and worried, to trusting my instincts and being in my flow.

One particular day, we went for a beautiful walk around the lake and I felt as though all the cares in the world had dissolved, just like the melting snow that was feeding the sparkling streams around us.

I cannot begin to tell you how my life has transformed since immersing myself in the principles behind Effortless Living. It has really allowed me to experience the power of being me, which in turn is attracting extraordinary opportunities and people.

Guinness World Records have asked me to host a global event, and I am speaking at the Sunday Times Festival of Education. I have been approached by several people who want to be part of my business and I know that the sluice is open for other wonderful opportunities. Loving Life!

Caroline Ainslie, Founder Bubbly Maths, UK

When I came across Marina, I knew that she was the perfect coach for me as I was guided by my wisdom. Before I started my magical year of Effortless Living I was feeling quite lost and distraught as my husband had left me. I knew that life was okay on an intellectual level, but I really didn't own it. In fact, I kept going around and around in circles as to what was next for me.

However, while working with Marina, I began to ease into a sense of effortlessness and peace. Marina guided me to see that all the answers are already within me. What I have realised is that Marina, brought me back to myself, to let me know that I am enough and have always been and always will be, thank you Marina for being a joy in my life, with you it's effortless.

Erin, Mother of two and Entrepreneur

Its really possible to have an effortless lifestyle that gets results while balancing family and work. I had a massive realisation that my best business ideas come to me when I am relaxed and it feels just so effortless.

Through the insightful 121 sessions I had with Marina, she helped me to see what truly makes me happy, calm and have a clear mind. In short I realised that my effortless lifestyle is about spending time with my son, taking time off work and less in the space of "my achievements define me". They don't. Thank you Marina. If you are feeling stressed and overwhelmed by the amount of work, duties and responsibilities as a woman, wife, mother and daughter and you feel the heavy weight and burden fall upon you, or if you find it hard to switch off and want to find that 'calm' moment, then Marina is the right person for you.

Next Steps

When one of my potential clients is considering this type of investment, I take it very seriously. It's not only about investing in you, but also it's about investing your trust, time, and financial resources to make it happen. Which is why it's important for us to speak first, so as to establish if we are actually a good fit.

To take your next step of action you will need to:

STEP 1

Schedule an initial conversation with me by filling out the registration form on the next page with a date and time for us to have our initial conversation to find out if this is the right fit for you.

STEP 2

Based on what you want to get out of the intensive, I will refer you to clients who have already experienced this way of coaching with me before, if you would like to have a conversation with them.

STEP 3

Once we have clarity on whether this is the right fit for you, we will then schedule another call where we can create an agreement of how we can move forward, where you will either speak to me or Laura Jane to clarify dates and terms.

STEP 4

We will meet at the WOW location and spend 3 days immersed in the principles behind Effortless Living together to start you on your journey.

STEP 5

It's important you use the 4th day for a day of integration and you take the day off before going back to live your new effortless life.

STEP 6

Enjoy the follow-up calls to carry on building and developing your transformational journey towards effortless.
