

Castlemaine U3A members and lectures at La Trobe University, Bendigo campus

La Trobe University offers members of the U3A the opportunity to sit in as audit students on undergraduate lectures at the Bendigo campus for no fee. There is a great range of subjects to choose from, each offering a weekly lecture (sometimes two lectures) for a semester. Semester One starts on 27 February and runs until 26 May.

When the 2017 details are finalised, this link will show you what is available:

If you sign up to La Trobe University Lectures using MyU3A, we can send you more information later on how to make your selection.

We can attend lectures but not tutorials, workshops, field visits or practicals, or do assessments. U3A members should not:

- contact La Trobe University or the faculties or lecturers re U3A enrolments;
- access any electronic material, e.g. class notes, or access the electronic reserve in the library or borrow reserve items from the library;
- request special tasks of lecturers. e.g. emailing notes etc., or
- enrol after the closing date.

All applications from Castlemaine U3A are lodged together, so you must fill in the attached form.

University Library

The University permits community members to join the University's Heyward Library at Flora Hill. A library card will cost $28.
