

The Jefferson County Livestock Council meeting was called to order at 6:11 p.m., December 8th, 2016, at the EMCR. (Jefferson fairgrounds)

The meeting was called to order by Karlee Orvis, 2016-2017 President. Introductions (what you want for Christmas) were followed by the Pledge's. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Sara Leopold and the 4-H Pledge was led by Aspen Tolman.

The November secretary's report was read by Coral Tolman and approved as read.

The treasurer's report was tabled due to treasurer being absent. The motion to table was given by Sophia and seconded by Mary Amoroso.

Announcements were made including this meeting started an hour earlier, No JLEP meeting this month, re-enrollment deadline, and meat quality assurance class is on Tuesday, March 28. It cost $160 to go to LDC.

The only committee report was County Council. Their report included CLC, Gift exchange, and the Fair.

Unfinished business:

- Members reported on how the Arvada library day went.
- The National Western Stock Show Parade is on January 5th. The club decided to build a float, the theme will be an auction. The president set a committee to oversee buying the supplies. The vice president, Sarah Wiechman, was busy that day so the secretary, Coral Tolman, took over. The club set an $100 limit on expenses for the float.
- Members brought items to put in the Sponsored Family basket.
- The fairgrounds needed to buy paint for the scale house before May, so the club decided on painting it green with white trim.

One item of new business was brought up. The catch an animal letters were read.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:48 PM. It was Mrs. Amoroso's birthday!!!

The next meeting is on January 12 at 7:00 PM, at the EMCR.

The meeting went on to a gift exchange and dinner/desserts.

Coral Tolman,
Secretary

Karlee Orvis,
