

Good Golly! (the Porno Popup Song)

words & music by Howlin' Hobbit
 arranged for C tuned ukulele by Howlin' Hobbit

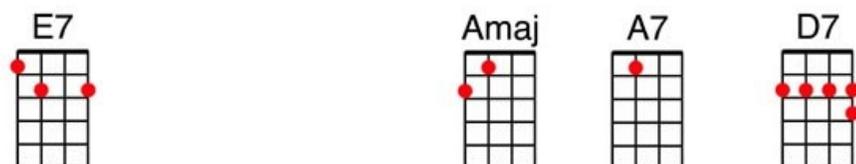

Intro

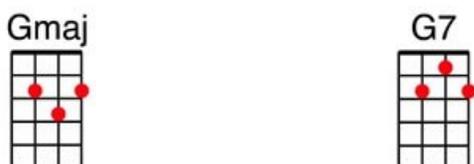

Chorus

Good golly look what's popped up on my computer screen

25 or 30 brand new windows, and most of them's obscene

I've tried and tried and tried to kill 'em

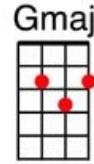

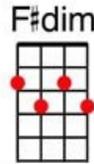

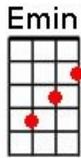

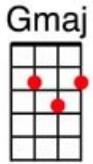

'Bout to take my .45 and drill 'em

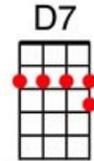

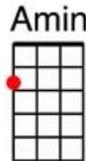

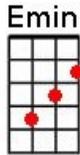

Good golly look what's popped up on my computer screen

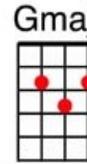

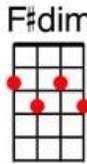

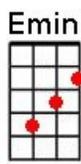

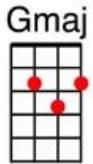

Verse 1

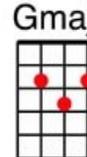

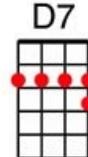

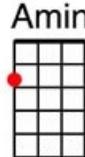

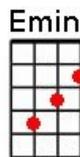

Lunch time Friday at the office, I've got some time to Kill

Thought I'd send my girl an e-card, to let her know how I feel

Should take a very few moments, So how hard could it be?

Real sure I know the URL and my typing is up to speed

Chorus

Verse 2

Thought that I knew how to kill 'em, just click the little "X"
Five more pop up to replace it. A technological hex.
What do they get out of all this? Who clicks on this crud?
If I find out who sent these to me, he'll need some pints of blood

Chorus

Verse 3:

Don't know where it was I slipped up. It's buried way too deep.
I'm still trying to delete them, to go home and get some sleep.
How do those two even do that? Think I'd break my spine.
My boss comes in and I end up in the unemployment line.

Chorus

Playing Tips & Notes

General Notes

This is the 11th in a continuing series of free songsheets. (It should be the 12th, but I'm behind schedule on Naughty Monkey. I'm working on it!)

There's really not a lot of playing tips to offer for this one. It's pretty straight-ahead except for a bit of tricky vocal phrasing. Watching the video will help for that. Here's the link:
