

Diagramless #1

This puzzle is 24 squares wide and 21 squares tall. See <http://thecrossnerd.blogspot.com> for the starting square, symmetry, and other hints (no spoilers if you don't want to see 'em, though).

Across

1. Male with a traditional 20-Across
8. Mrs. Freshley's Ceral Bars grain
11. Give an impression of
12. Beaucroatic barrier
16. Author Fleming
19. They don't often tour to small cities, alas
20. Subject in the field of Queer Theory
24. Apple communication tool
25. "Deadly" subjects of "Se7en"
26. 2004 Mastodon concept album about a sea beast
28. Science fair fog source
29. Before, before
30. Demonstrated superiority in, as an event
31. Patron saint of Norway (not his father)
33. Dreamworks ___ (acronym of the film studios' three founders' names)
34. Conveniently named rock singer Rose, which I threw in on this side to offset the presence of 47-Across on the other
35. 1994 bomb about a character of uncertain 20-Across
37. Blown-up pics
38. Gal's name, which, thankfully (for this puzzle's concept), is also an amount of RAM
39. Mata Hari, e.g.
40. AC/DC hit with the line "watch me explode"
41. Greeting in Brazil
42. Good name for a cinematographer?
43. Parties too hard: Abbr.
44. With 48-Across, immobilize during bondage play, perhaps
45. "The Star-Spangled Banner" contraction
46. Glass salt site
47. Conveniently named lounge singer Sumac, who I couldn't avoid having on this side of the grid, alas

48. See 44-Across

50. One who took to the sky and took many others out of the sky, briefly
52. Air or canto intro?
53. Mlle. across the Pyrenees
55. Tobacco kilns
56. John Irving's "A Prayer ___ Owen Meany"
57. What the floor is, in a children's game that might lead to footprints on the couch
59. X x X x X + a deck of cards
60. "...is all like..." properly
61. Colloquial address that covers two possible 20-Acrosses
66. Run a scam on
67. "The First Men in the Moon" author
68. Comedienne Gasteyer of 60-Down
69. Type
70. Wipe off the map
76. Mexican drug cartel members, presumably
77. Susceptible to tsunamis, say
78. Prefix with tonic
79. Abbr. before X or Y, but not Z
80. Harp on

Down

1. Smith/Jones movie franchise, briefly
2. Bordeaux bro
3. Unwrapped sushi
4. Actor Keach
5. What 1-Acrosses are expected to display
6. Sieged
7. Rainy day funds
8. Like the number of dancers and French Hens
9. Had chickpeas, say
10. Virginia Slims ingredient
12. Actress Russo of "Thor"
13. Nana's pair?
14. Exploratory studies (that don't involve taking to the sky, usually)

15. Heaven-on-earth places
16. Tilted, as at windmills
17. ___ glance
18. What Roger Ebert might pick?
20. Female with a traditional 20-Across
21. Taking to the sky, in a way?
22. However, briefly
23. Bush's alma mater, which was male-exclusive until 1876
25. What 20-Downs are expected to be
27. Derogatory term for some males
28. Dreary
30. The finer things in life, it's said
32. Derogatory term for some males
34. Mary Jane residue
36. Softcore
40. Bring to the impound lot
49. List-ending abbr.
51. Hoops great Thomas
54. Actress Gardner
56. Domino on the charts, at one time
58. "Does She ... or Doesn't She?", e.g.
60. "Dick in a Box" and "Wild and Crazy Guys" skit show, initially
62. It's named for a priestess of Greek myth who swam across it
63. SADD concern
64. Hair product
65. Fraternal Lodge fellow
70. Prefix for lovers of Mother Earth
71. ___ cit. (at the place cited)
72. "___ Mine" ("Let It Be" track)
73. Actress Graynor or "The Sopranos"
74. Dude's name which, thankfully (for this puzzle's concept), is also the name of a talk-hosting non-profit
75. Victoria, BC-to-Helena, MT heading