PARISH NEWS

CLERICAL MOVEMENTS: This weekend we welcome Fr Larry Milby to St John's parish and wish him every blessing as he settles in. Fr Larry is a retired priest from the Diocese of Buffalo, New York, who has spent the last few years helping out at Warwick Street parish here in the Diocese of Westminster. With his arrival Fr Séamus will take some annual leave, returning to Duncan Terrace on 17th August. Fr Chris will then be away for 10 days before he moves to Kingsland parish at the end of the month.

PARISH OFFICE: Will be closed from Tuesday 6th August – Monday 19th August.

FR HOWARD'S EMAIL: howardmjames@yahoo.com

ANNIVERSARY MAGAZINE: Documenting the past and present of our parish has been published. We are grateful to all who contributed to it and encourage everyone to get a copy, available from the repository and parish office for £3.

NEW WEBSITE: Of the parish is www.st-johns-islington.org. Many thanks to the webmaster, Thomas Machura, for developing it. The website will be expanded in July and August. You can download the parish e-newsletter or subscribe to it directly on the website.

BAPTISM: We welcome our new parishioners who will be baptised today: Jessica Morrison, Kayleigh Marie Moxham and Rory James Griffin.

ACCOMMODATION WANTED: A young French man from the Young Adult Group at the parish is looking for affordable accommodation from 6 months to a year, starting immediately. He would be happy to share the house with an elderly person and help him/her with the domestic tasks, or to stay with a family and support them teaching French to their children or helping with the children. If you could help him please email stjohnyag@gmail.com or speak to Fr Chris.

HOLY COMMUNION VOLUNTEERS: Every year at St John's we prepare around 60 children for their First Holy Communion. If you are interested in finding out more about helping with this programme, please contact Alison on 07779 090 174 for more details.
