- About Siân -

Multi award winning jewellery designer Siân Bostwick creates jewellery influenced by her love of reading & literature with a hint of fairytale. Spending hours hunting in vintage bookshops and reading from her own collection Siân is inspired by her favourite tales & stories of wonder.

Siân Bostwick hand crafts her jewellery from a Kent workshop with delicate detail, gemstones, contrasting colours and a lifelong passion for making.

Siân Bostwick has been listed in Professional Jewellers HOT 100, named as a future star in industry voice "The Jeweller" as well as being a finalist for the 2010 Clothes Show Young Accessory Designer of the year, awarded a place on the kickstart stand at IJL, jewellery featured in Lark jewellery books, twice shortlisted for the Medway design awards 2010 & 2012 and Winner of the 2015 Medway Design Award in Fashion as well as being named the the Young Designer of the Year at the Retail Jewellery Awards.

- The Workshop -

All of Siân Bostwick's jewellery is lovingly created in her bijou little workshop in the heart of a exciting creative community & arts centre in Kent just 40 minutes from central London.

Surrounded by the multi talented artists and the creativity of the Nucleus Arts Centre, it's gallery and charming café Siân Works on creating her enchanting jewels in a workshop filled with just some of her books, curious collections and lots of jewellery.

Ring Classes*

- Make Your Own Wedding Rings -

With full supervision and instruction by Siân you will create a pair of bespoke wedding rings to your design, in your choice of materials and to your budget. Spend the day in the workshop creating your own wedding rings together.

You will be guided and assisted through every step of the process in a fully equipped professional jewellery workshop, which you will have exclusive use of for the day. You will leave with your beautiful, one-off wedding rings to cherish forever presented in their very own ring box.

Photographs will be taken throughout the day and presented to you after the lesson to keep the memories treasured. The day finishes with complementary bottle of prosecco to celebrate.

Before your day in the workshop you are invited to a free consultation with Siân to discuss your ring style, budget, materials and to select the best date for your wedding ring lesson.

As an extra we can organise hallmarking and engraving on request.

Wedding ring lessons take place in the Siân Bostwick Jewellery workshop located in the charming Nucleus Arts Centre Chatham, surrounded by artists studios, gallery and café.
