Reunion Committee

Dear Reunion Committee: It was good seeing you and other old friends. Too many years away from home tends to make one forget people and places best remembered. Thanks for yor special effort in bringing folks together. Cheers, Pete Morrow

Thanks, Pete! Your's and others' nice comments made all our efforts worthwhile! We were glad to see you all and missed those unable to attend!

SUNDAY PICNIC July 14, 1985 Douglas County Park

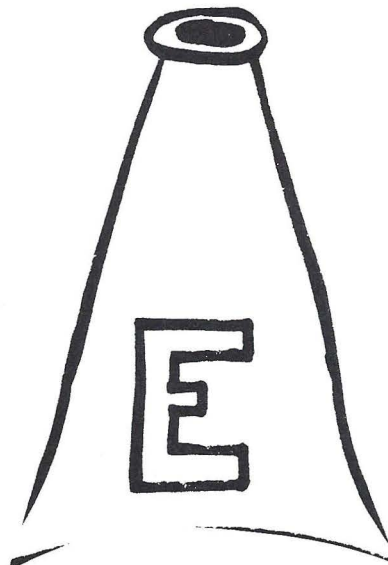

Do You Remember?

- ✓ Bob Baldrige taking Cal Carter to the Prom?
- ✓ Who was the Rodant?
- ✓ Crowding in the rotunda in the morning like sardines? (Sharon Butler)
- ✓ Ikey's: red vine licorice, tootsie roll pops, chocolate ice cream, maple bars, and orange floats with Hostess cupcakes crumbled in them? (Pat Owyen)
- ✓ A "blue '57 Chevy"?
- ✓ Mike Standerfer remembers his own immaturity, the general feeling of high hopes and idealism, and a very good time that could have been great! (We all feel the same way, Mike!)
- ✓ Why Mrs. McCarl made the girls get down on their knees?
- ✓ Foss Miller remembers: Foss and Williams picking up Hargis and Harris for a dance in an old jeep; trying to beat Ogee at anything; chasing Sue Harris; and he is also amazed that Chapman finally graduated from college and has a real job!
- ✓ John Ogee's winning basket at the buzzer to beat Wenatchee High School?
- ✓ Mr. Robertson teasing Jeanne McFarland about not being an American?

- ✓ JoAnne Newton's hiccups in Mr. Quorn's class faithfully every day after lunch?
- ✓ Tim McCarl remembers dating Linda Stewart, wrestling Bob Baldrige, uncessated (unceasing) antics of Ogee and wondering how old Foss Miller will be when hair starts to grow on his chest.
- ✓ Carole Guerin forgetting speech in front of student body when she ran for Princess East Wenatchee?
- ✓ Who stuffed Nita Cheever in a locker?
- ✓ Mr. Sands, Mr. Robertson, trip to Medical Lake and assassination of John F. Kennedy? (Most mentioned teachers and events.)
- ✓ Who remembers why we didn't have a graduation party?
- ✓ Dave Beck remembers he had more hair on his head!
- ✓ Mike Chapman remembers he was younger then!
- ✓ Roger Gill remembers foul odors!
- ✓ Gary Rosebeary claims amnesia!
- ✓ Mike Ogdan remembers not having to work to eat!

Who remembers? We do!

A Score of Memories: EHS Class of 1965

. . . as printed in The Wenatchee Daily World 20 Years Ago column in 1984 and 1985

Ten senior girls are vying for the title of homecoming royalty at Eastmont High School. They are Sharon Banning, Nita Cheever, Kathy Cook, Carole Guerin, Sue Harris, Jeanne McFarland, JoAnn Newton, Linda Stewart, Diane Ulin and Mary Ann Waverek.

Pam Cole will be installed worthy advisor of Eastmont Rainbow Girls; Linda Trotter, Charity; Carolyn Nielsen, recorder; and Shirley Wells, treasurer.

Jeanne McFarland, Kathy Cook and Mary Ann Waverek are among the ten finalists of the 1965 Apple Blossom Festival royalty.

An ambitious plan for complete utilization of Columbia River water has won EHS student Rich Bauer first place in NW Wholesale's annual Future Farmer of America speech contest.

Craig Milne was victorious in expert boys and Janet Beck led intermediate girls at the first intra-mural ski race at Squilchuck.

Cal Carter, Tim McCarl and Bob Baldridge were crowned Douglas and Chelan County wrestling champions at the Sub-District eliminations.

Awards given at the Eastmont Future Farmers banquet were to Art Bainard, Harold Cunning, Rich Bauer and Carole Guerin, chapter sweetheart.

EHS Thespians will present three one-act plays. The cast includes seniors Jeri Ellifritz, Judy Campbell, Pat Owyen, Mike Campbell, Pam Cole, Joe Miller, Art Bland and Karl Jahns.

Eastmont's Bob Baldridge is among ten seeded (first round matches) performers in the Washington State High School Wrestling Championships at the University of Washington this weekend.

Karl Jahns was a purple ribbon winner in physics with his binary computer at the Eastmont Science Fair.

Jon Michael Chapman was selected for the honors seminar March 26-27 sponsored by the University of Washington.

Bob Baldridge and Forrest Miller were recipients of player-of-the-year awards at an EHS assembly. Baldridge was named Wildcats' outstanding wrestler and Miller, outstanding basketball player.

Foss Miller hurled the javelin 201 feet as he and his Eastmont teammates outpointed Wenatchee 77 to 74.

Karl Jahns received an $800 scholarship to Spokane's Whitworth College at the Inland Empire Science Fair in Spokane.

Arlene Grebe was awarded the state homemakers degree at the state Future Homemakers of America meeting in Yakima. Seniors Janet Beck and Charilyn Miller also attended.

Karl Jahns and Rielle Davis were honored by the Wenatchee Elks Lodge for achievements in leadership and scholarship.

Dennis Neal left today (5/15/65) for Northwest Nazarene College to compete in a Northwest Regional Bible Quiz Contest.

Steve Underhill, Sherrion Vickery and Rich Bauer received scholarships from the "Dollars for Scholars."

Foss Miller won the javelin with a record throw of 222 feet, 2 inches in the State Class AA track and field championships at Pullman.

Paul Clark has been named top Future Farmer of America.

Jeanne McFarland will give her senior piano recital at Eastmont Presbyterian Church Saturday.

Foss Miller placed third in the javelin event of the Golden West track and field meet at Sacramento (210 feet, 1 inch).

EHS Girl's League has chosen an all-around Girl of the Year. She is Susan Lancaster.
