Kirtan Time !

Welcome:

My intention with this booklet is to make the process of learning this music more accesible, easy and enjoyable. The most important is not to sing and play 'well', it is to share the experience of kirtan. On my path I have received inspiration from others and collected mantras and chants we have sung together. In this booklet you find the songs with chords, lyrics and a very usefull link where you can listen to the melody. I give thanks to everybody who make music that connects us and generate so much joy. This is what inspires me to do the same and share it with people I meet.

Gratitude:

I am happy to see that my work serves people. If you find this booklet helpful for your learning or you just feel grateful for the time I have spent compiling it and want to offer a donation please go to www.acrobhakti.com/kirtan-book and donate what it is worth for you.
