

Parametric Surfaces.

Remember, you need to load Xpressionist in order for Parametric Surfaces to work. If you get an 'internal calculation error', fear not, just undo the last change you made, it just means you made an impossible shape.

Try very low or very high values to get unique shapes. Use really low values like 0.01 for the collapse width/height settings to get pointy spikes!

Ian