Sight Words

Sight words are words that you see again and again when you read. This book is filled with the sight words have, you, ask, and her. Look for them in the text. Check the pictures, too!

My hamster, Jellybean, got out of her cage. I have to find her!

I ask my brother, "Have you seen Jellybean?"

"I have not seen her," my brother says.

I ask my sister, "Have you seen Jellybean?"
"I have not seen her," my sister says.

I ask my mother, "Have you seen Jellybean?"

"I have not seen her," my mother says.

I ask my father, "Have you seen Jellybean?"
"I have not seen her," my father says.

I ask my friend, "Have you seen Jellybean?"
"I have not seen her," my friend says.

I ask my neighbor, "Have you seen Jellybean?"

"I have not seen her," my neighbor says.

Oh, Jellybean! Where have you gone?
I miss you so much!

Jellybean! I have found you at last!

I ask her, "Where have you been hiding?"
Jellybean just wiggles her whiskers.

I put Jellybean in her cage.
"You have to rest now," I tell her.

She closes her eyes. Good night,
Jellybean. I hope you have dreams
as sweet as you!
