Chiz scores ISAFP inclusion in Food, energy superbody

Opposition senator Chiz Escudero today said, "there is no need to spy on the people to know what they feel during these hard times for their pain is palpable, and their discontent is evident".

This after the palace has included the Intelligence Service of the Armed Forces of the Philippines (ISAFP) in a superbody that will monitor the food and energy situation in the country.

Escudero said including the country's spy agency in the contingency task force does not go well to the inconstant situation since its role might even provoke the already anguished public over the relentless soaring of food and fuel prices.

The senator, who is also chairman of the Senate Committee on Justice and Human Rights, said the government should have a sound judgment in using the ISAFP and that should only be confined to help find a cure to the sudden steep increase of oil price.

"I really hope that the government is not tapping ISAFP for a selfish political reason — which is to keep an eye on patient people's temperament — because the paranoids among the guilty would like to know until when will empty rice pots remain overturned before the people starts criticizing its government for not doing anything about their plight."

"It is the government's responsibility to mitigate the current crisis situation that the country is in, and it is also right to mobilize concerned government agencies, but why include a spy agency? Do we lack civilian government institutions that can be tapped for the energy and food crisis?"

"Or does the government admit, through this, that the situation is slipping out of its hand that we need to call in military aid in an economic crisis?" Escudero said intelligence groups are best deployed against criminals and not on the victims of government inaction over the high prices of oil, rice and other basic goods.

He further said the government should not simply watch us suffer, which is what surveillance can only do, but instead help us carry our load and lighten it by reducing the taxes on fuel.

A government that opts for surveillance, instead of solutions, of the heavy burden on our backs is either indifferent of our hardships or insensitive to it or both, Escudero said./ Office of Senator Chiz Escudero

BAGUIO CITY – The city council will invite representatives of the Camp John Hay Development Corporation and Ayala Land Inc. to its session on July 28 to appraise the body on the proposed development to be undertaken at the tourist facility.

"No further action in relation to the Ayala Land project should be undertaken by the said parties until the briefing shall have been conducted," proponent Councilors Betty Lourdes Tabanda, Elaine Sembrano and Fred Bagbagen stressed in a resolution adopted by the body.

In their measure, the aldermen said there are reports that Ayala Land Inc. will undertake a mega project in John Hay which will include business outsourcing facilities and a retail center covering 12.06 hectares.

"The City of Baguio welcomes business investments in the city but it is a primordial concern that the interest of the city and its residents be protected," the aldermen noted.

The councilors said it is but proper that the city be adequately informed of the plans involving John Hay as the city's welfare is at stake.

Besides, they said, Resolution No. 362 series of 1994 which imposed the 19 conditionalities in the John Hay development remains in effect and the same requires that the city should be consulted on all matters concerning the development of the former baseland.

Last Tuesday, the councilor committee on laws chaired by Councilor Richard Carino conducted a closed-door committee level meeting with representatives of CJHDevCo.

Vice Mayor Daniel Farinas said the meeting was meant to brief the parties involved on the legislations pertaining to the issue. He said succeeding discussions and presentations on the issue will be done publicly.

City legal officer Melchor Carlos Rabanes who attended the meeting said the city representatives stressed on the city's stand that the CJHDevCo

City poised to scrap land swap option with NPC; offers to pay instead

BAGUIO CITY – The city government is poised to scrap the option of swapping lands with the National Power Corporation as the city council last week voted to instead pay the NPC the cost of its lot now being used by the city government for its sewer treatment plant at North Sanitary Camp barangay.

The body last Monday adopted the recommendation of its committee on urban planning, lands and housing chaired by Councilor Isabelo Cosalan Jr. for the city to compensate the NPC with cash instead of a lot in view of the absence of an appropriate city property for said purpose.

The city and the NPC have been working out the land swap deal for almost 32 years now but the city cannot identify a suitable lot in exchange for the 6,332-square meter NPC property which the city occupied to build the sewer treatment plant in 1975.

The city offered its property at Gibraltar barangay measuring 5,885 square meters for said purpose but it turned out to have claims problems as well.

“In view of the various unresolved issues surrounding the city lot at Gibraltar, the non-availability of any appropriate city property to be swapped, and the numerous requests from the barangays for city lot/public land for public purpose, the committee...recommends that the city government instead pay the (NPC) for that NPC property...” the committee said.

The city council adopted the recommendation and referred the matter to the city appraisal committee to determine the cost of the lot.

The body also decided to ask Mayor Reinaldo Bautista Jr. to create an ad hoc committee to negotiate with the NPC for the payment of said lot.

NPC president Cyril Del Callar wrote the mayor asking for the resolution of the land swapping deal in view of NPC’s urgent need of a lot.

The city occupied the NPC lot at Sanitary Camp by virtue of Resolution No. 102 series of 1975.

The land swap deal was recommended in 1994 by then city legal officer Juan Valdez.

The city offered several lots but were rejected by the NPC as these were not suitable as site of the NPC regional office./Aileen P. Refuerzo

CHR To Look Into Alleged Rights Abuses Of Oceana Gold In Vizcaya

La Trinidad, Benguet – The Commission on Human Rights is heading for an investigation into alleged human rights abuses by Australian-owned Oceana Gold in Nueva Vizcaya province.

Environmental and human rights groups met with Commission on Human Rights Chairperson Leila De Lima on Tuesday and submitted a report by a Fact-Finding Mission they conducted to look into reports of human rights violations against Oceana.

The Australian mining company which holds a controversial Financial and Technical Assistance Agreement (FTAA) with the government covering thousands of hectares in the provinces of Nueva Vizcaya and Quirino is on the hot seat now as even the provincial government of Nueva Vizcaya has ditched its support to the project.

CHR Chairperson De Lima has vowed to immediately act on the report by assigning one of the commissioners to personally oversee the investigation, said the Philippine-based Legal Rights and Natural Resources Center-Friends of the Earth (LRC-FoE).

It added, “De Lima also promised to come out with a “strongly-worded” statement to call attention to the issue, pending a more comprehensive CHR position on human rights violations in mining affected areas.”

According to members of the Legal Rights and Natural Resources Center (LRC-KsK/FOE-Phils.), Philippine Alliance of Human Rights Advocates (PAHRA), Philippine Human Rights Information Center (Philrights), Task Force Detainees of the Philippines (TFDP) and Philippine Peoples Links (PIPLINKS), OceanaGold Philippines, Inc. has been committing numerous human rights violations against residents of Brgy. Didipio, Kasibu, Nueva Vizcaya, in an effort to silence opposition to its mining operations in the area.

has shown blatant disregard for basic human rights and is responsible for the escalating violence in the area including the shooting of Emilio Pumihic, a long time resident and descendant of the first barangay captain of Brgy. Didipio. The shooting happened amidst the relentless demoli-tions of residents’ houses, none of which were covered by a court order and in many cases, without full payment of compensation,” LRC-KsK Executive Director Judy Pamela Pasimio claimed.

To date, according to LRC-KsK/FOE-Phils., OceanaGold’s demolition activi-

Magsumbong at mag-ingay para mabawasan ang katiwalian sa Gobyerno!!!

We believe that the Golden Rule applies to animals, too. We don't accept the prevailing notion that "people come first" or that "people are more important than animals." Animals feel pain and suffer just as we do, and it is almost always humans making animals suffer and not the other way around. Yet in spite of how cruelly people behave towards animals – not to mention human cruelty to other humans- we are supposed to believe that humans are superior to other animals. If people want to fancy themselves as being of greater moral worth than the other creatures on this earth, we should begin behaving better than they do, and not worse. Let's start treating everyone as we would like to be treated ourselves.

The Fourth Mountain

"Men wage war but women make peace," the old axiom goes. But in the process, too many get battered, some beyond healing, says "Impact of Armed Conflict in Mindanao on Women".

The Committee for Asian Women, in Bangkok, published the Mindanao study. Jurgette Honculada of "Pilipina" wrote the report. It details how women in Basilan, Jolo, Maguindanao and North Cotabato, try to cope with armed clashes.

"Generations of Muslims and Christians, in significant areas of Mindanao, lived, for the greater part of their lives with the legacy of war," she says. "The toll on life and limb (has been) incalculable for... tens of thousands, predominantly Muslim, particularly women and children."

The report is part of a small but growing body of scientific studies on the levy extorted by clashes from women and children. University of San Carlos did a study on "Experiences of Cebu Women in Armed Conflicts".

"Men may be the combatants", writes USC Leny Ocasiones in "Culture & Society." But "armed conflict has profound impacts on women, distinct from men." Like children, "women endure a tortured existence... Not enough is being done to protect them."

There are differences. A narrow eroded island, Cebu's 3,811 kilometer network links a culturally-homogenous population. Mindanao, in contrast, is "tri-people": Almost three-fourths are Christian, many descendants of migrants. Roughly 30 percent is Bangsamoro. Indigenous people (lumads) make up the rest

There's the "southern diaspora". Waves of women, mostly Muslim, have crossed into Sabah. "Many who fled political persecution during martial law have intermarried." Now, Indonesian and Filipino migrants are being repatriated by tough immigration curbs. Many have become "TNT" (tago ng tago), street argot for "undocumented workers".

This is a man's world. Mere possession of a womb can handcuff women to a treadmill of marginalized lives. But insurgency, poverty and military response, could make the three Cebu municipalities studied "Any Town", Viewpoint noted (PDI/ June 2, 2008).

Look at the identical traumas of Mindanao women. They've too have seen family members killed, homes razed, livelihoods shattered and forced evacuations. They're dubbed with the gender-free "IDP" (Internally-displaced person). There were 932,000 IDPs in Mindanao's 2000 fighting.

In Jolo, "warring parties seem to know when the harvest is near. (They) orchestrate conflict and thus (are) able to steal the harvest," Honculada writes. "Mischevous eyes" does not capture nuances of the Cebuano kiat ug mata when military interrogators first fleeced poultry coops and food stores, Ocasiones reports.

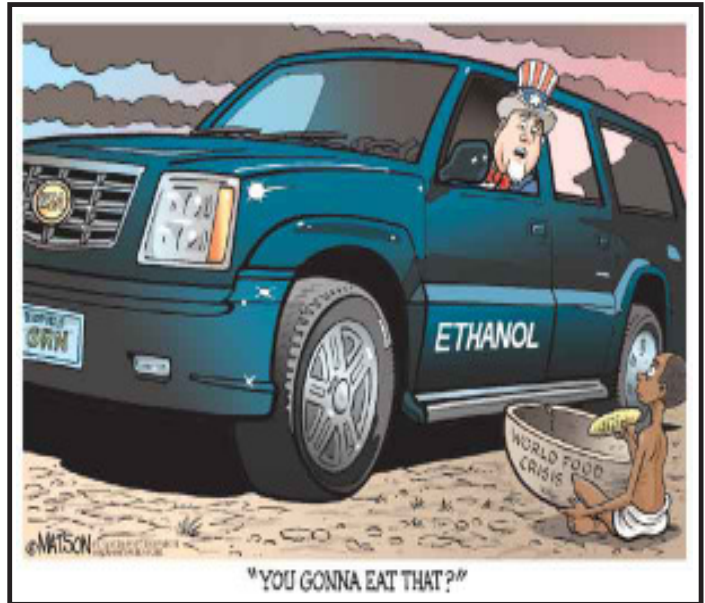

Post-traumatic stress disorders result from the conflicts. In Cebu, Marina, Erlinda, Venecia and Tanya bolt up, midnights, dreaming they heard guns cocked. Divina and Luisa still tremble when they hear helicopters.

They're like Maranao Muslim Saldia Abu. Her relatives were killed in a grenade attack on a mosque. "Helicopter sounds throw Salida into tremors. 'It's war again. We have to pack up,'" she said three days before she died.

When troops came, Nurin Edjirin of Jolo —married to an MNLF organizer killed in Palawan —moved with her mother to the next hill. Nurin now runs a community drugstore. "But the cycle of psychological violence continues to haunt the family. For the son, bereft of a father, reverted to a drug habit, losing his scholarship of five years. (He) became, in turn, an in absentia father his two children."

"Being privy to victim's traumatic experiences" triggered Maguindanao's Social Welfare officer Elena Torribio's breakdown. Teacher Lorena Auxtero hides whenever she sees armed men. She was one of 21 held for ransom by Abu Sayyaf bandits, then under Gerry Salapudin who later ran for Congress. Sixteen men, women

BWD rates more expensive than bottled water: public outrage needed!

BY ARTURO BOQUIREN

The cat is out of the bag!

The Baguio Water District finally disclosed its water rates that are supposedly effective July 2008. The water rates were in a sheet that accompanying our water bills. The price increase for the lowest rate is at least 40%. The water bill can be at least P2,650 per cubic meter or P3,180 for a business establishment for a 10 cubic meters of water. Because there are 1,000 liters in a cubic meter, the BWD water rates imply that BWD water is in some instances more expensive than "mineral" or bottled water.

Five gallons of "mineral" or bottled water is P35 and there are 3.78 liters per gallon. Thus, "mineral" or bottled water is about P1.85 per liter. In contrast, BWD water can be as high as P2.65 per liter for residential areas and P3.18 per liter for some commercial areas. Hence, we have a ridiculous water rate structure! Did the BWD management bothered to think? Evidence does not suggest this.

Talk about callousness and the BWD management can be a prime example. Minus its rank and file, the BWD management is a paragon of callousness as well as inefficiency. Callous because the rates were implemented without the benefit of a genuine public hearing attended by a significant number of those to be affected. Inefficient because the BWD rates are higher compared to profit-oriented firms in Manila when BWD is supposedly non-profit. Inhumane because the BWD is insensitive that wages did not even increase by 10% and food prices rose by around 50%, yet the BWD rate increase for the poorest families is at least 40%.

The BWD management deserves the protests and outrage of the citizens of Baguio. It deserves our rebuke, our criticisms, and our expressions of insatisfaction to BWD management's incompetent and callous service.

The option available to us is either to privatize the BWD or convert the BWD to a highly accountable publicly owned corporation with the option of hiring out to private entities the management of the BWD.

With regard to the conversion of the BWD into a highly accountable public corporation, we can review the board structure and consider expanding board membership to include officials that can be elected at large or that can be subjected to immediate replacements by our public officials.

We must built accountability into the BWD management system by requiring managers to submit monthly and annual reports to the public. The report must contain key data that can reveal how efficient or inefficient management has been in leading the water firm. The indicators must be thought out well and the values of the indicators must be published monthly and annually.

We must require management to be technically competent in today's internet technology and require them to make available key and comprehensive data on water operations in their websites. We must make the BWD management professionals and not amateurs as they are in managing a firm in the 21st century.

Towards subjecting the management operations of the public water firm to bids, we can specify the water quality we want, the volume, the sectors and areas to which water should be available and in what water pressure. We can the specify data on the water quality we want and subject the management contract to bidding. Thus, there will be a bidding for the lowest price given a target water quality and availability. Of course, this is for the management contract only because the water district can remain a public firm that is really accountable.

The water contract must be for a limited period only and must contain a mechanism for review and declaration of non-compliance to the contract. Declaration of non-compliance to the contract should be a sufficient ground for the contract to be cancelled and offered to other parties who can implement the management contract.

JOHN HAY UNTOUCHABLES- Headline story ng pahayagang ito ay ang mukhang abusadong pag-tatratro ng mga bosing-bosingan ng John Hay sa isa nilang tenant. Tutuo kaya at may sapat na basehan ang nagreklamo at nagsampa ng demandang coercion, grave threats, mischief at robbery itong si Corazon Aniceto? Kung ako ang tatanungin, hindi naman na kataka-taka ang ganitong istayl o pag-asta ng John Hay at mga diyos-diyosan at untouched ang mga ito.

FIRST LADY O FIRST GENTLEMAN NG ISANG LUNGSOD- Tutuo kaya itong na i-chismis sa atin ng isa nating DPA (Deep Penetrating Angel) hinggil sa isang konsehal na binatukan raw ng kapwa niya konsehal hinggil sa komento ng konsehal 1 against the wife of a top city official (ang bumatok na konsehal ay kamag-anak pala ng misis ni top official) na kasalukuyan ay may malubhang karamdaman. Ayon sa ating DPA, ito raw si konsehal 1 ay nagnanais na maging first lady o first gentleman kung may hindi kanais-nais na mangyayari sa kasalukuyan esposo ni top city official kung saan mayroon siyang napabalitang relasyon kay top official. Kung tutuo ang ating balita, bagamat sa palagay natin na malamang ay isang biro lamang ito ni konsehal 1, ito birong napakasamang pakinggan at isa itong napaka-insensitive na biro.

TONG COLLECTION SA MGA SUBDIVISION DAPAT GAWIN LIGAL- Ayon sa isa nating DPA, dapat ay gawin ng ligal ang tong collection sa mga iba't ibang subdivision para maging isa itong pagkakakitaan ng ilang mga magagaling na kriminal sa isang subdivision. At ano ano ang mga iba't ibang uri ng mga tong collection? May tong sa water delivery, tong sa pag pasok ng construction materials, tong to bring in basic supplies and goods for non-residents at tong sa pagdaan ng tao (non-residents) sa isang subdivision at marami pang iba't ibang uri ng tong. Bagama't ang mga ilang subdivision na nagsasagawa ng ganitong mga collections ay ligal ang kanilang collections ang mga iba naman ay talagang iligal at diskita lamang ng ilang mga kriminal na elemento sa subdivision na nagtitigas-tigasan at nagsasamantala sa kanilang mga kapwa na walang kaya sa buhay. Kaya ang pag-asa na lang ng mga naapi at napagsasamantalahan na mga masa ay mabigyan sila ng katarungan at hustisya ng opisina ng piskal at ng mga korte kung saan ang ilang mga ganitong sitwasyon ay kasalukuyan ng nasa opisina ng piskalya. Katulad halimbawa ng isang nagsumbong sa atin na mayroon daw dalawang kalalakhian na matatanda (ang isa ay bakla at may tama sa prostate at ang isa ay matandang ulyanin na uto-uto at sunod-sunuran kay bakla) at ilan taon din silang rumaket sa ganitong uri ng iligal na tong collection.

KAKAMPI MO ANG BATAS

BATAS Party List:
plataporma ang Bibliya

BY. BATAS MAURICIO

MARAMI ang nagtatanong sa atin kung ano ang mga isinusulong na mga plataporma de gobyerno at mga nais na ipaglaban ng BATAS Party List sa sandaling maupo na ito sa House of Representatives.

Para po sa kapakinabangan ng nakakaraming gustong sumapi, tatalakayin po natin ang mga platapormang ito sa buong linggong ito, bilang bahagi ng ating pagsusumikap na maipakalat ang mga layunin ng BATAS, o ang Bagong Alyansang Tagapagtaguyod ng Adhikaing Sambayanan.

Ang pinakaunang plataporma po ng BATAS ay ang paggagawa ng isang batas na mag-aatas ng pagtuturo ng Bibliya sa lahat ng mga estudyante sa elementarya, high school at kolehiyo, bilang bahagi ng kanilang mga aralin.

Naniniwala kasi ang BATAS na ang karamihan sa mga problema sa ngayon ng Pilipinas ay dulot ng pagtalikod ng maraming Pilipino sa tunay at totoong pananampalataya, pagmamahal at pagkatakot sa Diyos.

Dahil sa pagtalikod na ito sa Diyos, ang buong sambayanang Pilipino at bayang Pilipinas ay nakararanas ng mga sumpa mula sa langit na siyang magiging dahilan ng ating pagkalipol, at pagkagunaw ng bansa na sa aking tingin ay nagaganap na.

Kasama sa mga sumpang ito, ayon sa Bibliya sa kanyang Deuteronomio 28:15, 22, ay ang mga nararanasang nating kaguluhan, kahirapan at kabiguan sa lahat ng bagay, na magpapatuloy hanggang di tayo nalilipol at napupuksa.

Kailangang maalis ang mga sumpang ito sa lalong madaling panahon, at ang tanging paran ay ang pagbabalik-loob nating lahat sa Diyos, na magaganap lamang kung ang lahat tayo at lalo na ang ating mga anak ay muling mag-aaral ng Kanyang mga Salita, at isasabuhay ang mga ito, araw-araw.

Ayon mismo sa Panginoong Jesus, sa Mateo 7:24 ng Bibliya, ang mga taong nakikinig ng Kanyang mga Salita at nagsasabuhay ng mga ito ay ituturing na matalino, na kailanman ay hindi maigugupo ng mga kahit na anong mabigat na problema.

Ganundin, ayon sa 2 Kronika 7:14, ang tanging lunas sa mga sumpang nakabalot sa ating bayan ay ang totoong pagpapakumbaba natin, totohanang panalangin, masusing paghahanap sa Diyos, at pagtalikod sa ating mga kasalanan.

Papaano nating mahahanap ang Diyos? Kailangan nating basahin ang ating mga Bibliya, kagaya ng ipinanukala ni Boxing Champ Manny Pacquiao noong siya ay nagsalita sa Malacanang.

Kung magbabasa tayo ng Bibliya, makikita natin, sa kanyang Deuteronomio 6:4-9, na tayong lahat ay binigyan ng tungkulin na ituro ang mga Salita ng Diyos sa ating mga anak sa lahat ng sandali.

Ang problema nga lamang, hindi natin nagagampanan ang tungkuling ito, kaya't marami sa ating mga anak, at sa atin mismo, at maging sa ating mga magulang at iba pang mga ninuno, na lumaking walang aral sa Diyos.

Kung lumaki tayong walang aral sa Diyos, maliwanag na hindi natin nakasama ang Diyos sa ating mga buhay. At dahil hindi natin nakasama ang Diyos, nakakagawa tayo ng maraming mga kasalanan, na siyang dahilan kaya tayo nililipol.

Naniniwala ang BATAS Party List na may panahon pa para magbago. At magagawa natin ang pagbabagong ito kung isusulong nating lahat ang pagbabalik loob ng Pilipino sa Diyos sa pamamagitan ng Bibliya.

Ayon sa Family Code (kung kayo ay ikinasal matapos ang 1988) at sa Civil Code (kung ang kasal ay naganap matapos ang 1988), hindi ituturing na matinding pagkakamali ang pagkakaiba ng pangalan ng isa sa mga ikinasal upang mapawalang bisa ang kasal.

Isn't this man's "burden of three mountains" that Mao Ze Dong spoke of? The three were: backwardness, oppression by others and feudal tyranny. But women, he added, were burdened by "four mountains." The first three, plus the fourth and heaviest of all - man himself.

The result is economist John Kenneth Gailbraith's description of woman as "servant wife", but with a vengeance. Women combine work with caring for their families (war widows as sole parents). These range from vending of dry goods to hiring out, fish, laundrywomen, cooks or house cleaners. Those in rural areas work as share croppers.

The study cites promising initiatives relevant for "a whole generation of children who have grown up in evacuation centers": peace zones, inter-religious groups cooperating in common projects like feeding programs to education, etc.. "These are people's initiatives and do not depend for their mandate on armed parties."

This study is a good read. It can help strip blinkers for a country fixated by Senator Lacson and Enrile's brawl over a P40,000 tab for Blue Ribbon witnesses. Few are aware of the extreme suffering Mindanao's clashes inflicted, it says. "Women are invisible."/ J.L.Mercado

SPL.PROC CASE NO. 1828-R

A verified amended petition filed by petitioners through counsel alleged, among others, that:

1. The petitioners were born on March 28, 1993 and March 10, 1995, respectively at Baguio City and such facts were duly registered with the Office of the Local Civil Registrar of Baguio City as evidenced by the machine copies of their Certificate of Live Birth which are marked and attached hereto as Annexes "A" and "B".

2. The parents of the petitioners - Lilibeth Laoyan Espiritu and Patrick Pagaway Logaspi are not married to each other under the laws of the Republic of the Philippines evidenced by a certificate to that effect issued by the National Statistics Office and marked as Annex "C" hereof.

3. However, in the certificate of live birth of minor Pia May E. Logaspi, the entry with regard to the date and place of marriage of her parents were mistakenly and erroneously supplied therein as "JANUARY 12, 1989" and "LA TRINIDAD BENGUET". The same mistake and error appears in certificate of live birth of Milton E. Logaspi as the entry was supplemented to read as "JANUARY 5, 1989" and "TUBA, BENGUET".

4. Considering that the parents of herein petitioners were not legally married to each other, the entries with regard to the date and place of marriage of petitioners parents as appearing in their certificates of live birth should be corrected and deleted to conform to the true facts.

On the basis of the foregoing, the petitioners pray that the petition be granted and cause the correction of entries in the certificates of live birth of petitioners by ordering the deletion of the entries with respect to the date and place of marriage of their parents.

Finding the amended petition to be sufficient in form and substance, let the same be heard before this court on October 29, 2008 at 10:30 o'clock in the morning at which place, date and time, the petitioners shall prove their case. justice when the firm's demolition crew allegedly "abused her rights".

Aniceto's complaint before Assistant City Prosecutor Rolando Vergara emanated when her restaurant El Rancho was demolished by CJHDevCo on the wee hours of the morning on April 30 despite an injunctive relief already filed in court. "Without any court order or any notice to me, (they) demolished the structures of the restaurant and forcibly took away all the things there," Aniceto claimed.

Accordingly, Aniceto lost at least P5 million of her hard-earned money from her sheer entrepreneurial efforts for the past decades.

"There was notice to vacate," Gayo admitted, "but there was not notice of demolition."

Earlier, Alvarez insisted that Aniceto's contract with them have lapsed and they need the area for the Ayala development plan, thus their notice for her to walk away from John Hay.

But Gayo suspects Aniceto is being singled out citing why other structures beside the former El Rancho restaurant have not been demolished until now.

Aside from their hands already tied to several pressing concerns before city officials on the new infusion of a P3 billion development by Ayala Land at the former US rest and recreation facility, "Alvarez, Alquiros and the CJHDevCo officers will face these charges including civil damages afterwards," said veteran defense lawyer Emiliano Gayo.

But Alvarez claimed in an interview over the phone, Aniceto's complaint "is totally without basis," claiming these suit that her former concessionaire filed just "a harassment suit".

CJHDevCo's Senior VP explained that Aniceto's axe to grind comes from her "losing the injunctive relief she earlier sought but was denied."

Aniceto earlier petitioned Executive Judge Edilberto Claravall for a Temporary Restraining Order and was granted. When the TRO lapsed, again Aniceto asked for a Preliminary Injunction but was denied.

But we filed for a motion for reconsideration which is still pending in court, retorted Atty. Gayo. "It is not resolved yet because the civil case and other reliefs we sought in the civil case have not gone to trial," he said contrary to Atty. Alvarez's insistence.

Gayo said his office is also studying hard evidences leading to the disbarment of Alvarez and Belmes. "They (possibly) violated the Lawyer's Oath", he said explaining, they committed grave and serious misconduct (as members of the Philippine Bar./ Ace Alegre ence of good governance in their respective areas of jurisdiction."

"The barangay is the smallest political subdivision in the present setup of government and that the same is administered by a punong barangay, seven kagawads, a secretary, a treasurer, and a Sangguniang Kabataan (SK) chairperson. The 128 barangays in the City of Baguio have their own barangay brigades which help them maintain the peace and order in their respective barangays," the resolution noted.

"Most barangay officials and regular members of the barangay tanod brigades die in line of duty; thus, the city must provide them with the necessary burial assistance which will be utilized by the surviving members of their family to defray their expenses during their wake or for other productive endeavor," the resolution stressed.

The measure seeks to appropriate P3 million from the General Fund for Calendar Year 2004 and every year thereafter for such purpose.

If approved, the measure would entitle all barangay officials and regular members of the barangay tanod brigades who die in line of duty to P10,000 each as financial assistance.

"Provided, that the claim for such assistance should be duly supported by the proof of death of the barangay official or the regular member of the barangay tanod brigade, the oath of office of the barangay official or the appointment of the barangay tanod and a duly accomplished application form for financially assistance duly signed by his/her surviving member of the family which shall be presented to the barangay affairs office for immediate processing."

The measure will be tackled on second reading after publication by the body soon./ Aileen P. Refuerzo should first settle its ballooning obligation to the city before allowing any further development inside the facility.

He said CJHDevCo and Ayala representatives promised to take up the city's concerns with the higher-ups.

Rabanes said the developer owes around P600million as of this year representing the city's 25 percent share from the lease rental.

Farinas said CJHDevCo's Gina Alvarez informed that the company paid their obligation to the Bases Conversion Development Authority (BCDA) and it is now up to the BCDA to remit to the city government its share.

"If it's true then the BCDA should pay the city immediately. There should be transparency in all of these," Farinas said./Aileen P. Refuerzo ties have resulted in the destruction of 187 houses.

"The incidents of violence and the continued harassment of the residents of Didipio by Oceana Gold's security forces, with the apparent complicity of members of Nueva Vizcaya's PNP Regional Mobile Group, have caused an atmosphere of anxiety and paranoia to descend on the area.

Community members avoid venturing out at night for fear of encountering either the security forces or the police," Ronald Gregorio of LRC-KsK/FOE-Phils reported to CHR Commission de Lima. The environmental and human rights groups also urged the CHR to institute a mechanism to facilitate human rights complaints from indigenous communities. Chairperson De Lima expressed grave concern over the situation in Didipio and said her office will study the possibility of creating a task force to look specifically into the most serious cases of human rights violations resulting from extractive industries like mining in the country, added Pasimio of LRC./Ace Alegre SINO kaya itong pulis na anak din daw ng isang pulis kernel na kasamang "rumesbak" sa isang bar at bilyaran sa may upper mabini st. noong madaling araw ng huwebes, hulyo 10. Bago kasi ang "resbak", may nagwala na isang lasing saa loob ng naturang bar at hindi ito maawat kaya't pilit na pinapalabas ito ng security pero imbes na lumabas gusto pa nitong suntukin ang security at ang weyter. Eh, meron pa palang mas tigasin na nakakitang kostumer kaya nakatikim ng isang upak itong nagtitigas tigasan. Buti na lamang at maagap na umawat ang security.

Umalis ang pasaway na lasing pero bumalik at kasama itong pulis na anak daw ng kernel buti na lamang at umalis na iyong nagpatikim dito sa pasaway kundi ay baka kung ano ang gawin sa kanya ng "pasaway" at ang protector niyang pulis.

Kaya pala marami ang mayayabang na "takaw-gulo" ay dahil sa pangungunsinti at pagprotektak sa kanila ng mga taong nasa pwesto dapat sa mga ito ay "ilugaw" at itapon sa kangkungan! Pweh! Mga Buwiisheett!!!

Following the tip, the operatives together with the Corpuz couple, planned out another entrapment operation before rushing to Dagupan where Lian wanted the transaction to take place.

The agents immediately pounced on Lian right after she took the marked money. Corpuz said there are still many victims of Lian in Kuala Lumpur who are waiting to be repatriated. Such report was received by the Vice President on July 5 which led to the assembly of arresting team.

De Castro lauded CIDG-ATCD head Sr. Supt. Col. Gilbert Sosa, and his men as well as the operatives from the POEA and BI for another successful campaign against illegal recruitment.

He also cited the cooperation of the victims which was crucial to the arrest of Lian and Sabado.

"This is another big blow against illegal recruitment. We intend to catch more illegal recruiters with the help of dedicated men in uniforms and cooperative victims. The fight against illegal recruitment is everyone's concern. Let us all help and be vigilant in this campaign to stop the culprits who cause hardship to fellow Filipinos instead of helping them." the Vice President said.

City to require use of surveillance camcoders among banks

BAGUIOCITY—The city may soon require all banks here to install closed-circuit television otherwise known as CCTV with corresponding image records on their facilities as a deterrent to crimes.

The city council is considering a proposed ordinance proposed by Vice Mayor Daniel Farinas for this purpose.

"Recently, eight bank employees, a security guard and a client were killed at Rizal Commercial Banking Corporation in Laguna by lawless members of society. Police investigators had a hard time looking for and identifying the culprits and rued that the installation of CCTV would have helped them in their police work," Farinas noted.

Farinas said CCTV facilities use video cameras to transmit signal to a specific, limited set of monitors while a Digital Video Recorder (DVR) is a video recording device that uses a hard disk drive or optical disk drive, instead of a VCR tape, to record programs.

"Sometimes called personal video recorders (PVRs), DVRs are

He added quoting Baguio journalist Peppot Ilagan, "Baguio has been grieving for so long... it is time we focus on the 'now,' our kids who 'are constant reminders that the word must go on'."

As of press deadline, the group has been working to request Session Road as venue of the Malcolm Square activities as originally planned. /ISL

Big time Malaysia illegal recruiter, falls to Noli task force

OVP/ PNS — The long arms of the law caught up with an elusive bigtime illegal recruiter from Malaysia following an entrapment operation by a composite anti-illegal recruitment group led by the Office of the Vice President (OVP) yesterday (July 8) in Dagupan City.

Vice President and Presidential Adviser on OFWs Noli "Kabayan" De Castro identified the arrested suspect as Ong Siew Lian, a Malaysian national. Also nabbed was a Filipino doctor identified as Dr. Raul Sabado, owner of Dagupan Orthopedic Center, in Dagupan City where he allegedly conducts the pre departure briefings for their victims.

According to De Castro, arresting officers from the composite group composed by operatives of the Criminal Investigation and Detection Group (CIDG) Anti-Transnational Crime Division (ATCD), Bureau of Immigration (BI) and the Philippine Overseas and Employment Authority (POEA) hauled the suspects from Dagupan City to Camp Crame in Quezon City for filing of appropriate charges.

De Castro said the arrest of Lian was planned out earlier following a tip from her victims that the suspect would be leaving the Philippines for Kuala Lumpur via the Diosdado Macapagal International Airport (DMIA) in Clark, Pampanga.

The information was given by Rolly Corpuz, husband of Donna, one of Lian's victims who arrived at DMIA from Kuala Lumpur on that same morning and told au-

Show baguio has "moved on;" fly a balloon on July 16

BAGUIO CITY— This July 16th, the "Killer Earthquake's" anniversary, the City Government of Baguio in coordination with the City Disaster Coordinating Council (CDCC) and local civic action groups are preparing something out of the ordinary.

After 18-long years, they have finally declared: "The mourning stops... the new life begins."

Dubbed "Moving on," members of various civic action groups in the field of search, rescue, safety, and security have prepared a number of activities that showcases "disaster preparedness" - a departure from "remembering a time of denouement" every Earthquake anniversary.

At 9:00am, the "Encounter with heroes: An Exhibit on Disaster Preparedness" shall be inaugurated at the Justice George Malcolm Square.

The exhibit which lasts until 4:26pm (earthquake time) features an exhibit of various rescue equipments; the Red Cross Baguio-Chapter bloodletting mission; a health mission; and free "rescue and survival" experience which include rappelling, slide-for-life, and wall-climbing for kids of all ages.

Likewise at 9:00am, local media shall be conducting the annual "poni ni keyew" (tree offering) at the Busol Watershed.

At 4:26pm, upon sounding of the City Hall sire, establishments along Session Road are encouraged to fly balloons along with members of local communication groups to symbolize Baguio, "has moved on."

At the Malcolm Square, local bands shall likewise celebrate "new life through music" via "Moving On: The Concert," until midnight.
