

Life on Mission – Viewer Guide Session Six: Pray

Discussion Questions

- 1) When you face stress, grief, or challenge, do you respond by praying? Why or why not?
- 2) How can you begin to make prayer a habit or reflexive reaction to times of both difficulty and joy? In other words, how do you build a habit of prayer?
- 3) If you had to highlight one thought from the DVD teaching, what would it be? Why?
- 4) Tell the group about a time someone prayed for you in a moment of need, and you felt God's presence more powerfully as a result?
- 5) How do you respond to Bo Chancey's idea that, in their church, they "pray for one"? What do you think that means?
- 6) When you pray for an unbeliever or for someone whose spiritual condition you really don't know, what are you expecting God to do?
- 7) Do you ever find yourself drifting away from communication with God? How does that impact your ability to live life on mission?
- 8) Several of the teachers in this session have highlighted the power of corporate prayer. What experiences have you had with the power of prayer with other Christians?
- 9) Let's talk about Shan Moyers' question: "What if you are where you are right now - your neighborhood, your job, the gym that you work out at - what if you are where you are right now not by chance, but by divine assignment?"
- 10) In what ways has your own prayer life been challenged by this session's teaching?
- 11) Pastor Mike Baker mentioned the quote from Hudson Taylor that has motivated his prayer life: "It's possible to move men by God through prayer alone." Tell about a time you saw this demonstrated in your own life.
