

Overview

This is fun PowerPoint game based on trivia about the queen. Most of the questions will not be common knowledge. This game is best played between two students or two groups. Going back and forth between the two people/groups.

How to Play

1. Bring two people or two groups on stage.
2. Walking through the PowerPoint game. Asking one person the first questions and then the other person the next question.
3. There is a tie breaker question at the end of the game to break the tie.

Pro Tip

All the questions are about the queen of England. Try having everyone use an English accent the whole game.
