REFRESH! GAME BOOSTER

RESTART – OVERVIEW

A refreshed version of a classic improv game “New Choice.” Let your adult leaders or students with comedic or dramatic timing go wild! It’s like mad libs for upfront stage games. Even when it is bad it is great!

HOW TO PLAY

1. Pick two students or leaders to help you act out on stage.
2. Set the scene by asking the audience to give you a place and a relationship between two people (e.g. kitchen, mother-child)
3. The two actors will begin their improv scene and continue until you call “restart” and have them back up one line and repeat the conversation with a new selection
4. Spare them and everyone else by calling “scene” at whatever point you deem appropriate.

PRO TIP

Use the “Restart” button/buzzer/announcement as a way to help out struggling actors or to give comedic edge to an otherwise not funny scene.

Don’t be afraid to hit them with a few “restarts” in rapid succession.

SUPPLIES

A microphone or buzzer to help emphasize the point when you call “restart.”
