
Zacchaeus

Verse 1

His name was Zacchaeus:
He waited for Jesus
In a tree, a front row seat.
No tall man would have him beat.
Jesus said, "come down from the tree.
Come down and talk to me".

Verse 2

He had a tax history
That troubled him deeply and
Weighed his mind, when he spoke.
He'd ripped funds from lots of folk
But he said, "I want to repay
And start to live a brand new way"

Chorus1

"I want to live by God's way
In my actions every day.
Instead of greed and bringing pain
Do right in God's name.
Jesus makes me see
A better way than greed."

Verse 3

The Jericho man
Climbed down from the tree and
Asked Jesus home.
Told the crowd
Their money would be paid fourfold.
Salvation came that day.
It came along Zacchaeus' way, saying

Chorus1

Bridge

He found the way to work without greed,
Repenting of sin from now on.
He found the way to think about others,
Put honesty first all the time.

Chorus 2

To live by God's way
In his actions every day.
Instead of greed and bringing pain
Do right in God's name.
Jesus made him see
A better way than greed

Ending

To live by God's way (x 3)
