The Roving Wildcat

In the center of the beautiful Wenatchee Valley there lies a seemingly normal high school. Its appearance and size are average in relation to other schools, but there all similarities end. The unique factor which sets Eastmont apart from other schools is its mascot, a ROVING WILDCAT.

While mascots are usually just a name used to refer to the school teams, Eastmont's cat has a personality which includes each classroom, each member of the faculty, each student. Within the stuffed model in the ASB room there is an exuberant, persistent, roving spirit. This spirit has made the wildcat mean Eastmont.

In the past year the wildcat has let its claws be felt several times. Its sports teams left on other teams lacerations so deep that they've created permanent scars. Clubs and activities traveled throughout the state and established an increasing respect for the school. They also rose to new heights in academic and social ideals.

The roving wildcat is not a senior nor a junior nor a sophomore. It is not a competition yell nor a drag up Ninth. It is not the administration nor the student council. It is every person who has ever attended the school who makes the Roving Wildcat the proud symbol of Eastmont.

The Annual Staff Proudly Dedicates the 1965 Emo Echo to Attaining a zenith of service at Eastmont High School have been two administrators, Mr. Brown and Mrs. McCarl. Though located in the "dreaded" east end of the building, they have worked long hours, made sacrifices not ordinarily attributed to those of the public service profession, and performed their prospective jobs with their maximum physical and mental abilities. Because of their outstanding records, helpfulness, and valuableness, we of the Emo Echo Staff wish to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Doug Brown and Mrs. Jean McCarl.

Apple Blossom Finalists

Miss Jeanne McFarland

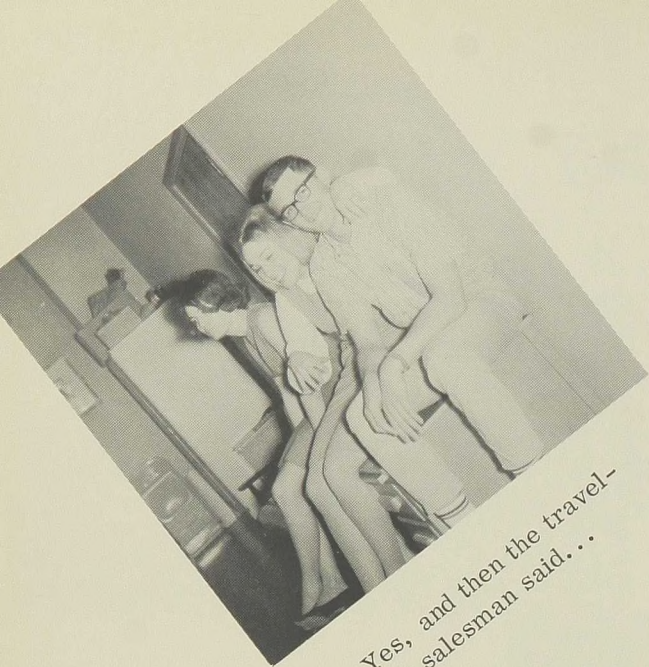

Miss Kathy Cook

This year Eastmont was given the opportunity to be represented in the selection for the Washington Apple Blossom Festival Royalty. The number of the girls chosen was based on the population of the respective schools. Eastmont was very proud of the showing made by the trio during the selection and later as part of the Royal Court.

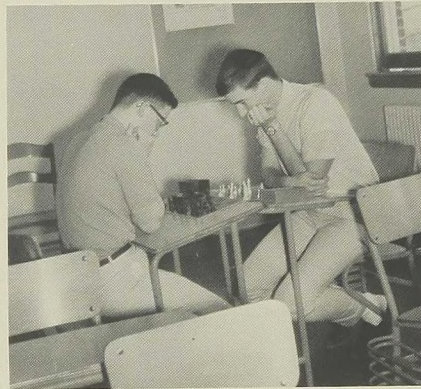

Miss Mary Ann Waverek

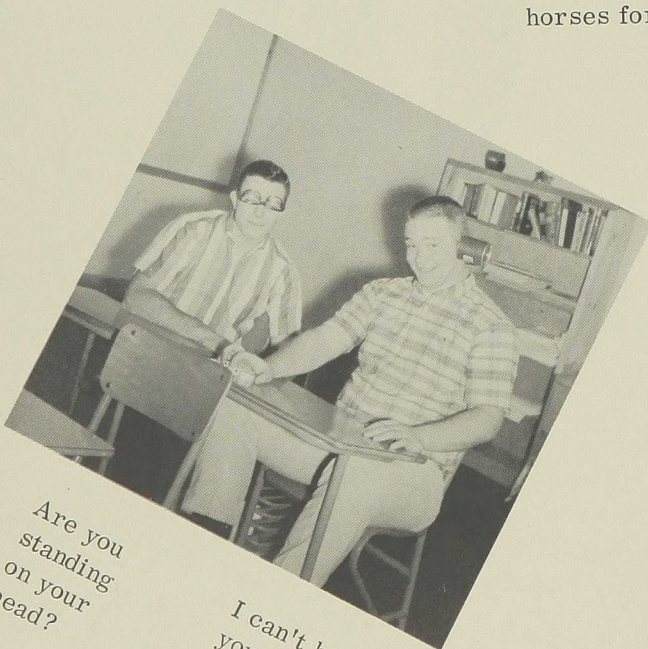

Yes, and then the traveling salesman said...

Well, I was coming up Ninth Street, about 3:20.

What are the horses for?

Are you standing on your head?

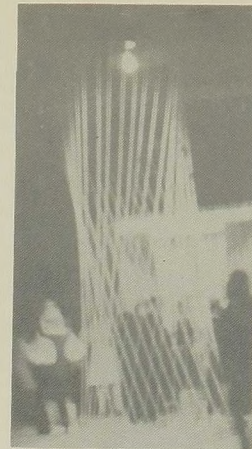

I can't hear you. I've got a can on my ear.

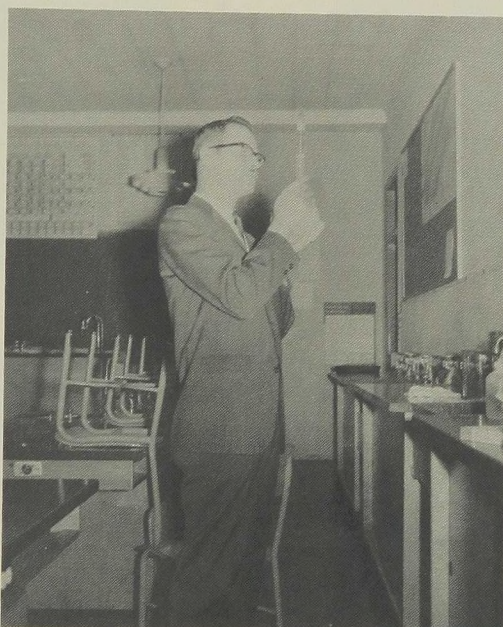

If I ever get my hands on the kid who nailed this to the floor...

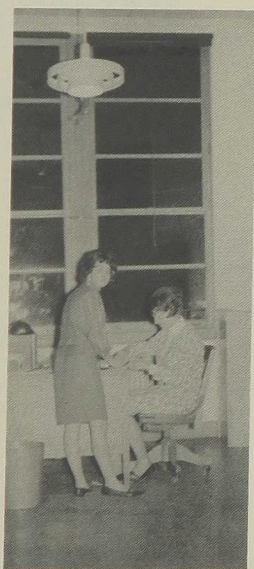

"Smile - or I'll break your hand."

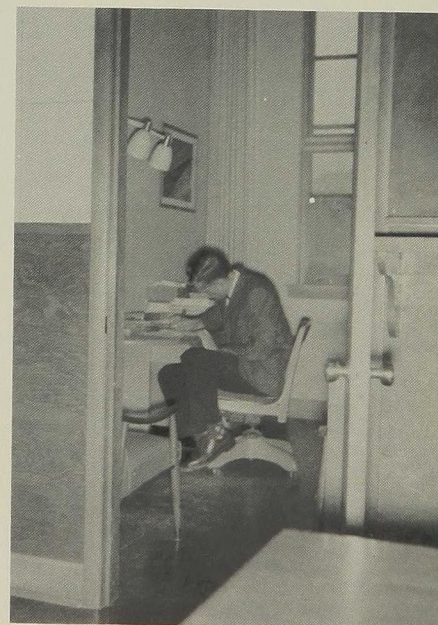

"Keep dancin' and pretend you don't see it!"

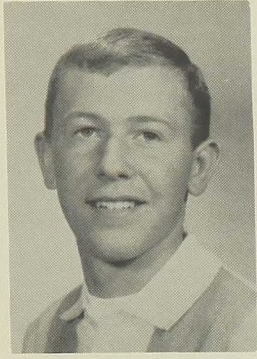

"Now, if I can only get a volunteer to test this..."

"Honest, we were only checking our grades."

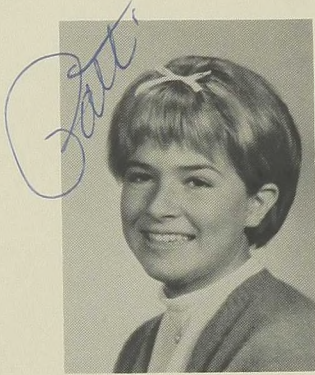

"Dear Abby,
I have three more for you today....."

Flag Twirlers

This year's sparkling flag twirlers were advised by Mr. Irwin, as were the majorettes. The flag twirlers shined especially during home football games. In the Spring they participated in the Apple Blossom Parade.

Majorettes

Following tradition, this year's Majorettes ably entertained Eastmont students and the public at home football and basketball games. They led the band and drill team in the Apple Blossom Parade.

Newly formed and unique at Eastmont this year was the Swing Choir. They had the responsibility of representing Eastmont at many public functions and were warmly accepted. The highlight of the season was to sing for the 1965 Apple Blossom Queen selection.

All those interested turned out and the members were chosen by Mr. Sand, the director. Good voices plus a higher than average musical skill put the group in demand throughout the valley.

"And the Band Played on" ...

The Eastmont High School Wildcat Band created musical appreciation in the school and community. Besides participating in concerts, the band played at sports' events and marched in the Apple Blossom parade.

The band also functions as a club. Its members adopted a new constitution. Officers: Pres. Ron Messersmith, Vice-Pres. Mike Ogdon, Secretary Mary Deasy, and Treasurer Anita Deasy.

Honor Society is part of a national scholastic organization. This year it raised its standards to 3.3 GPA and at least two activities.

Leading the club were: Karl Jahns, President; Steve Underhill, Vice-President; Sharon Belvill, Secretary; Anita Deasy, Treasurer.

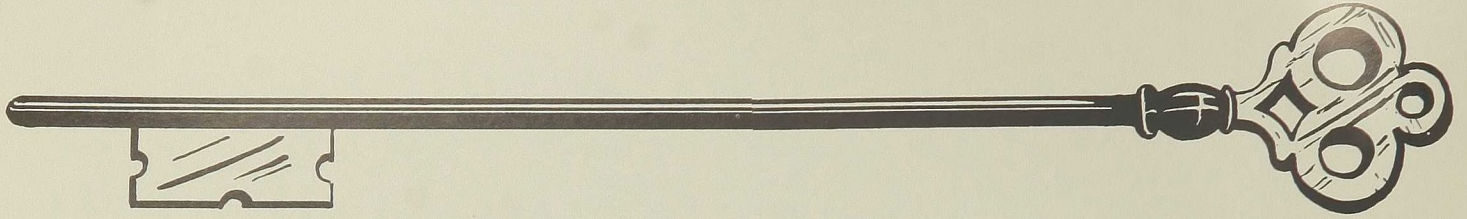

Girls' League Leaders

The Girls' League Executive Board is in charge of planning the activities and programs of Girls' League. President Diane Ulin and Advisor Mrs. Ball directed Vice-President Susan Lancaster, Secretary Debbie Wyngaard, Treasurer Mary Deasy and the Class Representatives. The annual Tolo Dance put on by the Girls of Eastmont High School is an event always looked forward to with anticipation.

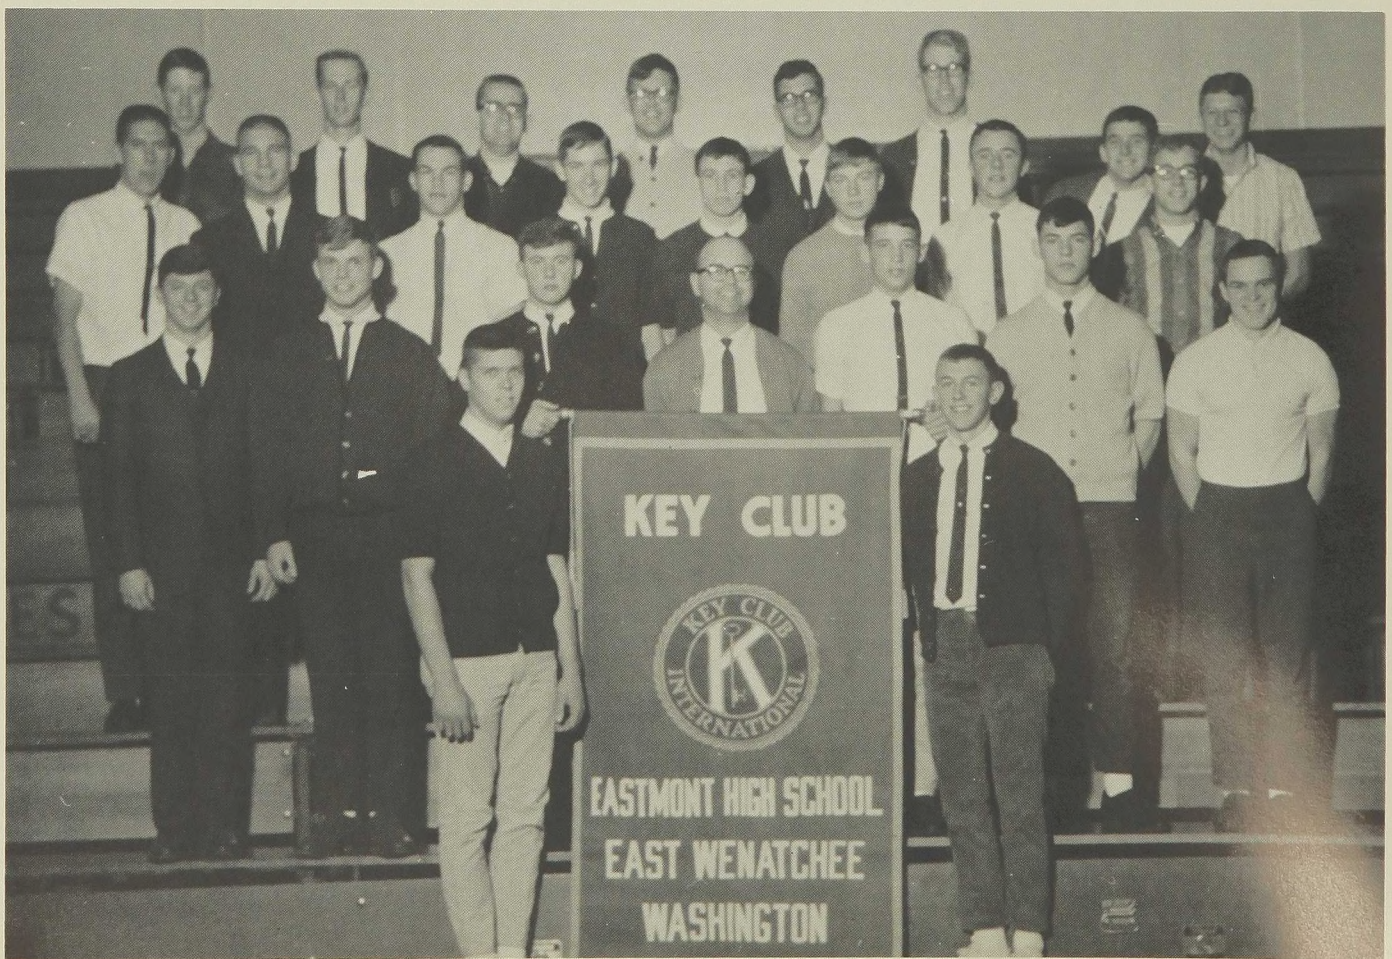

Key to New Horizons

Key Club is a high school organization sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. Its purpose is to better our home, school, and community through service. An objective of Key Club is to build citizenship in ourselves by unselfishly promoting higher standards for youth. Among the several projects engaged in by Key Club were painting the bleachers, purchased by the ASB, and parking cars during football and basketball games.

Leading the club through the past year were Sonny Robinson as President, Mike Nelson as Vice-President, Dick McLandress as Secretary-Treasurer and Mr. Patrick as Advisor.

All

FHA, which is in its seventh year at Eastmont, is advised by Mrs. Olinghouse. The members have had at least one year of home economics. The club's president, Arlene Grebe; is working toward her State Homemaker Degree this year, and several others are working toward their Junior Homemaker Degrees. Other officers include: Vice President, Linda Spaeth; Treasurer, Becky Feil; and Secretary, Charilyn Miller.

Check Chess Club

Chess Club was not large this year, but the quality of play was not poor. There was a year long battle for first and second between three of the members.

The club participated in a match with Wenatchee and sent out challenges to other schools also.

The Advisor this year was Mr. Smith. Installed as officers were:

President--Karl Jahns

Vice-President--Mike Standerfer

Secretary--Nobi Nakata

Treasurer--Dennis Neal

ROW 1: Karl Jahns, Mike Standerfer, Nobi Nakata, Dennis Neal. ROW 2: Bob Shell, Jim McKenzie, Mr. Smith, Paul Beeman, Phil Neher.

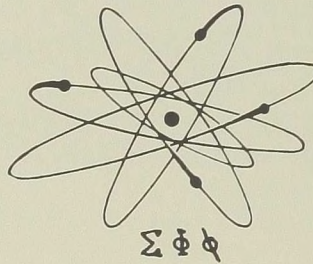

With the aid of a new Advisor, Mr. Smith, the members of Science Club realized some of the important values of science. The club is responsible for putting on the annual Science Fair and also enjoys any field trips it takes. High school students interested in all fields of science are welcome in this club. First semester officers included: President, Pete Morrow; Vice-President, Al Hughes; Secretary, Mary Brabrook; Treasurer, Gery Rosenbeary and Advisor, Mr. Smith. Second semester officers were President, Roger Gill; Vice-President, Al Hughes; Secretary, Sylvia de Desrochers; and Treasurer Jeri Ellifritz.

Dave,
 You're one of the nicest boys that I've had the privilege (GP) to know. I hope that will still be good friends in the years to come.
 Keep up the ~~major~~ marvie work on the track and basketball + football teams. You're really a spectacular athlete.
 Have fun + be good + smart.

FFA Finds Farm Frontiers

FFA is an organization of boys who are interested in agriculture, or related fields.

Our chapter maintained and operated a farm of eight acres near Sterling Junior High. In operating the farm the boys learned about farm maintenance and fruit production. There were also corrals at the farm for the boys' steers. The boys also enter livestock and shop projects in the Chelan County and North Central Washington Fairs.

This years officers were: President, Dennis Davison; Vice-President, Harold Cunning; Secretary, Jeff Keane; Treasurer, Randy Walter; Reporter, Ralph Olson; Sentinel, Art Bainard; Advisor, Mr. Art Heideman.

Thespians Speak Out

Thespians rose to new heights in the presentation of drama this year. Departing from the usual comedies, "Twelve Angry Jurors," their first production, was extremely successful.

They met once a month for meetings. At these times they decided to attend play competition. Miss Bruns, the advisor, supervised such activities.

The officers this year were:

President--Mike Campbell

Vice-President--Judy Campbell

Secretary--Pamela Cole

Treasurer--Susan Henkel

Emo Gals

"Emo Gals" is the monthly Girls' League paper that is published by and distributed to the girls of Eastmont. This paper contains news of school and Girls' events. Every issue contains a short article on Girl of the Month chosen from the senior girls for a certain quality.

Members of Girls' League compose the paper staff. Anita Deasy is this year's editor and Sylvia de Desrochers is assistant editor.

ROW 1: Anita Deasy, Mrs. Ball, Sylvia de Desrochers. ROW 2: Arlene Grebe, Sue Lancaster, Connie Charlton, Connie Pilcher, Sharon Belvill.

Wildchat

"Reporters, report; typists, type; mimeographers, mimeograph; and distributors, distribute!" These are the words of editor, Nobi Nakata, as the time comes for each issue of the Eastmont Wildchat. Nerves of steel answer the tension and late hours before each issue reaches the students of Eastmont High School. Each issue informed the students of current events and paid tribute to various worthy students. One can truthfully say the 1964-1965 WILDCHAT, led by editor, Nobi Nakata and Advisor, Mr. Quorn; with the help of exchange editor, Sharon Reitz, was very interesting and informative to everyone.

Basketball

The 1964-65 basketball season proved to be one of the most successful in Eastmont's history. Under the experienced guidance of tall (7'11"?) Al Thompson, our spirited team made school history with two consecutive victories over arch rivals Wenatchee Panthers. The team started a new tradition to be carried on throughout the history of EHS. Our enthusiastic boys tried hard to impress our new coach and narrowly missed a chance for first place in district competition.

Mr. Patrick coached the wrestling team to one of its most outstanding seasons. Although only a half of the team consisted of seniors, the drive and determination exhibited by each member put them all on the same level. All of the boys were sent to District, and the team won the Sub-District match that was held at Eastmont.

Wrestling is a growing sport at Eastmont, and it is destined to obtain even greater heights with many more years like the past one.

The 1965 Eastmont track team was the one of the strongest that the school had ever produced. It was made of many returning lettermen supported by the developing talents of the JVs.

The superior qualifications and initiative of the team enabled it to have a very successful season. The students were justly proud of the new coach, the team, and the fine job that they did in representing the school.

Tennis Team

The tennis team made quite a strong showing this year. In the fall it embarked on an intramural tournament. A unique point system was devised by Mr. Patrick and used sparingly by those that participated in the vigorous activity.

In the Spring they participated with other schools in the area in the regular schedule. It proved to be an extraordinary season and one that was thought to be beneficial to all the members of the squad.

Friday night the traditional bonfire started the Homecoming events. The Cheerleaders worked hard to raise high spirits for the game against Othello.

The well performed halftime activities, managed by Tom Syring and Randy Walter, were climaxed by the crowning of Queen Kathy Cook by last year's queen, Mis Fryhover. After the game, students met in the cafetoriim for an entertaining hootenanny.

Saturday night's dance, Eastmont Ecstasy, was the golden crowning touch for Homecoming 1964. Many Eastmont graduates returned, making this homecoming one of the best ever.

Class, I'd like you to meet a friend of mine.

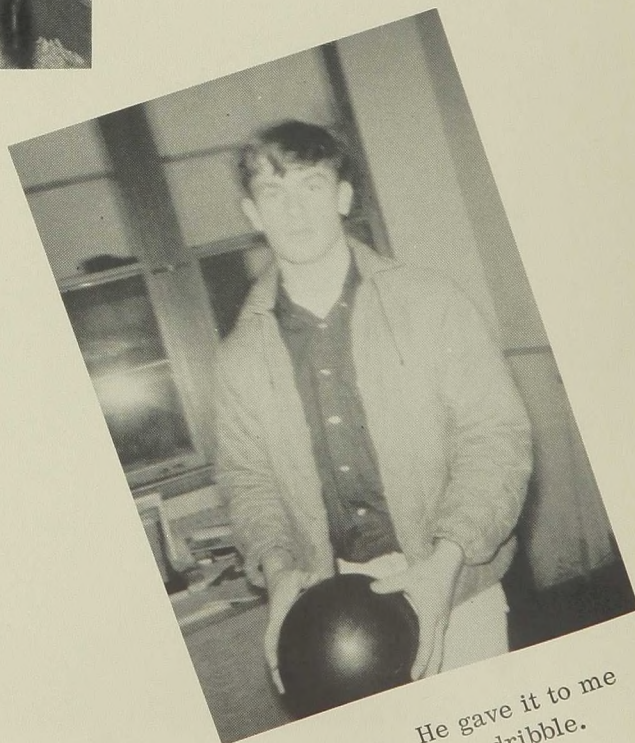

I wish they'd quit sending my mail to the school!

I'M not sure, I just caught the tale end of it.

And where do you think you're going?

I dunno. He gave it to me and told me to dribble.
