Guide to Conducting Boards of Review

Adapted from the excellent material at macscouter.org

Purpose of a Board of Review:

The members of a Board of Review should have the following objectives in mind:

1. To make sure that the work required for Advancement has been learned and completed.
2. To find out what kind of experience the boy is having in his patrol and troop.
3. To encourage the Scout to progress further.

The Board of Review provides "quality control" on advancement within the unit. It also provides an opportunity for the Scout to develop and practice those skills needed in a interview situation, and it is an opportunity for the Scout to review his accomplishments. It serves a different purpose than the Scoutmaster Conference; the Scoutmaster Conference is a time for the Scoutmaster time to get to know and develop a working relationship with that Scout and to gage how good or bad a time he's having being a Scout in OUR TROOP.

The Board of Review is NOT a retest; the Scout has already been tested on the skills and activities required for the rank. However, the chairman of the Board of Review should ensure that all the requirements have been "signed off" in the Scout's handbook. Additionally, the chairman should ensure that leadership and merit badge records are consistent with the requirements for the rank.

The Board of Review is an opportunity to review of the Scout's attitudes, accomplishments and his acceptance of Scouting's ideals.

Passing a Board of Review is not automatic; if the Scout is not well enough prepared, he can come back at a later date when he is better prepared.

Expectations of the Scout increase with increasing rank, in all areas discussed—knowledge, leadership, involvement, articulation.

Composition of a Board of Review:

For all ranks (except Eagle) and Eagle palms, the Board of Review consists of three to six members of the Troop Committee. Relatives or guardians may not serve as members of a Scout's Board of Review. A Board of Review may contain members who are not registered Scouters; however, they should be knowledgeable of the principles of Scouting.

Mechanics of a Board of Review:

1. The Scout should be in full uniform with all insignia up to date and properly placed.
2. The chairman of the Board of Review should ask the Scout to come to attention, and recite one or more of the following:
 - The Scout Law
 - The Scout Oath
 - The Scout Motto
 - The Scout Slogan
 - The Outdoor Code
3. For the lower ranks, one or two (usually the Law and Oath) should be sufficient. For higher ranks, more may be expected. One or two re-tries are appropriate, especially for younger Scouts, or if the Scout appears nervous.

4. The board members ask questions of the Scout appropriate to the rank.
 - The questions should be open-ended, offering an opportunity for the Scout to speak about his opinions, experiences, activities, and accomplishments.
 - Avoid questions which only require a simple one or two word answer.
 - If an answer is too brief, follow up with a, "Why?" or, "How can that be done?" to expand the answer.
 - The questions need not be restricted to Scouting topics; questions regarding home, church, school, work, athletics, etc. are all appropriate.
5. The time for a Board of Review should be from 15 to 30 minutes, with the shorter time for the lower ranks.
6. When all members have had an opportunity to ask their questions, the Scout is excused from the room. The board members then consider whether the Scout is ready for the next rank; the board's decision must be unanimous.
7. Once the decision is made, the Scout is invited back into the room, and the Chairperson informs the Scout of the board's decision.
8. If the Scout is approved for the next rank, there are general congratulations and handshakes all around, and the Scout is encouraged to continue advancing.
 - The members sign the Board of Review form, and the word Awarded is circled and dated.
9. If there are issues which prevent the Scout from advancing to the next rank, the board must detail the precise nature of the deficiencies. The Scout must be told specifically what must be done in order to be successful at the next Board of Review. Typically, an agreement is reached as to when the Scout may return for his subsequent Board of Review.
 - The Chairperson summarizes the result of this board, and the actions to be taken for the next board, at the bottom of the Board of Review form, below the signature lines.
 - Each of the Board members sign on the signature lines, and the words Not Awarded are circled and dated.

The Nature of the Questions:

- On the following pages are typical Board of Review questions for each rank. The questions for the lower ranks are simpler and generally deal with factual information about the Scout's participation in his unit, and his approach to applying the skills he has learned toward earning the next rank.
- The questions for the higher ranks are less factual, and generally seek to aid understanding of how Scouting is becoming an integral part of the Scout's life. Remember: it is not the point of a Board of Review to retest the Scout. However, questions like, "Where did you learn about ..." or "Why do you think it is important for a [rank] Scout to have this skill?" are valid.
- If a Scout appears nervous or anxious about the Board of Review, it might be appropriate to ask one or two questions from the list for a lower rank, to help "break the ice" and establish some rapport. In general, within a rank, the questions are arranged from "easiest" to "most difficult".
- For each rank, there is a question about advancing to the next rank. The purpose of this question is to encourage advancement, but it should not be asked in a way that pressures the Scout. However, if the Board of Review is for the Life rank, and the Scout is at or near his 17th birthday, some pressure towards Eagle may be in order. At the very least, be certain that the Scout realizes that his time is running out.
- For higher ranks, there is a question from Scout Handbook about basic Scouting history.
- More questions are provided than can typically be accommodated in the time suggested. The Board of Review will need to select the questions which are appropriate for the particular Scout and his experiences.

Tenderfoot Rank

- This is the Scout's first experience with a Board of Review. The process may require some explanation on the part of the Board of Review Chairperson.
 - The first few questions in the Board of Review should be simple. The Board of Review should try to gain a sense of how the Scout is fitting in to the Troop, and the Scout's level of enjoyment of the Troop and Patrol activities.
 - Encourage advancement to 2nd Class. Point out that the Scout may have already completed many of the requirements for 2nd Class.
 - The approximate time for this Board of Review should be 15-20 minutes.
1. Verify the Scout is in uniform, with insignia properly placed, and that he has his Scout Handbook.
 2. Ask him to come to attention, and recite one of more of the Law/Oath/Motto/Slogan/Outdoor code.
 3. Sample Questions:
 - When did you join our Troop?
 - How many Troop meetings have you attended in the last two months?
 - Tell us about your last Troop campout.
 - How would the first aid skills you must know for Tenderfoot help on a campout?

2nd Class Rank

- This is the Scout's second Board of Review. The process should be familiar, unless it has been some time since the Board of Review for Tenderfoot.
- Questions should focus on the use of the Scout skills learned for this rank, without retesting these skills. The Board of Review should try to perceive how the Scout's patrol is functioning, and how this Scout is functioning within his patrol.
- Encourage work on the remaining requirements for 1st Class; many of the easier ones may have already been completed.
- The approximate time for this Board of Review should be 15-20 minutes.

1st Class Rank

- By this point the Scout should be comfortable with the Board of Review process.
