

Viewer Guide Session 3

Discussion Questions:

- 1) How did Lee Strobel's life change from being an atheist investigative journalist to a follower of Jesus, and what role did his wife's invitation play in that transformation?
- 2) In the story from the book of John, what do you think motivated John's disciples to follow Jesus after hearing about Him from John?
- 3) What significance does the phrase "come and see" hold in inviting people to church or introducing them to the message of Jesus? How can we use this simple approach in our interactions with others?
- 4) The speaker mentions the importance of being a "bringer" and actively inviting someone to church. What are some ways we can be intentional in inviting others to join us on our faith journey?
- 5) How can we overcome any hesitations or fears we may have about inviting others to church and sharing our faith with them?
- 6) The speaker talks about using church events and activities as opportunities to invite others. What events or aspects of your church community do you think might be particularly appealing to those you want to invite?

- 7) In the story of Nathaniel, he initially doubts anything good can come from Nazareth, but he changes his mind after encountering Jesus. How can we help others overcome their doubts or preconceived notions about Christianity?
- 8) Lee Strobel's books and talks have had a significant impact worldwide. How do you think sharing personal stories and experiences, like Lee's, can influence others to consider faith?
- 9) The challenge is to invite one person to church this week. Why do you think taking action and inviting someone is essential, even if they may not come?
- 10) What are some potential barriers or challenges you might encounter in inviting others to church, and how can you overcome them with grace and understanding?
