Intersection collection – Oval and round table

Design by Neri&Hu

For La Manufacture, Neri&Hu have designed a range of dining tables within their ‘Intersection’ collection inspired by monastery life. A life of contemplation and reflection on what’s essential, a life spent communing and sharing with an open heart.

The use of plain wood panels for the structure gives the tables a sculptural air. Simplicity expressed through clean and uncluttered lines, evoking traditional and religious furniture. This design comes alive and is best expressed when used as a meeting or dining table.

This high-quality walnut table is available with a round or oval top and can be paired with the eponymous chair.

Despite its simple and austere look, this collection designed and developed during the pandemic radiates a certain sense of tranquility and serenity. It is an invitation to focus on what truly matters, on building sincere relationships.
