

Section One Vocabulary Building

Direction: Students will be asked to provide one antonym, one synonym and three adverbs/adjectives from columns B through D that match the word in Column A.

A	B	C	D
Word	Antonym	Synonyms	Adverbs/Adjectives
1. Family
2. Child
3. Decision
4. Choose
5. Pressure
6. Love
7. Responsibility
8. Influence
9. Plan
10. Manage

Section Two Role Playing

Direction: Students will be asked to participate in multi-participant scenarios for approximately 5 minutes. They to use one of the example idioms during your role-playing scenario.

Scenarios

1. You and your partner are thinking about a long-term relationship and potentially getting married. Share your views about having children.
2. You and your partner are thinking about having children but are both interested in having a career. Talk about a way you can manage both of these important parts of your future life.
3. You and your partner do not have children and are not sure that you want to, however, your parents are putting a lot of pressure on you to have children. Talk with your partner about the best way to deal with this.
4. You and your partner have one child and plan to stop having more; however you are getting pressure from your parents to have a large family. Talk with your partner about the best way to deal with this.
5. You and your partner have decided you do not want to have children however are thinking about adopting a child. Have a long talk with your partner about this big decision.
6. You and your partner had a very exciting and romantic relationship before you had children. Now that you have children you feel things are not the same and your relationship is going in a bad direction. You feel bored and uninterested in each other because of the daily pressures of being parents. Talk about some things you can do to bring romance and excitement back into your relationship.
7. You are single and enjoy being single however you also have always wanted to have a child. You decide you will adopt a child as a single person. Talk with a friend about this big decision.