Patricia Velasquez rose to supermodel stardom in the 90's and has captivated the masses in major ad campaigns and films ever since... She is intelligent, passionate, bighearted and sincere. Reluctant at first about a modelling career Patricia soon discovered that the fashion industry opened up a whole new world to her and offered her opportunities that allowed her to go on and achieve her personal ambitions. She has an abundance of compassion and kindness and the motivation and drive to help those less fortunate than ourselves. Turning the beauty business to her advantage she has in the process brought hope to people desperately in need through her foundation Wayuu Taya... In the movie The Mummy in her role as Anck Su Namun she enchanted the audience with the depth in her beautiful dark Latina eyes and mysteriousness of her toned body covered in bronze paint. She left us wanting to discover more about this strong and charismatic figure...
