Celebrate the First Anniversary of the Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad Visitor Center

Celebrate the life and work of Harriet Tubman, who risked all in the name of freedom and equality, at the Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad Visitor Center in Church Creek. Celebrating its first anniversary on March 10-11, the center and adjoining park have quickly become the hub of the scenic Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad Byway. See beautiful Eastern Shore landscapes in many ways unchanged from when Tubman made her journey to freedom, and honor the memory of this American hero along the Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad Byway.

Break out the green and prepare for fun as Maryland lets its Irish flag fly for St. Patrick's Day. With parades across the state, 5K fun runs and even a St. Patrick's Snakes meet-and-greet, there's something for everyone on our St. Patrick's Day events page.

Paint the State Red, Black, White and Gold for Maryland Day

Maryland may be turning 384, but we look GREAT for our age. Get out and celebrate the greatest state in the union with amazing events, pageants and an extra crabcake (or six). Find out more on our Maryland Day Events page.

Raise a Glass to Maryland Wine Month

Maryland's wine scene is bubbling over with amazing wineries and great vintages from the state's four distinct growing regions. If you haven't tried an amazing Maryland wine yet, now is the time. March is Maryland Wine Month, and we're celebrating with special events, hotel packages and great Maryland vintages from the mountains to the beaches. Follow this link for more about Maryland Wine Month and our eight wine trails.

Roll Out the Red Carpet for These Maryland-tastic Movie Events

March is a great month for film fans with the Annapolis and Ocean City Film Festivals, the Flying Dog Film Series, Bridges of the World International Film Festival, and lots, lots more! Go to our movies events page for all the details.
