

A Family Re-Union--A Debate.

TULPEHOCKEN: A family re-union was held at the residence of Sarah F. Himmelberger, by her children. The following were in attendance: Adam Fox and wife, Percival Groff and wife, Benjamin Lutz and wife, Nathaniel Anspach and wife, Miss Ellie Troutman, Ella Fox, Gerlie Stricker, Adolphus Fidler, Wm. Zerby, Wm. D. Fox, Charles Fox, John Fox, Alphens Groff, Herbert Groff, Willie Anspach and others. An elegant dinner, including roast ducks and geese, were served. Mrs. Himmelberger was the recipient of numerous gifts, such as dresses, bed blankets, plates, etc.—The new Schaeffers-town literary society was called to order by the president pro tem, A. K. Derr, jr., and opened by singing "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp." A declamation was rendered by Susan Egolf. A selection was read by M. J. Wagner. An oration was delivered by William A. Schuckers, subject, "Teacher's Influence." Referred questions were answered by A. K. Derr, jr., Harry Lessa, Wm. H. Schucker and others. "Resolved, That the loss of sight is a greater deprivation than the loss of hearing," was discussed affirmatively by William H. Schucker, C. D. Wagner and I. C. Christman; negatively by W. A. Christman, Wm. H. Wertman and A. K. Derr, jr. The judges, P. P. Wagner, H. B. Lessa and C. M. Egolf, decided in the negative, 2 to 1. General debate was opened by C. D. Wagner, followed by W. A. Christman, Wm. H. Wertman, I. C. Christman and others. The house decided in the negative. The question for debate, "Resolved, That universal suffrage should be allowed," will be discussed at the next meeting, affirmatively by Wm. H. Wertman, W. A. Christman and J. M. Holzman; negatively by Wm. H. Schucker, C. D. Wagner and I. C. Christman. A spicy budget was read by A. K. Derr, jr.
