GUITAR RIFF

The guitar riff is written in standard notation and tablature. The key signature has three flats (B-flat major/D minor) and the time signature is 4/4. The riff consists of four measures. The first two measures feature a melodic line of eighth notes and quarter notes, with a fret number of 6 above the staff. The last two measures feature a descending melodic line with fret numbers 4 and 2 above the staff. The tablature below the staff shows the corresponding fret numbers and fingerings: 4-4, 4-4, 4-4, 4-4 for the first two measures; 2-2, 2-2, 2-2, 2-2 for the third measure; and 1-1, 1-1, 1-1, 1-1 for the fourth measure.
