Lesson Objective

Students shall be able to demonstrate oral communication skills. Students shall be able to demonstrate both oral and listening comprehension skills.

Evaluation Criteria: Students can demonstrate basic proficiency in speaking, with emphasis on pronunciation, coherency, grammar and lexicon. Students can demonstrate their listening comprehension skills.

Section One Role Playing

Directive: Students will be asked to speak on specific topics, for approximately 5 minutes. Students will be asked to participate in multi-participant scenarios.

Role Playing Scenarios

MOTIVATION

1. You have a friend that has recently gone through a hard relationship. Meet with him or her and help to encourage them about their future.
2. You are optimistic and positive about things, but you have a friend that is very negative. This is having an impact on his/her life. Meet with them to see if you can show them that there are things to be happy and optimistic about.
3. You are a hard worker and want to succeed in your professional life, often spending many extra hours at work and away from your family. You think this is influencing your relationship with your family, so meet with a friend to see if you can find a work/life balance.
4. You have always been motivated by the need to make money, but later in your life you realize that money cannot buy happiness. Meet with a friend to talk about this.

CHANGING REALITY

1. You were born into a low-income family and don't believe you can change your future. Meet with a friend to talk about how you can "change your current reality" into something better.
2. You do not have a lot of money and don't have enough to attend college and get a good education in your country. Meet with a friend to see what kind of future you can build and what kind of options you have.
3. You live in a country where there is not a lot of economic opportunity and you feel like you are "stuck" and not moving forward in life. Meet with a friend to talk about what your options are.
4. You found a job working in a company but do not think there is much opportunity for advancement. Meet with a friend to talk about your options.
5. You are currently single but would like to be in a long-term relationship. Meet with a friend to talk about what you can do to change your future and be in a healthy long-term relationship.

Listening Comprehension

Directive: Students will be asked to listen to two videos and talk about them. You will be asked to speak up to 3 minutes.

1. Video One - Change (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=26U_seo0a1g)
2. Video Two - Thoughts affect Reality (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MYQZtxftapE)
