Ladies' Bible Study

The Ladies' Bible Study on evangelism continues for the winter season, as we complete our study of Scripture with Learning Evangelism from Jesus by Jerram Barrs. Join us this Tuesday at Susan Comer's home from 6:30-7:30 PM. Contact Karen Grant (karen@parishpres.org) with questions.

Book of the Month

Pick up a copy of the new book of the month entitled Lifting Hands Eyes Wide Open: How Jesus' Prayer Empowers Christian Worldview by Gerry Wisz. This is a study of the way Jesus taught his disciples to pray in the Lord's prayer and how this informs a Christian's view of the world. It is an excellent way to grow in how to pray with a renewed pursuit of God in this new year. Plan to purchase a copy from the bookshelf today.

Inquirer's Luncheon

On Sunday, February 16th, we will have an inquirer's luncheon for those interested in learning more about Parish Presbyterian. Immediately following second service we will have a catered meal for an informal time of fellowship with some questions and answers. Please reserve your spot by signing up in the foyer or by emailing Teresa in the church office.

Women's Training Network

Parish ladies, there will be a Gospel Coalition Conference in the Memphis area February 28-29 that you might be interested in attending. This is a training for women to use Scripture for their own growth and for service in God's Kingdom. Visit this website for more information: thegospelcoalition.org/womens_training_network.

Prayer Board

If we desire for real renewal, revival, and reformation to sweep through our world, our nation, our community, and our church, we will have to be a praying congregation. Oswald Chambers has said, "Prayer does not fit us for the greater work; prayer is the greater work." So, please take advantage of the prayer requests on our board in the lobby. Take one and leave one—and cry out to the Lord to hear our supplications with an outpouring of His grace.
