50 GROWING UP

Musololo was born in a very wealthy family. Mr Kanyelege, her father, was very happy the day that Musololo was born. The father and Mrs Kanyelege thoroughly prepared the room and clothings for the baby. All the members of the family also brought presents to give to the new born baby.

Neighbours and friends brought clothing, food and beddings including disposable nappies. Musololo was really a blessing for her family as both distant relatives and friends continued to bring gifts and showering a lot of praises on her. Musololo grew up to be a healthy, strong, tall and beautiful girl. She was the only child in her family.

At the age of six, her parents took her to a private school where she did Grade One to Twelve. It was a girls' boarding school.

At school, Musololo resented sharing or giving things to her friends. She slept alone on the bed. Most of her food stuff in her locker got rotten and she would throw it away in the rubbish pit. Since her parents were not religious people, she never used to go to any religious gatherings. She was very content with the riches and love of her parents.

She completed school with six points and went to the University. There, also, Musololo graduated with a distinction and got a job with a big company in the city, Badula. She was a hardworking person but she was not lucky in her love relationships. Many men ran away from her as she was too demanding on things like money, dresses, cars and other possessions. Later a friend spoke to her and she changed her character and found a good looking young man who married her. They lived happily together.

- (a) What type of family was Musololo born in? [1]
- (b) Name two things that Musololo received from neighbours and friends of her parents when she was born. [2]
- (c) Mention one thing that Musololo did not share with her friends. [1]
- (d) Why was Musololo's love relationships a failure? Give two reasons. [2]
- (e) According to what you have learnt, what two types of growth was Musololo lacking? [2]
- (f) Suppose you were a friend to Musololo, what advice could you have given to her before she changed her character? [2]

51 AMBITIONS AND HOPES

Lukasi is an intelligent boy in Grade Eleven at Kwelia High School. During the last term's examination he became first in History, English and Mathematics and was second in the rest of the subjects. When Lukasi first went to school in Grade One, he had hoped that he would go to University as soon as he completed his high school education. He remembers how his father encouraged him to work hard so that he could be admitted to the University of Zambia and study Agricultural Engineering.

Lukasi has now changed his mind. He does not seem to like agriculture. Instead, since he met his new teacher for English, he has grown to like being a teacher. "Besides, teaching is a good career; you will always have a job and you can go for further studies any time," Lukasi thought. He also thought of some proverbs that could help him achieve what he wanted to do.

He further prayed using the Israelite prayer.

- (a) What was Lukasi's ambition? [1]
- (b) What is his ambition now? [1]
- (c) Why has his ambition changed? [1]
- (d) 'When Lukasi first went to school in Grade One he had hoped that ...'
In the above sentence, what does the word 'hope' mean? [2]
- (e) Write one proverb you know that Lukasi thought could help him achieve his ambition. [2]
- (f) State the book in the Bible in which the Israelite prayer is found. [1]
- (g) What did the Israelites base their hope on in the Old testament? [2]
