Contests and, of course, great food and shopping. The Maryland Irish Festival paints the Timonium Fairgrounds green November 9-11. And the Maryland Alpaca and Fleece Festival returns to West Friendship November 10-11. Find these and more on our Fall Festivals page.

Honoring Our Heroes and Celebrating Veterans Day

Maryland is proud of our service members every day, but Veterans Day gives us just a bit more reason to roll out the red, white and blue. Celebrate those who've served with Veterans Day parades, concerts, commemorations and more. Plus, other events throughout November and special veterans' programs at our Veterans Day page.

Get Ahead of the Game With a Maryland Shopping Safari

It's Halloween, but we all know that the holiday season is just around the corner. Soon, the parking lots will be packed, but if you get ahead of the action, you can plan a Maryland shopping safari and beat the rush. Check out our great outlets and malls, as well as Maryland's unique, boutique Main Street shopping here. And to give the gift of art, browse the Maryland State Arts Council Artist Registry here.

Autumn Adventures on the Farm

It's cider-sipping season and pumpkin-picking time in Maryland, so get outside and enjoy. From amazing fall festivals to corn mazes and other great autumnal adventures, we've got you covered. Go to our Fall Events Page for more great suggestions.

Celebrate Maryland Seafood on the Maryland Crab & Oyster Trail

November is the perfect month for Maryland seafood. Rockfish are running, the crabs are the fattest of the year, and both wild-caught and farmed oysters are on the menu. So why not get out and explore our delicious seafood landscape? Whether it's steamed crabs hot out of the pot, or pan-seared rockfish in a delicate oyster cream sauce, your perfect meal is out there. Follow this link to our Crab & Oyster Trail and crack, shuck, and savor the flavor of Maryland.
