I had recently moved to a new city where I had started to attend this new church. It was a bible believing church. The messages preached were sound and based on the gospel of Christ. But in this church I noticed that people often testified about the miracle or harvest they received for the seed they sowed. Testimonies on harvests were like a normal thing there.

Well growing up, my parents had given me, the impression that giving or sowing is a means through which people are robbed off their hard earned money. Back then, my dad would call any pastor who talks about giving a thief or a fake pastor. This had formed a mindset in me that made me feel sowing was a foolish thing to do.

So after attending this new church for about three months, I decided to give this sowing thing a try. I had seen a lot of people testify about harvests. And because of this, I felt that there's a special grace at work in this church church that made sowing seem genuine and not a scam.

Initially, I was quite reluctant. But by consistently seeing people testify countless times of miracle jobs, miracle houses, debt cancellation, miracle promotions and all, I began to feel like I was missing out. Eventually, I summoned courage and sowed my first seed.

After sowing my first seed, I began to wait for a replica of the same testimonies I have heard to manifest in my life. But nothing happened. Although I got a little discouraged, the testimonies I heard kept encouraging me to try again. I tried sowing again and again, for about five more times. Still nothing happened.

So on a particular Sunday, the pastor had called for an opportunity to sow fifty thousand naira. He also added it was a special opportunity to sow. And that it would attract a huge harvest. Then he promised to be in faith for a huge harvest with everyone who took part in this special opportunity. At that time I had already gotten discouraged in the entire sowing thing. Hence, I deliberately refused to take part in that one.

But to my surprise, everyone who stepped out including someone who I knew personally testified about the huge harvest that they all got. I got very jealous and I began to pray for another special opportunity of that kind to happen again, at least for my sake. Fortunately for me, after hoping and wishing for about six months, an opportunity like that one finally came. But this time it was a special opportunity to sow one million naira. I didn't have that kind of money to spare.

Again it was an opportunity that I had been waiting for. I didn't want to miss out on it as well. So I sold the only land that I had for N1.7million. From there, I was able to give my one million naira seed.

And not so long after, other people who had also taken part began to give their testimonies. But in my case, one month passed, then three months, then nine months, one year, and then two years passed. Still no harvest showed up for me. Rather, things became so bad for me that I began to sell my personal belongings to feed. Things went from bad to worse so rapidly that I began to assume that the seed I had sowed was responsible for the hardship I was facing. I lost my job, my business crashed and nothing seemed to work for me anymore. I got really bitter and angry with that church. So I stopped attending that church. I also detested any church or preacher that told people to Give or Sow. I decided to focus solely on rebuilding my life. Still nothing worked.

Infact, things were so bad that I was struggling to survive. And it remained so for two more years.

Then one evening, I stumbled over a video of Urbert Angel where he told his story of when he had nothing and how he entered into wealth. In sharing his secret to his wealth, he said, “My wife and I gave our way out of poverty and lack, to abundance.....”. On hearing that, I didn't even wait to hear the complete sentence. I hissed and exited the video as fast as I could. As I did that, I muttered to myself, “They have come again. Scam!”

Well, I thought by exiting the video I had shut my heart to what he said. Little did I know that, just because I had heard him, faith had already kicked in on my inside. From that day, I kept having flashbacks to that video very often.

And everytime I have a flashback to that video, the only question that comes to my mind is, “Wait, how does one really give his way out of poverty to wealth? How possible can that be?” Most times, I tried to ignore the flashbacks as much as I could. I felt the flashbacks were coming as a result of my desperation to do well again.

Then two weeks later, I stumbled on another video where Kenneth Copeland had said exactly the same thing that Ubert Angel had said. This led to more flashbacks. I found it very frustrating because deep down, I had given up on anything that had to do with sowing or giving. I didn’t even want to think about it. But the phrase “We gave our way out of poverty” kept ringing through my mind uncontrollably. But I managed to ignore it until a particular Sunday where I couldn't ignore it anymore.

That day, I was completely out of money and food supplies. Out of frustration I began to cry out to God for help. But to my surprise, I observed that the more I cried out for help, the more that phrase “We gave our way out of poverty” kept racing through my mind. So out of anger, I screamed out, “Holy Spirit help me forget about this phrase please.... I am done with giving or sowing!...” Then almost immediately, an audible voice spoke to me.

To my surprise, it said to me, “You shouldn’t be done with sowing. Infact you should start now.”. I was startled. I got up to run out of the room. Then it said to me again, “I am your angel of Harvests. Do not be afraid. I am here to help you. Why have you kept me idle?”

Although I was still surprised, I was no longer afraid. Instead I suddenly felt very peaceful and loved. So I turned to the angel who was actually standing behind me. And I said to him, “So what do I do?”

He replied: “Start giving your way out of poverty.”

Me: “But it didn't work for me. In short, I feel that’s the reason for my suffering now.”

He replied: ”Now here’s the problem. You didn’t know how to sow. You could have. But, you hardly listen attentively when the preacher teaches about sowing or giving. Rather, you'd only pay attention to the testimonies shared. Your sowing was all inspired by jealousy and a selfish desire to show off your own miracle harvest. It doesn’t work that way. You want to see the results that come with sowing? Then you must first have a proper understanding of sowing. ”

“First, giving is not the source of wealth. The Lord Jesus has purchased that for you. But giving is a channel through which you increase steadily and come into your wealthy place. Through your giving, your wealth is channelled to you way more easily, faster and in a greater measure. So you should first of all, believe that prosperity and wealth are now yours. They have been purchased for you by the Lord Jesus’ death burial and resurrection. Believe it, take it in and be very conscious that prosperity and wealth is yours...

Luke 6:38 says Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye gave it shall be measured to you again”

“Secondly, be intentional about channeling this wealth to you . Make up your mind to give or sow your way to abundance. The same way you decide to pray and worship God with the understanding that you are embarking on a spiritual activity that attracts the miraculous. In that exact way, you should embark on giving or sowing to God as a spiritual activity believing that it attracts your wealth to you, as you do so. With the understanding that sowing is as an act of worship to God, give with your eyes fixed on God and not man”

“Thirdly, never see your seed as too small. See worship in your seed, regardless of the amount you are about to sow. Again no amount is too big or even big enough. It is God’s mercy that qualifies your seeds and sacrifices to be accepted. You shouldn’t SOW to impress God. He is already pleased and impressed with you because the blood of Jesus is speaking for you. When you sow, do so in faith and receive your already prepared harvest.”

“Fourthly, pray before you give. Then believe you have your harvests. Don’t see your harvest as a probability. Believe without doubt that your has been received. Then spend some time making declarations on harvests. Pray, give thanks and send the angels of harvest and the mighty supply to go forth and bring your harvests to you. Form a habit of making faith decrees on harvest everyday. ”

Then I replied: “Wow, but I have two questions. In giving, is it better to give to those in need rather than giving to the church, or ministry or minister?”

He replied: ”No one substitutes the other. If you honor God, you’d honor His vessel, His work, His temple and also minister love to those in need. It all depends on how the Holy Spirit of God leads you, and the opportunity presented before you at that given time.”

Then I said: “Must I give only to the church I attend or to my pastor only?”

He replied: “It is good to give to your church and pastor but you are not restricted to give to them only. The Holy Spirit would always lead once you make up your mind to start sowing.”

And then I asked in excitement: “I’m ready to give my way to prosperity. Please, how do I start?”

He replied: “Go to God in prayers. Tell Him you believe His word on sowing and harvest. Then ask Him for His help, wisdom, and direction.”

(NOW THE PLAN)

“In this case, start with a comfortable amount. Have a regular pattern of giving that you should be very confined to. You can have a daily, weekly or monthly, sow-ing pattern. Sowing is not a burden, so remember to trust God to provide the next seed even as you have faith for your harvest. For 2cor 9:10 says... Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness. ”

“If for any reason your sow-ing pattern is disrupted, Don't beat yourself. Don't you forget to pray sometimes? God will not be angry with you. However, it is more beneficial to you to stay consistent with your sow-ing pattern.

Watchout! God will increase you steadily. You'll be amazed how the amount you sow would increase in such a short time. Your harvest is plentiful. Set out to take them now. Glory to God.”

Having said all that, He slowly disappeared. Then I sprung to action immediately. I started by asking God for fifty naira to sow. I didn't even have a dime on me. And glory to God, I received financial favor that same evening from an old friend. She actually sent me a thousand naira. So, I sowed my fifty naira seed to a ministry that I pray with occasionally online. I sowed fifty naira every Sunday for about a month. Then it increased to two hundred naira, and then four hundred naira every Sunday. Now I Sow a million naira every two months. This should tell you that I was increasing steadily.

But there were also times where God led me to sow even after I had already sown my planned or scheduled seed. On those times, I obeyed without hesitation because I saw it as extra sow-ing. And truly I got extra harvest in different ways that led to even greater financial increase for me..

I must confess that I am not your angel of harvest. But from my experience, I can say that indeed... “harvest is real”. But you must have an understanding that it is a voluntary act of worship. Yes, God always rewards your good deeds. But in the case of sow-ing and harvesting, it is solely a spiritual exercise. It is not just a good deed. You need to set your heart to it, and then take it seriously rather than casually.

As a gift from me to you, I'd like to share an effective prayer that I say each time I am about to sow and also share with you my favorite song of harvest::

Prayer

In Jesus name, Lord, I thank you for providing this seed for me. Knowing and believing that you are my ever great reward. I fix my eyes and heart on you as I give and Sow this seed now.

I ask for and I receive a hundredfold harvest now. I receive financial harvests, harvests of my needs met, harvests of debt cleared, a harvest of my lost years redeemed

IN THE NAME OF THE LORD JESUS. Amen
