I suppose that she was my g (g-mother).

I am not able to read some of the first names as it is, ^{very} difficult ^{to read} (writing-german) (crock), my grand father ^{J.S.} had an unmarried sister Elizabeth who lived in his home & died there when I was a little girl ^{9 yrs.} which I can recall, as my parents & they lived in the same house.

My father Jacob G. was born Sept. 22 1851. & died Aug 1-1922. He was ordained deacon in 1905.

It had been supposed that the deaths in my grand father's ^{home} family were caused by poison on the inside of crocks that were not baked hard enough when made. That time they kept their milk, apple-butter pudding & other things in crocks. And of course medical skill was not what it is to day.
