Executive Director, Maryland Office of Tourism Development
Maryland Tourism Development Board Chairman’s Message

Dear Tourism Industry Partner:

Your work is work that is moving Maryland forward—and, as Chair of the Maryland Tourism Development Board, I want to thank you for the hard work you do every day to show off and promote all that is great about our State. You are a big part of the reason that we’re recovering faster and rebounding stronger than other States.

Why do I say that? Together, we’ve created 17,000 net leisure and hospitality jobs in Maryland between August 2009 and August 2010. Looking just at 2010—January through August—the number of tourism jobs in Maryland grew by 3.3 percent while the national leisure and tourism sector declined more than 6 percent.

Demand for Maryland lodging, a key indicator for our industry, is also outpacing national trends. Rooms sold increased 8.9 percent in the first eight months of 2010, ahead of the 7.4 percent growth in room demand across the nation, according to Smith Travel Research, a prominent research group used by the hotel industry.

And, in 2009, Maryland was one of only six states that saw an increase in visitation, welcoming more than 29 million. That represents one million additional visitors than in 2008. I am sure many of you sold them attraction tickets, hotel nights, sightseeing tours, souvenirs and—in my case—hopefully a great meal or liquid refreshment!

I am proud of this board’s continuing work with the Office of Tourism, and am pleased to present the Fiscal Year 2011 Tourism Marketing and Development Plan. The objectives and strategies of this plan are designed to enhance tourism’s positive economic impact.

To comply with the accountability-related goals of Governor O’Malley’s administration, the Office of Tourism Development aligns this marketing plan to performance-based success measurements. Such standards provide both our board and the Office of Tourism Development with the tools to better quantify marketing successes, while providing a road map for attaining higher returns on future marketing efforts. Once again, even with lower dollars to market, OTD outperformed the prior year in visitors to the tourism website (up 19 percent to 1.77 million). Public relations efforts generated more than $12 million in advertising value for Maryland tourism products and services, more than double the previous year.

It is the power of partnerships that help drive the industry forward. Please take the time to review the Partner Marketing and Advertising Opportunities at the back of the plan. These programs are available to all tourism businesses in the State that can benefit from reduced marketing costs and great consumer exposure.

I know I speak for the board when I say we look forward to working with you, our tourism industry partners, to increase tourism expenditures, tax revenues and employment.

Sincerely,

Greg Shockley, Chairman

TRAVEL INDUSTRY TRENDS

The worst recession since the 1930s ended more than a year ago (June 2009), according to the National Bureau of Economic Research, but many consumers aren’t behaving like this is true. Frugality is seemingly being embraced by consumers at all income levels.

Despite ongoing economic challenges, travel continues its comeback. According to the Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA), spending on travel and tourism grew 3 percent during the second quarter of 2010, exceeding rather significantly the 1.7 percent growth in the overall economy. However, travel and tourism spending remains far below its pre-recession peak.

A May 2010 American Express survey of 2,000 U.S. adults found more than half (51 percent) planning a summer vacation. While family trips were reported by 52 percent, a variety of other vacation types were being planned, including couples trips (26 percent); trips with friends such as “girlfriend getaways” and “mancations” (10 percent); “staycations”—intending to enjoy time off and attractions near home (11 percent); experiential or adventure vacations such as a culinary retreat or hiking trip (7 percent); and educational vacations (4 percent).

Similarly, a May 2010 Harris Poll found that 66 percent of Americans planned to take a summer vacation in 2010, similar to the 65 percent who expected to do so in 2009. Additionally, 19 percent planned to take at least one business trip during summer 2010, a slight reduction from 23 percent in 2009.

Fewer respondents were planning to cut back on the number of trips, length of the trip and expenditures. Still, many travelers reported that current economic conditions continued to alter how they travel, and many are still looking to economize in their travel spending.

Travelers are opting for less expensive activities—museums, county fairs and national parks have all reported increased attendance. There have also been reports of increases in camping and less expensive recreational activities—and visits to State and local parks have been up significantly nationwide.

U.S. travelers continue to look for deals, and YPartnership travelhorizons research has suggested that incentives and discounts have to be deep in order to influence decisions about destinations and travel service suppliers. Fifty-dollar gas and gift cards seem to be popular among all generations and income groups, but $25 is not enough. Complimentary breakfast, upgrades and 2-for-1 dining specials are also generally well-received by potential travelers. Maryland travel destinations and suppliers will need to offer similar incentives to maintain market share.

Nationwide economic rebounds are expected in 2010. The U.S. Travel Association projects a 3 percent growth in person-trips in 2010 and the first simultaneous growth in both leisure and business travel sectors in the last 5 years. Travel price indexes are also projected to recover after falling 6 percent in 2009, more than twenty times the rate of decline for overall consumer prices.

Additionally, the U.S. Travel Promotion Act was passed in early 2010 to promote the United States as a premier international destination. According to the U.S. Travel Association, worrisome evidence suggests that the U.S. is losing ground to other countries in the global travel market. Failure to keep pace with the growth in international long-haul travel since 2000 has cost the U.S. economy an estimated $509 billion in total spending and $32 billion direct tax receipts.

Maryland was one of only six states that saw an increase in tourism in 2009.

MARYLAND VISITOR STATISTICS

Despite most U.S. destinations reporting flat or declining domestic leisure visitation in 2009, Maryland recorded almost one million more travelers to the State than in 2008. Maryland’s market share has increased more than 15 percent since 2007.

For calendar year 2009, D.K. Shifflet & Associates reports that Maryland hosted an estimated 29 million domestic visitors, up 3.5 percent from 2008 compared to a 5 percent decline in domestic person-trips in the United States.

Seventy-six (76) percent, or 22.07 million, were leisure visitors, and the remaining 24 percent, or 7 million, were business travelers. More than 50 percent of trips (nearly 15 million) were day-trips, while 49 percent (more than 14 million) were overnight.

Trends and Comparisons

National domestic travel volume declined from 2008. Specifically, total domestic U.S. visitor volume, as measured in person-trips, fell more than 5 percent from 2008 to 2009. Leisure travel represented more than 77 percent of all person-trips, two points more than the previous year because of the decline in business trips, with overnight and day-trips evenly split at 50 percent each.

Maryland outperformed both the national and regional trends, with the largest percent growth in Maryland’s leisure segment, resulting in net gains in both day and overnight visits in the State.
Maryland’s surrounding States saw declines from 2008. Delaware saw dramatic declines in leisure and overnight visits, while business and day-trip sectors were hit harder in Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia.

Maryland Visitor Profile Trends

Top Ten Tourism Activities

The top ten tourism activities in Maryland are similar to the U.S. overall, with dining, shopping, entertainment and sightseeing ranked in the top four. Beach/waterfront ranks fifth in Maryland (seventh nationally), while group tour and attend sports event rank higher in Maryland than in the U.S.

Maryland and Top Two Destinations

The top two destinations visited in Maryland are Baltimore and Ocean City.

The chart below details number of visitors, average travel party size, trip length, spending per trip and top feeder markets for those two destinations and for Maryland overall.

Maryland Visitor Spending

Spending by Maryland travelers increased in all travel categories from 2007 to 2008 (the last full year that data is available). Overall travel expenditures in Maryland increased 3 percent from 2007 to 2008, from $14 billion (updated) to $14.5 billion.
LODGING SECTOR TRENDS

The lodging sector is an important barometer of the health of the Maryland tourism industry. The Office of Tourism contracts with Smith Travel Research (STR), a leading lodging industry research firm, to provide monthly and annual lodging data for the State of Maryland and its counties. This data provides a level of detail that allows for nearly complete coverage of the State.

The following lodging measurements are detailed below:

1) Room Demand—reflects the percentage change in the number of rooms sold

2) Room Supply—reflects the percentage change in the number of rooms available

3) Room Rates—reflects the average cost per room

4) Room Revenue—reflects the percentage change in the amount of revenue collected

5) Occupancy Percent—reflects the percentage of rooms occupied

Calendar Year 2009 Analysis

Demand for Maryland's hotel rooms grew 1.1 percent, outperforming both the region and the nation, which both posted declines of 0.7 percent and 5.8 percent, respectively. Maryland's room supply grew by 5.3 percent from 2008; Maryland's room supply grew almost two-thirds more than the national growth and 25 percent more than the regional growth.

Average room rates for the State as a whole declined 5.5 percent to $111.55, while the average U.S. room rate declined 8.8 percent to $97.52 and the regional room rate declined 5 percent to $115.12 in 2009. Room revenues, which are tied to room demand and room rates, declined 4.5 percent from 2008. Still, this drop in Maryland's room revenue change was better than both the nation and the region, which saw losses of 14.1 percent and 5.6 percent, respectively.

The following table details the five metrics for the U.S., Maryland, Maryland's counties (when available) and regions.

First Half 2010 Analysis

Unlike most visitor data, the STR lodging data is available on almost a real-time basis. This is extremely helpful for tracking trends so that we can make appropriate recommendations and adjustments.

Lodging room demand Statewide was up 8.7 percent year-to-date, compared to the same 6-month period in 2009. Maryland’s demand outperformed the nation and the region. The number of rooms available (room supply) grew by 4.1 percent, reflecting a continued increase in the building or expansion of new rooms across the State. Room supply grew at a 6.0 percent faster pace than the nation, with the highest percentage of room additions in St. Mary’s, Allegany and Charles counties.

Average room rates for Maryland as a whole fell 4 percent to $108.03, with prices in Maryland during this period falling more than the nation and region. Room revenues, however, are rebounding, up 4.3 percent compared to the same 6-month period in 2009 due to the increase in demand.

Occupancy rates, which reflect changes in supply and demand for rooms, averaged 59 percent, a growth of 4.3 points from the 2009 6-month period, compared to 4.4 percent growth for the U.S. and 2.1 percent growth for the region.

PRODUCT ANALYSIS AND ACCESS

From the family-friendly seaside resort of Ocean City to the majestic mountains in Western Maryland to exciting and cultural downtowns and historic small towns, Maryland offers visitors and residents a range of vacation experiences. In addition, Maryland’s mid-Atlantic location and agreeable climate offer visitors the best of all four seasons and a host of year-round outdoor activities.

Access

Five interstate highways and several improved national highways provide easy access within a 400-mile radius. There is excellent rail service from major cities throughout the Northeast corridor and points north and south. Baltimore/Washington Thurgood Marshall International Airport (BWI) and three regional airports provide outstanding air service. Additionally, many Maryland destinations are accessible by boat.

TRAVEL DECISION MAKER/TARGET AUDIENCE DEFINITION

Historically, women are the travel decision makers—if not the final decision makers—they generally determine which destinations are in the consideration set. Maryland’s media buys are targeted to adults 25-64 but with a strong skew to women; household income (HHI) $75K+; well-educated; and working in managerial and professional occupations. They have made a trip of more than one day’s duration within the United States in the past 12 months, which includes business, vacation, weekend travel and short trips.

The average travel party size to Maryland is two people. Less than one-fifth of trips are taken with children in tow. The media purchased for the spring/summer 2010 campaign targeted women both with and without children in order to reach a wider pool of prospective travelers.

This audience is further defined by special interest in Maryland’s travel products, which may include but is not limited to the Civil War and the Underground Railroad; Maryland and America’s byways; other cultural heritage programs; outdoor recreation and sporting events; and multicultural sites/events. Marketing efforts targeting multicultural audiences comprise 13 percent of all advertising, development, and sales and marketing activities.

Another important component of Maryland’s target audience is the travel trade. This audience includes group travel leaders, meeting planners, tour operators, travel agents and sporting event managers. Generally, these are not mass-media audiences but are targeted through domestic and international sales programs.

Primary Feeder Markets

Marylanders have historically represented the largest number of Maryland tourists. In 2009, for instance, 34 percent of all travelers to Maryland were from within the State, compared to 19 percent from Virginia and 15 percent from Pennsylvania.

Therefore, given budget constraints and the cost-prohibitive nature of the New Jersey-New York media markets, recent broadcast media purchases have focused on the Washington, DC, market (which represented 30 percent of travelers to Maryland in 2009); Baltimore (which represented 20 percent) and Philadelphia (which represented 9 percent). Outdoor billboards and bus shelters ran in May and June in Philadelphia and Washington, DC. Internet and print media still target the broader 400-mile geography.

Secondary Feeder Markets

However, distant secondary markets, including Toronto and Montreal in Canada, the European markets of England, Germany, France, the Benelux region and selected markets in Latin America, offer tremendous growth opportunities and a higher-per-capita expenditure because of the increased length of stay. Therefore, OTD will continue to concentrate on building this increasingly important visitor base through sales programs and promotions, often in conjunction with Capital Region USA (CRUSA), Maryland’s collaborative marketing effort with Washington, DC, and Virginia. In addition, the meetings and incentive industry’s spotlight will shine on Baltimore and Maryland as the city hosts the inaugural AIBTM—The Americas Meetings & Events Exhibition and America Meetings Week, June 19–24, 2011. This event will bring 3,000 domestic and international meeting and incentive professionals to the State, many for the first time.
Maryland Byways Marketing Research

The Office of Tourism has a strong partnership with the State Highway Administration’s (SHA) Maryland Scenic Byways program. Joint initiatives have included the production of byways maps and guides, advertising campaigns, welcome center exhibits and international marketing.

Recognizing the State and federal investment in the development and marketing of byways, OTD and SHA commissioned extensive consumer research on byways travel users to guide future byways development and marketing.

Phase I of the research project was quantitative, utilizing an online survey in seven key feeder markets. 1,039 travelers 18 years of age or older were queried about their interests and perceptions of general travel, travel to Maryland specifically and travel on Maryland byways.

The findings confirmed that regional residents have a positive and consistent image of Maryland and Maryland byways products and delivery. A specific travel segment—the “touring” trip—was recognized as a valuable market to target, because these travelers spend more and participate in more activities during their trips.

Additional insight about the touring group includes—

» Touring visitors spend more per total trip, take longer trips and travel with more people than overall Maryland travelers.

» Touring travelers are more likely to stay in paid accommodations than the general overnight traveler.

» Upwards of 80 percent of the overnight touring market originates out-of-state.

» Touring travelers report much higher participation rates in tourism activities across the board—with an especially higher rate of visiting historic landmarks and museums, fine dining, visiting national and State parks, visiting the beach/waterfront, visiting art galleries, swimming and boating/sailing.

» Touring travelers skew more heavily male—55 percent versus 47 percent of general overnight visitors.

This byways user profile will be extremely helpful in the media planning and outreach for the upcoming commemorations of the Civil War, Harriet Tubman and the War of 1812.

Phase II of the research project was qualitative, utilizing focus groups in five key feeder markets. Potential byways travelers were probed on how they research travel, trip planning and trip logistics. Participants identified marketing material preferences including the most attractive sizes, aesthetics and content for byways guides.

The input from these focus groups will guide the development of new byways collateral materials—both printed and online—as well as an integrated marketing campaign promoting byways and the authentic experiences available as you travel.

COMPETITIVE ANALYSIS

Competition for the consumer’s discretionary dollar is fierce. There are many other items consumers can choose to purchase besides travel, and other marketers are outspending us.

The U.S. Travel Association reported that in 2010, tourism in the United States will generate nearly $750 billion in visitor spending, 5 percent more than in 2009. In the race for consumer travel dollars, states spent nearly $738 million in domestic advertising and sales promotion to encourage travelers to choose their particular destination.

Maryland’s closest regional competitors—West Virginia, Virginia and Pennsylvania—had budgets of $18.1 million, $14.7 million and $11.2 million, respectively, for state tourism office funding and tourism marketing grant programs in FY 2010. Maryland’s FY 2010 budget was $7.9 million. Adjusted for inflation, FY 2010’s appropriated dollar amount had 50 percent less buying power for marketing Maryland’s tourism assets than the FY 2000 appropriation.

The competition for tourism, convention and investment dollars is relentless. This competitive marketplace means that OTD has to work more creatively to continue to build upon its recent successes in generating interest in Maryland as a destination. OTD will need to continue to track performance measurements and adjust marketing strategies accordingly in order to achieve our mission of increasing visitor spending.
Objectives and Strategies by Marketing Program

MARYLAND DEVELOPMENT BOARD

The mission of the Maryland Tourism Development Board (MTDB) is to provide Statewide leadership in policy development, management and competitiveness to ensure that Maryland enjoys greater economic benefits from travel and tourism spending.

OBJECTIVES:

Ensure future growth and stability of Statewide tourism development through the management of the MTDB Strategic Plan and Marketing/Development Plan.

KEY STRATEGIES FOR FY 2011:

Continue to implement the FY 2010–2015 5-Year Strategic Plan, including the following strategies and tactics:

Continue efforts to ensure long-range funding stability for both the Office of Tourism and the Maryland Tourism Development Board.

Develop public/private partnerships to supplement General Funds appropriated to OTD and the MTDB funds.

Ensure grant guidelines annually align with evolving marketing priorities and promote the Maryland brand.

Develop a comprehensive industry-wide communications plan to educate the public and public officials about the value of the tourism industry and its impact on the quality of life for all citizens of the State. Support the formation of a grass roots industry advocacy campaign promoting the value and importance of industry-generated employment.
OFFICE OF TOURISM DEVELOPMENT

Administrative/Management

The goal of the Administrative/Management team is to provide the necessary organizational supervision and direction to ensure that the resources of staff, time and budget are properly deployed to produce measurable results in accordance with the department’s core mission.

OBJECTIVES:

Manage and monitor the OTD staff, prioritizing and balancing the workload in order to maximize efficiency and effectiveness. Ensure that sufficient staff is deployed to accomplish the mission and the recommendations of the DBED FY 2011 Action Plan.

Provide and maintain an internal work environment that is efficient, effective and responsive to the mission.

Establish and maintain relationships with other agencies, tourism industry associations, organizations and institutions to ensure that Maryland’s tourism development activities are best-in-class, as well as delivering the highest return on investment.

Foster interagency cooperation between local, State and national agencies.
COMMUNICATIONS AND MARKETING SERVICES

Domestic Advertising — Media and Production

The goal of the Domestic Communications and Marketing program is to raise the awareness of and interest in Maryland as a travel destination. Given limited resources, OTD must focus the State’s marketing efforts on those consumers, time periods and markets that will reap the highest return on investment.

Marketing efforts have historically been measured by conversion studies, which are based on lead generation from telephone inquiries, reader service labels and website requests. Given that the Internet is now the chief source of travel information, many consumers are no longer requesting travel information. Other means to measure OTD’s advertising effectiveness must be researched and implemented.

OBJECTIVES:

Focus communication efforts on Maryland’s most compelling tourism messages, as determined by recent consumer research (both quantitative and qualitative).

Target the highest-value prospects, based upon consumer research and economic conditions.

KEY STRATEGIES FOR FY 2011:

Continue to leverage the State’s marketing dollars by offering strategic advertising cooperative programs. Launch county co-op advertising program utilizing the new research-driven “Maryland of ________” thematic creative.

Continue to maintain a Maryland marketing presence year-round, including annual online search efforts and “Maryland Minute” radio sponsorships in Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington, DC.

Test running ads on Facebook, given importance of social media to core audience.

“I just sat down to lunch to read Maryland Life Magazine. Loved the inside cover advertisement for visitmaryland.org. I have never seen your website, but my fiancé is in marketing and I am an English teacher, so I spend a lot of time looking at the messages in advertising.

I love the roulette wheel theme of your current advertising campaign. It was cool to see the historical photo in the advertisement, and the text was convincing.

When I went on the website to look for the marketing information, I saw how the wheel spins—WONDER and St. Michael’s lighthouse is nice, too.

Good job.

Natalie Evans, Sykesville Resident”
COMMUNICATIONS AND MARKETING SERVICES

Public Relations

The Public Relations team works to secure third-party editorial coverage of the State as a travel destination. This work is accomplished through outreach to and servicing the needs of respected travel editorial professionals in print and electronic media.

The third-party endorsement of Maryland as a travel destination is a compelling motivator for consumers planning their leisure and business activities. Increased coverage of Maryland as a destination correlates to increased visitation and more tourism-related revenue to the State.

OBJECTIVES:

Secure "Destination Maryland" media placements that have a value of at least $15 million.

Continue to promote the significant impact that the tourism industry has on the economic health of Maryland, and position the division’s leadership as subject matter experts for the media.

KEY STRATEGIES FOR FY 2011:

Continue to highlight timely and thematic tourism activities through the “Maryland Spotlight” program.

Utilize public relations counsel to expand local, regional and national publicity efforts.

Target both in-state media outlets and travel editorial professionals in Maryland’s primary and secondary feeder markets through public relations campaigns, press outreach, familiarization tours and missions.

Craft and launch a communications platform for the FY 2011-2015 commemorations period, and provide promotional support for upcoming commemorations activities.

Continue to work with CRUSA’s international representatives and public relations firms, with a particular focus on promoting Maryland’s Scenic Byways.

“Dear Liz,

I want to take this moment to thank you and everyone who was involved in the “Buy Local” press trip on July 15 and 16. I appreciate being included among the writers invited and know there will be at least two articles realized as a result of my participation.

I especially want to compliment Connie Yingling and Camila Clark for all their efforts. I’ve had the pleasure of being “taken care of” by these delightful professionals in the past and know how much they give of their time and energy. Your office should consider them Maryland treasures …

Best regards,

Margaret Horton Edsall”

KEY STRATEGIES FOR FY 2011:

Launch new “Visit Maryland” custom database of tourism assets and new “MDTrips” CRM application based upon Database Work Group’s recommendations for website/publications, Welcome Centers and Fulfillment/Call Center.

Coordinate with other State agencies and industry stakeholders on the development of Phase II of the VisitMaryland Interactive Map.
WAR OF 1812 BICENTENNIAL COMMISSION

A Maryland War of 1812 Bicentennial Commission was established by Executive Order in September 2007, with the mission to stimulate and coordinate investment in the commemoration of the bicentennial of the War of 1812 for maximum benefit to Marylanders.

The Commission is staffed by members of the Division of Tourism, Film and the Arts and is an important partner of the Tourism Development unit in developing and marketing this exciting opportunity to elevate Maryland globally as a premier location to live, work and visit, and to increase economic opportunities for Marylanders.

Promote Maryland’s new standard license plates featuring a bicentennial theme that directs consumers to www.StarSpangled200.org.

Promote the issuance of the $5 gold and $1 silver commemorative coins in early 2012 by the U.S. Mint. Proceeds from the coin sales will help fund Commemoration activities.

Conclude the sixth and final Star-Spangled 200 Conference, working to ensure Statewide collaboration in upcoming bicentennial activities.

Work with MSDE to develop field trip itineraries to encourage teachers and students to have a “Star-Spangled” experience outside the classroom. OTD’s sales team can also use itineraries in their efforts to attract out-of-state field trips.
TOURISM DEVELOPMENT

Sustainable Tourism

Responding to consumer demand, many segments of the hospitality and tourism industry in Maryland (e.g., lodging, food service, attractions, etc.) already encourage and have adopted green and sustainable practices. The Maryland Office of Tourism, in partnership with sister State agencies, industry associations and environmental leaders, developed the Maryland Green Travel program to recognize and encourage eco-friendly practices.

OBJECTIVES:

Improve the perception and reality of Maryland as a green destination.

Recognize, promote and expand green and sustainable practices in Maryland’s tourism industry.

Reduce environmental impacts from tourism operations.

KEY STRATEGIES FOR FY 2011:

Continue to collaborate with industry partners and environmental leaders in the development and execution of Maryland Green Travel.

Redesign the hotel application, as well as roll out the program to restaurants, attractions, visitor centers, marinas and campgrounds.

Promote participating facilities on the tourism website/publications. Develop a special section on the tourism website to highlight members of Maryland Green Travel.

Continue to collaborate with the Maryland Department of the Environment and the Maryland Department of Natural Resources to align the Office of Tourism’s Green Travel program with other Governor’s Smart, Green and Growing initiatives—such as the Maryland Green Registry and the Clean Marina program. Offer certified Clean Marina facilities a free listing on the VisitMaryland website, and recognize them as Green Travel Partners.

Launch a comprehensive and sustained outreach to public and private sector partners to ensure Statewide participation in the self-certification program, as well as the promotion of Maryland Green Travel initiatives. Take the Maryland Green Travel “Help Desk” on the road to local tourism meetings as well as offer training via conference calls or webinars.

Add a data layer to the Visit Maryland Interactive Map that highlights certified facilities.
TOURISM DEVELOPMENT
County Cooperative Grant Program

The Tourism Development team is responsible for the management of the County Cooperative Grant Program, working under the direction of the Maryland Tourism Development Board and the Department of Business & Economic Development.

OBJECTIVES:

Support financially those political subdivisions that have presented viable marketing plans consistent with the State’s annual tourism marketing plan.

Support financially those political subdivisions that have increased tourism tax revenues from the Comptroller-determined Tourism Tax Codes (an Office of Tourism performance metric).

Ensure grant guidelines align with evolving marketing priorities and promote Maryland’s core brand attributes.

KEY STRATEGIES FOR FY 2011:

Measure effectiveness of program—leveraging of funds; increases in county performance metrics (taxes/advertising inquiries/hotel rooms sold, etc.). Work with DMO committee to develop new co-operative programs to attract visitors to Maryland.
TOURISM DEVELOPMENT

Customer Contact Program

Welcome Centers and the Maryland Call Center provide comprehensive and high-quality information and services to individuals and groups who inquire about the State's tourism assets, educating these prospective visitors about Maryland's quality attractions, accommodations and services, and generating additional economic impact for the region and the State.

OBJECTIVES:

Utilize the Welcome Centers as “out-of-home” media outlets—promoting marketing initiatives on an ongoing basis, particularly the Monthly Spotlights and upcoming Commemorations.

Manage and monitor all aspects of facility operations related to Welcome Centers, and ensure that the State’s investment in this program is deployed efficiently.

Manage and administer the new in-house Maryland Call Center.

KEY STRATEGIES FOR FY 2011:

Manage, supervise, and train staff and volunteers at four Welcome Centers—1-95 North, 1-95 South, 1-70 East and 1-70 West.

Manage, supervise and train staff for the new in-house Maryland Call Center.

Finalize the design and installation of exterior exhibits and kiosks for the reconstructed 1-70 Welcome Center. Exhibits and kiosks are scheduled for installation in early December 2010. These exhibits and kiosks will impact Rest Area visitors who may not take the time to enter the Welcome Center.

Design and fabricate marketing exhibits that promote upcoming Commemorations and the Scenic Byways that link these experiences.

Review and recommend partnership and advertising opportunities at the four Welcome Centers—both individually and as a whole.

Track and collect Welcome Center and Rest Area data which includes, but is not limited to, bathroom door counts, Welcome Center visitor counts, motorcoach usage, hotel reservation revenue, staff outreach and marketing promotions. Develop a simple “monitor” of this activity and its impact on the community.

Cross-train Call Center staff to assist with social media outreach.

Launch annual customer service training, including a Maryland tourism track, for county and local visitor information centers and call center staff.
TRAVEL TRADE SALES

Domestic and International Sales

Travel Trade Sales promotes Maryland’s travel products to domestic and international trade and consumer markets, predominantly through trade association partnerships, marketplace participation and sales missions. The target markets are often third-party sales channels—and include AAA Clubs, tour operators and travel planners, group leaders and reunion planners, meeting planners and incentive travel planners, receptive tour operators, retail travel agents, student travel providers, travel wholesalers, consumers and other travel planners.

OBJECTIVES:

Expand and strengthen marketing alliances with Maryland’s private sector business partners and local tourism offices. Coordinate marketing partners, maximizing sales of Maryland destinations to potential clients through sales promotions and lead distribution.

Market Maryland’s travel and tour products directly to a variety of third-party distribution channels through trade shows, sales missions and marketplaces.

Leverage funds $7 to $1 by partnering with Virginia, Washington, DC, and the Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority to promote Maryland and Capital Region USA (CRUSA) to overseas travelers.

KEY STRATEGIES FOR FY 2011:

Coordinate the efforts to maximize Baltimore’s successful bid for AIBTM—The Americas Meetings & Events Exhibition and America Meetings Week, June 19–24, 2011. This event will bring 3,000 domestic and international meeting and incentive professionals to the State, many for the first time. Work with the Maryland Association of Destination Marketing Organizations and the private sector on the Maryland Pavilion tradeshow opportunity.

Encourage and support regional marketing initiatives and familiarization (FAM) tours developed by Maryland’s tourism partners. Coordinate a FAM tour for large volume tour operators that highlights Star-Spangled Banner Bicentennial products.

Coordinate marketing partners’ sales efforts to meeting and sporting events planners through the management of a strategically focused tradeshow cooperative booth program. Leverage OTD staff and financial resources with county and private sector partners.

Arrange for Maryland partners to have direct contact with clients through sales “blitz” promotions, including Maryland on the Road Enterprises (MORE), and Mini-MORE.

Participate in the International PowWow Marketplace, targeting international trade and press in our primary target markets of the United Kingdom, Germany and Canada, and the secondary markets of France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Mexico and Brazil.

Survey county and private sector partners regarding a more robust Canadian sales effort, given Canadian ties to upcoming Civil War, Harriet Tubman and War of 1812 commemorations.
The Research Unit provides quantitative and qualitative research analysis to support OTD’s mission of continued economic growth from the tourism industry, as well as broader programming support to DBED.

OBJECTIVES:

Provide benchmarks of the importance of the tourism, travel, leisure, hospitality and recreation industries to Maryland’s economy.

Track and analyze Maryland and U.S. visitor volume, trip trends and visitor profiles.

Assess the performance of Maryland’s tourism-related industries in order to benchmark Maryland against other states and the nation as a whole.

Track performance and measure the effectiveness of the Maryland Office of Tourism programs to ensure the highest return on the State’s investment.

Assist tourism industry partners and agencies on collaborative tourism research projects.

KEY STRATEGIES FOR FY 2011:

Continue in partnership with the Destination Marketing Organizations to commission an economic impact study that will provide comprehensive data on the impact of Maryland tourism in terms of expenditures, jobs, payroll and tax revenue.

Utilize data from other sources such as Smith Travel Research, the Comptroller’s office and national travel trend sources to benchmark Maryland’s tourism economy’s performance. Continue to track the performance of tourism tax revenue by county as determined by the Tourism Promotion Act of 2008.

Track, analyze and report key tourism performance indicators via the Monthly Tourism Monitor, the monthly Governor’s StateStat report, the Department of Budget and Management’s Managing for Results program and other reporting mechanisms as needed.

Provide ongoing research support to OTD staff, stakeholders and State agencies. In FY 2011, this includes project management and technical assistance for the 2010 Maryland State Park Visitor Survey.

Use visitor profile data to determine OTD’s markets, trip trends and most valuable prospects. Develop a target audience profile for byways and commemoration travelers.

Refine methods for understanding the economic impact of Welcome Centers.

Complete best practices research on workforce development activities.

Monitor research conducted for the Capital Region USA (CRUSA).
