

---

THE YOUNGEST

---

||

---

Material

---

- Game Slides

How to Play

Young people are amazing! In our history young people have done some incredible things. Here is a simple power point game where students will learn about some young people to be the first at what they do. Students will try to guess the correct age of the people who fit their questions.

Pro Tip:

Get small dry erase boards and have students write their number for each questions on them. These are good to have for many games.