Seize Summer's End at These Great Labor Day Celebrations

Say "See ya" to summer in style with amazing Labor Day events across the Old Line State. Make one more trip to the beach for Maryland Week in O.C. Party like it's 1599 during opening weekend of the Maryland Renaissance Festival. And don't miss the 140th Maryland State Fair in Timonium. Get more details on these and other amazing Maryland Labor Day traditions at visitmaryland.org.

Breathe in the Bay with These Iconic Chesapeake Traditions

Explore the length and breadth of the Chesapeake, America's mid-Atlantic jewel, on the Great Chesapeake Bay Loop. Thrill to the site of elegant, white-hulled skipjacks racing for the title of "fastest in the fleet" during the Deal Island Skipjack Races. Cheer for the speediest (and most delicious) crustaceans at Crisfield's annual Hard Crab Derby. And fill your belly with the Bay's best at the Maryland Seafood Festival at Sandy Point State Park in Annapolis. These Chesapeake traditions are simply not to be missed.

Maryland's Summer of Music Soars Toward Its Crescendo

The epic sounds of summer continue with the Monty Alexander Jazz Festival in Easton, the Chestertown Jazz Festival, Stanstock Music Festival in Essex, Crow Vineyards' always amazing CrowFest, and the dazzling melding of art and music at the Madonnari Arts Festival in Baltimore's Little Italy neighborhood. Find out all of the details on our Summer of Music home page.

Make Your Travel Plans Now for Maryland Fleet Week & Air Show Baltimore

Get ready for the remarkable sight of U.S. Navy grey hulls filling the waters of Baltimore Harbor, and the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds tearing through the skies above as Maryland Fleet Week & Air Show Baltimore— Charm City's favorite new tradition— returns for its biennial bash. Make your plans now, as Fleet Week is a great
