

INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON FRACKING

Perspectives from Europe and Australia

Dr. Tina Hunter
Director, the Aberdeen University Centre for Energy Law.
Expert, Energy and Petroleum Law, regulation of shale gas activities and fracking Author, Assessment of fracking regulation in Western Australia

Perspectives from Canada and the United States

Dr. Alexandra Harrington
Lead Counsel, Centre for International Sustainable Development Law
Consultant, Commission for Environmental Cooperation of the North American Agreement on Environmental Cooperation, and for the United Nations Environment Programme Member, International Law Association Committee on the Role of International Law in Sustainable Natural Resources Management for Development

Perspectives from China

Prof. Paolo Farah
West Virginia University, John D. Rockefeller IV School of Policy and Politics and College of Law, Center for Innovation in Gas Research and Utilization (CIGRU) and Institute of Water Security and Science (IWSS), USA
gLAWcal - Global Law Initiatives for Sustainable Development, United Kingdom

Colombian Perspectives

Eng. Edward Tovar Artunduaga
Manager, Non-Conventional Reservoir Projects, Ecopetrol

Carolina Urrutia
Director, Semana Sostenible

Dr. Germán Andrade
Expert, Environmental Science Policy and member of the International Union for the Conservation of Nature and of the Intergovernmental Platform on Biodiversity and Ecosystemic Services
Professor, School of Management at Los Andes University

Dr. Bart van Hoof
Expert, Industrial Engineering
Director, Sustainable Companies Programme and Sustainable Agro-Business Model Former Director, Environmental Performance at Ecopetrol
Professor, School of Management at Los Andes University

Moderators

Jose Zapata
Partner, Holland & Knight, practicing in areas such as environmental rights, energy law and natural resources in Colombia for over 20 years

María del Pilar Vanegas de Guzmán
President, International Law Association of Colombia
Member, International Law Association Committee on the Role of International Law in Sustainable Natural Resources Management for Development
Accredited by the Federation of Law Societies of Canada

With the support of:

