

Hello to All the lovely members of AuSLove Family.

It has been a long time since I emailed you guys. I hope all of you guys are doing great. If not, things will get better and time will heal everything. Stay strong as always. Keep your chin up. All the love, empathy, kindness will keep the world going. No hate, no regrets, just love.

Things have been up and down for me. I haven't been consistent with the streaming. My reason to stream is to make everyone happy in my stream, to spend time together with likeminded people like you guys. I have tried to do things right but I haven't been able to focus because of a lot of personal stuff. Never thought things would take this much toll on me at this stage. One thing I have to mention is that family should always be the priority. If you have any, visit them sometimes or call them once in a while and tell them you love them.

Recent event: I underwent transPRK eye surgery which takes a couple of weeks to months to heal. Due to that I took a couple of days off but I am planning to stick with my regular stream schedule regardless from Tuesday. [It's blurry but I can still make the things out on the screen by zooming in so it should be fine hopefully.]
