Court finds that petitioners are not entitled to the issuance of an injunctive writ because they have no right to the property on which their structures stand," the court said.

Mayor Domogan earlier said the city will pursue the demolition as soon as the legal issues have been settled.

"We will wait for the right time to implement the demolition order. The law has to take its course," the mayor said.

The city had set the demolition of 58 illegal structures from August 11-14 last year after the occupants refused to voluntarily vacate the area on claims that they are members of the marginalized sector and have been occupying the BIBAK compound since 1982 and thus are qualified to stay in the area or be granted relocation privileges under R. A. 7279 or the Urban Dev. and Housing Act of 1992.

The city said the area was segregated from OCT No. 01 in favor of the BIBAK Dormitories Inc. in 1961 and thus "was slated to cater to the housing needs of the students coming from the BIBAK areas."

The city also maintained that the present occupants are private individuals who entered the property without permission and are now utilizing the area for profit. Their structures were also not covered by ouilding permits.

The city's bid to clear the lot measuring about 5,000 sq. m. was supported by the former leaders of the BIBAK Student Dormitories Inc., the Reg. Dev. Council and the DENR-CAR./A. P. Refuerzo

Wrong votes? Comelec to PCSO urged to bring back financial 'note' receipt objections

or the first time, Comelec as a compromise. Commissioner Christian Lim explains the changes in the voting process after the SC seconds ordered the printing of voting

MANILA, Philippines - What if the voting receipt doesn't reflect a voter's actual choices on election day?

Yes, a voter can air his objections. But no, the Board of Election Inspectors (BEI) cannot resolve his protest on the spot.

Commission on Elections (Comelec) Commissioner Christian Lim clarified these rules on Friday, April 1, in an exclusive Facebook Live interview with GMA News.

Lim. the Comelec's steering committee head for the 2016 elections, said the chairman of the Board of Election Inspectors (BEI) can only "note" objections for future election protests.

"Hanggang doon na lang. Ino-note sa minutes na he's objecting sa receipt (That will be it. They will note in the minutes that he's objecting to the receipt)," Lim said. Election officials, after all, have repeatedly explained that complaints by individual voters with or without receipts - aren't meant to be resolved on the spot. Instead, election inspectors have consistently been tasked to note these for future election protests.

For the first time, Lim on Friday explained the changes in the voting process after the SC ordered the Comelec to issue voting receipts.

The Comelec is supposed to detail this process in its general instructions for BEIs. The poll body is yet to release this document to the public. Displaying votes for 1 second

Based on the Comelec's plans, Lim said that after a voter inserts the ballot in the VCM, the machine will display his or her vote for one second

This is part of the on-screen verification feature of VCMs.

Weeks before this, the Comelec had a different plan. Back then, the poll body had on-screen verification of VCMs Esmaguel III/Rappler.com

A VCM was supposed to display a person's votes for 15 The SC, however, later required the Comelec to print voting receipts. With the voting receipts, Lim said, the SC already considers on-screen verification as a redundancy

This is why the Comelec reduced the on-screen verification of votes to only one Health Insurance Corposecond - practically making the function useless for voters.

The Comelec could have turned off this function, but this would require the poll body to modify the source code or "master blueprint" of VCMs. It has no more time to do this given that the May 9 elections is only a few weeks away.

Receipt bin 'away from the machine'

In his interview on Friday Lim added that after the VCM displays a person's votes, the machine will then print the voting receipt.

The BEI will have to fold the receipt and cut it at the bottom. Before handing the receipt to the voter, the BEI will have to apply indelible ink on one of the voter's fingers.

"Kasi baka pagkuha ng resibo, baka biglang tumakbo 'yung voter (Because after getting the receipt, the voter might run away)," Lim said.

Lim was apparently referring to the possibility that a voter might vote again or take the receipt out of the election precinct. The Comelec bans both

The Comelec commissioner also said that a voter cannot read the receipt "in front" of the line, thus "holding up the queue."

He said the receptacle for receipts "is going to be located away from the machine." This means a voter will have to walk a few steps away from the VCM after he or she gets the voting receipt.

The voter is supposed to place his or her receipt in the recepdecided not to print voting tacle, to be retrieved if there is receipts and to activate the an election protest./ Paterno

Political Ad for Faustino Olowan, Paid for by Faustino Olowan, Baguio City Hall, Baguio City

OPINION April 2-5, 2016

Pre-campaign TV ads of presidential candidates

ALMOST LIKE A PLAGUE, the political ads of four candidates for president, five for vice president, and two dozen other candidates for senator and local posts have started to assault our TV screens starting March 2015, or 14 months ahead of the May 9, 2016 elections.

All together worth P6.7 billion, by media's published rate cards, these pre-campaign ads have turned this year's balloting into the priciest ever in the country's electoral history.

Who paid for the ads? The candidates have variably said that their unnamed donors, and/or portions of their own money, covered the expense.

But why ever must donors part with their millions when only the candidates stand to gain from political ads? And how, some citizens have asked, should the candidates pay back these donors who gave them not just money but also a quick ride to instant celebrity and fame on TV?

By Nielsen Media's monitoring reports, overkill is an understatement. It does not suffice to describe the stupendously rich pre-campaign ad spend of four candidates for president — Jejomar Binay of the United Nationalist Alliance; Rodrigo Duterte of PDP-Laban; Grace Poe of the Galing at Puso slate; and Manuel 'Mar' Roxas II of the Liberal Party.

Specific to the last detail, Nielsen Media's reports enroll the day, date, and time, and in which TV programs the ads aired; their rate card cost at the time FDITORIAL of broadcast; and which versions of the candidates' ad materials ran.

So the people may know, PCIJ has decided to reveal the full details of Nielsen Media's reports on the TV ads that featured four candidates for president as "advertiser" and "product" from March 2015 to

KAKAMPI MO ANG BATAS

Why Erap did not choose Binay BY: ATTY. BATAS MAURICIO

LIFE'S INSPIRATIONS: "... No one who hopes in you will ever be put to shame, but shame will come on those who are treacherous without cause..." (Psalm 25:3, the Holy Bible).

WHY ERAP CHOSE GRACE, NOT MAR: Someone from the camp of former President and incumbent Manila Mayor Joseph Estrada and asked me: "do you want to know why, despite Estrada's good assessment of Liberal Party presidential candidate Mar Roxas when Roxas was the trade secretary of Estrada in 2000, the former president did not support him but supported Sen. Grace Poe instead?" I naturally answered, yes, I wanted to know why Estrada chose to support Grace instead of Mar, so I can put in proper perspective the apparent sour-graping of Roxas when Estrada made known his choice on Tuesday, March 29, 2016.

The caller told me: "the reason is that Estrada did not like what Roxas did in 2001, during the so-called Second EDSA Revolution that toppled the former movie actor from power." Why, I asked, what did Roxas do then? Well, the caller said to me, Estrada expected Roxas to stand by him at that time, but Roxas was one of those who immediately left the former president. Estrada resented and

WHY ERAP DITCHED BINAY, TOO: The same caller also explained that it was actually the same feeling of resentment that prompted Estrada to junk Vice President Jejomar Binay in favor of Sen. Poe. Binay, it will be recalled, was Estrada's vice presidential candidate when he ran for the presidency for the second time in 2010. The two of them founded the United Nationalist Alliance (UNA), the party being used by Binay in his presidential run in 2016.

Yet, Estrada felt that Binay cheated on him, and did not really campaign for him in his sorties. I was told there were reports that reached Estrada that Binay in fact campaigned for then Sen. Benigno Aquino III, the only son of former President Cory Aquino, who, in turn gave Binay his first crack at big-time politics by appointing him as officer-in-charge of Makati City in 1986.

The reports appeared to have been confirmed when close relatives of then Sen. Aquino came out openly campaign for a "Noy-Bi" ticket, which meant the tandem of Sen. Noynoy Aquino and then Makati City Mayor Jejomar Binay. My caller said Estrada greatly resented this, too, and will never forget it for as long as he lived.

TREACHERY: AS OLD AS TIME: If it is any consolation, this phenomenon of disloyalty and treachery even against close friends and associates already existed in Biblical times. Many Biblical characters turned traitors against their friends and their family members, in a mad scramble to gain power. Unfortunately for these men and women, their treachery only brought them more misery, and even death.

In Proverbs 12 of the Bible, we find the following lament about disloyalty and treachery: "Help, LORD, for no one is faithful anymore; those who are loyal have vanished from the human race. Everyone lies to their neighbor; they flatter with their lips but harbor deception in their hearts.

"May the LORD silence all flattering lips and every boastful tongue---those who say, 'By our tongues we will prevail; our own lips will defend us---who is lord over us?' 'Because the poor are plundered and the needy groan, I will now arise, says the LORD. 'I will protect them from those who malign them...'"

"I dare my opponents to raise the level of the political campaign from mudslinging to actual program of government. This way, the Baguio voters will be able to make an intelligent decision," he said.

Rep. Aliping believes that his rivals can only result to attacking his character rather than engage him in intelligent campaigning because they cannot attack his accomplishments as a first term congressman. In the first two and a half years in Congress, Aliping has already surpassed the achievements of his predecessors.

In two years, Rep. Aliping was able to make improvements at the Baguio Athletic Bowl which previous administrations have failed to upgrade. Recently, the Department of Public Works and Highways reported that the budget for Baguio canceling financial support to dialysis patients exacerbates the difficulties patients undergo as they now have no fallback in their desire to maintain their treatment, especially for regular Epoetin injections and medicine intake maintenance," he said.

In his proposal, Fianza sought to request the PCSO to reinstate the assistance and endorsed the resolution of the kidney patients particularly the Baguio General Hospital and Medical Center Dialysis Patients and Partners Association to the administrators of both the PCSO and PhilHealth "for their attention and action for the sake of thousands of dialysis patients who depend on the mandates of these support agencies for their survival."

The association requested the city council to adopt a resolution asking the PCSO to set up a district and regional offices in Baguio and other parts of the in 2013 which was later granted leading to the establishment of a local PCSO office to serve patients in need of assistance in the city.

In 2014, again at the instance of the association, the city council passed a resolution asking PhilHealth to implement its plan to increase the coverage of dialysis treatments from 45 to 90, which again was give due course.

Both measures were endorsed and followed up by Mayor Mauricio Domogan and Rep. Nicasio Aliping Jr.

MAGKASANGGA TAYO >OK lang menosen niyo ang Junction!!!

>Pumupunta ng giyera, walang dalang bala!!! Reprint from lastweek BY: NESTOR "PAKEN" CASTRO

Nakakatawa talaga at nakalulungkot ang iba sa ating mga lokal na kandidatong tumatakbo na para bagang sila ay mga masokista. Meron diyan nagko-komento na hindi kailangan mag pa ads sa pahayagang ito sapagkat kakaunti lang naman daw ang nagbabasa nito. Ang mga iba naman ang katwiran ay wala raw silang budget o pondo para sa ads. Ang mga iba naman ay as a group (grupo) daw sila nagpapa-ads, at kung anu-ano pang iba't-ibang mga palusutan blues.

Gusto kong talakayin ng punto por punto ang ilan sa mga komentong pinarating sa akin ng aking mga kasamahan sa pahayagang ito.

Una sa lahat, ang pahayagang ito, tuwing election bi-weekly issues, for the past 5 elections ay ipinamumudmod ng libre sa mga pila ng jeepney atbp, para masiguro natin na makakarating sa mga tanga este taga Baguio ang mga issues na dapat nilang malaman, lalong lalo na ang sinasabing mga bagay-bagay na masasabing gusto nilang manatili as skeletons hidden in their closets.

Pangalawa, ang printing natin ay hindi bumababa sa 10,000 copies or kung minsan depende sa mga sponsors ay pwede pa umakyat hanggang 15,000 copies or more per issue at 2 the victors, will be f____ g us up for the next 3 to 6 years! times a week. Kaya sa palagay ninyo, kayong mga BOBONG MGA KANDIDATO ANG MAG ISIP??? Halimbawa ay sa pag a-advertise ninyo sa amin ay nadagdagan kayo ng kahit na 5% or 10% lamang (500 – 1000 votes) dala ng ating mga write-ups or ads ninyo sa ating pahayagan, hindi ba at tulong din yan para sa inyong pagka-panalo? Kaya patuloy ninyong menosin ang pahayagang ito sapagkat, ang prinsipyo ninyo in politics is division and not addition. Hi! Hi! HI!

Pangatlo, kung isa kang kandidato at tatakbo ka na wala kang pondo ay wala kang pinagka-iba sa isang sundalong pupunta sa giyera ng walang dalang baril o kulang ng bala. Isipin mo naman Mr. or Ms. Candidate, mayroon kang tatlong taon para sa iyong preparasyon, at kung hindi mo nakayanan, eh kung kapos ka pa rin ng pondo mas mabuting, huwag ka ng tumakbo ng hindi ka mag-mukhang Cont. on page 9

Nagadu ketdi ngaminen, aya, ti pinaluom ti panawen a birkog. Nasam-it ngata unayen, aya, ti tubbog ti binirkog? Damagentayo man ketdi kadagiti agtuturay. Aduda kano ti birkog nga agtuturaytayo, kasta man ti kuna dagiti politico a kayatna ti agsaad iti takem. Pabpabangsitenda ti incumbent nga agturay. Adu kano ti binirkogna iti bariles ti gobiernotayo. Ania ngata met ti gagem ti kalikagumna ti sumublat iti takem? Pukawenna kadi ti binibirkog nga aramid? Wenno agbirkogto met? Diak ammo. Ngem, ti kalikagumantayo nga umili, bumassit wenno mapuglay koma ti aramid a binibirkog. Sadino ti pangirugian dayta a panagpuglay? Mairugi koma iti kangatuan a turay nga agpababa. Tapno iti kasta, dagiti adda iti baba, adda bagnosda nga agbalbaliw. Ammotayon a dakes ti agbirkog wenno agtakaw. Ngem, saan a dakes ti agagawa nga agtrabaho, saan la ketdi nga abusuen unay ti bagi/salun-at. Ta makapadakes kano amin nga aglabes, saan kadi?

Agrigat kadi unay ngaminen ti panagbiag? Ta nupay nakababain

>Onion Skinned Candidates Political ads solicitation by media is legal and ethical BY: FREDDIE J. FARRES

One thing about this columnist who happens to also be the De Facto Publisher or impakto publisher depending on who you talk to, unlike most politicians, I truly hate hypocrites and as much as possible, I do my best to avoid them. Unfortunately, now or just recently is the season for solicitation of political ads which is a perfectly legal and ethical exercise. Unlike other media persons, this paper just comes around and knocks at the doorsteps of these politicos every election season. One thing entertainor indigents who want to make it appear as though they are buried deep in debt etc...., HA! HA! HA! That is why I totally agree with the comments of my fellow columnist (Nestor "Paken" Castro) when he dissected in his column and stated that these candidates appear to be just like soldiers who are going to war without any ammunition. Very true indeed as he said "Ano kayo, mga sundalo na pupunta sa giyera Castro did not realize that most political candidates are a shoo in for the esteemed famas awards.

At any rate, that is the entertainment value we get every election season. Let's enjoy the show, while it lasts, as the time for weeping (I guarantee you most of the loosers will be weeping come May 10) and

On a more serious note, I would like to point out, and the records (past issues) can easily validate my claim that this paper has always made it a point during election issues to come out with critical write – ups, some say highly critical at that. Our standard operating procedure s simple, we write the candidates of our choice for clarification and to get their side on certain issues. If they respond well and good, if not, so what, it's their name that is on the line, after which we publish the questions we ask and also the reply of the candidates. At times we do throw in our comments and in certain instances, we bait the candidates by asking them about certain things wherein which we already know

There is in fact this candidate who called me up today (Friday/April) and in an angry manner informed me that our questions are belowthe-belt and too personal and that "akala ko mag-kaibigan tayo" and "kapag ganito ang gagawin mo hindi na tayo magkaibigan" and "ano to black mail porke hindi ako maka pag ads agad, sabi ko naman sayo mag aads din ako," etc. Below-the-belt my ass, perhaps this fellow, a light against him in the past (the Baguio media is always mild, except us of course), perhaps he has forgotten that he is aspiring for public office and public office is a public trust and therefore, it is the media's option on whether or not they want to ask light, mild (a lot of time onsense) or hard questions, and you mister candidate is not exempted from this. You know the saying "if you can't take the heat, then get out are surely to be blamed. of the kitchen." I was mistaken to think that you would not be as onion skinned as you appeared to be in your reaction, or was it such a sensitive chord? The way I see it, you got flustered because you know that I know certain things that you did not realize I would know.

But anyway, for the candidates who might be privileged (or is it a curse) to be featured at our "dapat ba silang iboto o ibasura" section, you know what they say about publicity, whether good or bad is still publicity and the good thing is, it won't even cost you a cent (GREAT HA?!?!). Besides, didn't some of you say that "nobody reads our paper?" Now, let's see about that when 10,000 and up copies are distributed

FAIR AND SQUARE

Where Lies The Blame For Our Traffic Congestion in the City (Last of Series) BY: ATTY. JAMES S. VALEROS

Tn the city, transportation and traffic law enforcement is the ombined function of the PNP Traffic Law Enforcers and the so-called "Flying Squad" of the DOTC-CAR, respectively under the direct supervision of their Chief of Traffic and Chief of Operation.

Strictly speaking, however, the principal function of the PNP ing or at times insulting to this writer columnist's minute intelligence Traffic Law Enforcer is the implementation of city ordinances is that most of these candidates appear to be a bunch of destitutes and/ and city council resolutions relating to transportation and traffic; whereas, the enforcement of the Transportation and Traffic Code or Republic Act 4136, the Rules of the LTO / LTFRB and the policies of the DOTC is a task given the Flying Squad.

Nevertheless, there are times and occasions when PNP Traffic Law Enforcers, for want of enough personnel in the Flying Squad, ng walang bala o baril?" and "AGA AMO TAYON," or perhaps Mr. are requested to perform the duties and functions of the Flying Squad. In this case, the PNP Law Enforcers are first deputized by the LTO before they are allowed to function as augmentation to the Flying Squad, with authority to use the T.O.P. or Temporary Operator's Permit in case of apprehension (otherwise they are only authorized to use the T.C.T. or Traffic Citation Ticket issued by the > Aggravated traffic jams in Baguio City are the results of failure of all the law enforcers combined to address multiple violations of existing transportation and traffic laws, rules and regulations. Thus, there is no need to further pin-point who actually is to be blamed between the PNP law enforcer and the Flying Squad of the DOTC-CAR.

Obviously, however, based on their delineation of functions, it can be surmised that when traffic congestions are due to the operations of numerous colorums (motor vehicles without authority to the answers to the questions and likewise have the docs to back us up. operate as for-hire), or due to the out-of-line operations of public utility vehicles (PUVs), or entries of unauthorized PUVs such as the vans and buses from other regions in violation of the moratorium, the Flying Squad is definitely to blame.

On the other hand, when there are serious traffic congestions in the Central Business District due to violations of parking and lawyer at that has forgotten that practically anything under the sun is coding ordinances, or absence of discipline among drivers who fair game these days. Just because it appears that the media had been stop, load and unload passengers anywhere, or due to rampant violations of traffic signs by both pedestrians and motorists, or the almost permanent use of secondary roads in the city as parking spaces or garage as in Brookside, the PNP law enforcers who are lackadaisically enforcing the ordinances and resolutions of the City

> Of course, first and foremost reasons of our traffic congestion in the city is the structural make-up of the city, a community accordingly designed by the Americans to contain only 25 million inhabitants. Although the city through the years has underwent a continuous restructuring of the community to accommodate the traffic of increasing population, its hilly and mountainous terrain can only attained a limited expansion on its roads and by-ways. Therefore, faced with handicap in space, we can only rely on the efficiency of the law enforcers to ease us out from the debilitating traffic congestion.

Unfortunately, law enforcement has its own built-in problems like in the functioning of other departments in government. In the instant case, the law enforcers just like others in the bureaucracy tagiragsaken nga aramid? Food survival kadi ti makaigapu nga uray have acquired material bad habits symptomatic of corruption that greatly reduced their efficiencies in the conduct of law enforce-

> So, like the City Council and the Directors of DOTC-CAR in this region, the PNP Traffic Law Enforcers and the Flying Squad of the DOTC-CAR have also their share of blame for the traffic

> As city residents and taxpaying public, it behoove us to actively demand for increasing efficiency from our law enforcers through their leaders before intense traffic congestion in our city assumes the enormity of that kind obtaining in Metro Manila.
