LA MANUFACTURE
Intersection collection – Bookcase
Design by Neri&Hu

For La Manufacture, Neri&Hu have designed a range of bookcases with sliding panels, as part of their 'Intersection' collection celebrating monastery life.

The use of natural or stained wood panels for the structure gives this range of bookcases a simple, yet sculptural air. Simplicity expressed through clean and uncluttered lines, evoking traditional and religious furniture that favours function over ornamentation.

This high-quality walnut bookcase comes in different heights and widths and is available in a variety of finishes: natural, stained plum, off-white or dark green.

Despite its simple and austere look, this collection designed and developed during the pandemic radiates a certain sense of tranquility and serenity. It is an invitation to focus on what truly matters, on building sincere relationships.
