SECTION-II

3. Translate any two of the following paragraphs into Urdu: 4,4
- Art is another subject in which I am particularly interested. I am currently studying Art at graduation level and have even had my work exhibited in a gallery. The piece of my art work was a painting inspired by my college trip to Northern areas last year. In my spare time, I enjoy running my own comedy website with my friends, which has enabled me to learn good organizational skills.
 - The upper level of the interior is adorned with blue paint. More than 200 stained glass windows with intricate designs allowed natural light to brighten up its interior and the chandeliers further illuminated it with their glow. The decorations include verses from the Holy Quran. The floors are covered with carpets.
 - Now and then I have tested my seeing friends to discover what they see. Recently I was visited by a very good friend who had just returned from a long walk in the woods. I asked her what she had observed. "Nothing in particular," she replied. I might have been incredulous had I not been accustomed to such responses, for long ago I became convinced that the seeing see little.

Iqbal is not only the greatest poet of our age, but also one of the greatest poets of all times. There are not many poets who wrote as many great poems as he did. He did not write poetry for poetry's sake. He was in fact much more than a mere poet. He was a learned man. He was a great scholar and philosopher. He was a political leader of great importance.

But more than anything he was a Muslim who had a great love for God and His Prophet (PBUH). He wrote poetry to express the great and everlasting truths of philosophy, history and Islam. He wrote poetry to awaken the Muslims of the whole world from the deep sleep and asked them to unite.

QUESTIONS :

- Why is Iqbal considered to be one of the greatest poets of all times?
 - Did he write poetry for poetry's sake?
 - How can you say that Iqbal was much more than a mere poet?
 - What kind of a Muslim was Iqbal?
 - With what aim did he write poetry?
